

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES OF ORDER.

ORGANIZATION.

1st. The Council shall be opened each day with prayer.

2d. After the call to order, no member shall remain standing, nor afterward stand except to address the chair.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1st. After the organization of the Council, the following order of business shall be observed :

The appointment of a Treasurer pro tempore, when the Treasurer is absent.

The adoption of rules of order.

The reading of the journal of the preceding day.

The reading of pastoral addresses.

The appointment of committees.

Report of standing committees.

Report of special committees.

Unfinished business.

2d. There shall be appointed by the President, not later than the second day of the Council, unless otherwise directed, the following standing committees, to consist of an equal number of each order:

A Committee on the State of the Church, to whom shall be referred the address of the Bishop on the opening of the Council.

A Committee on the Fund for the Support of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen.

A Committee on the Episcopal Fund.

A Committee on the Brotherhood.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Disabled Clergy Fund.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Bruce Fund.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Missionary Society.

A Committee on Parochial Reports.

A Committee on the Admission of New Parishes.

A Committee on Elections.

Rules of Order.

A Committee on Finance, consisting of laymen.

A Committee on Clerical Support, consisting of ten laymen.

A Committee on Sunday Schools.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

1st. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President, and if in writing, be read by the Secretary, before debate.

2d. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in possession of the Council, but may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision, with the consent of the second.

3d. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the President or any member require it.

4th. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under color of amendment as a substitute for the motion or proposition under debate.

5th. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, to commit or to amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order enumerated.

6th. The previous question shall be admitted only when demanded by a majority of the members present—it shall be in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" and once decided, all debate and amendment are precluded.

7th. A motion to adjourn, or to lay on the table, shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

8th. When a member desires to speak in debate, or present any matter to the Council, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personality.

9th. If any member transgress the rules of the Council, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case, the member so called to order shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. If the ruling of the President be appealed from, the Council shall decide the appeal without debate.

10th. When two or more members rise at once, the President shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

11th. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, without leave of the Council.

Rules of Order.

12th. The vote on all questions shall be taken by ayes and noes, whenever seven members require it.

13th. Any member may call for the division of the question where the sense will admit of it, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

14th. Every member who may be in the house when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Council, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

15th. No member shall vote upon a question in the decision of which he is immediately and personally interested.

16th. Upon a division and count of the Council on any question, no member shall be counted who is not within the limits assigned as seats to the members.

17th. When a question has been decided by the Council or postponed indefinitely, it may be reconsidered upon motion made by a member voting in the majority; provided such motion be made on the same or next succeeding day of the session.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1st. No member shall absent himself from the meetings of the Council without leave unless he be sick or unable to attend.

2d. The President shall, at his discretion, select suitable seats without the limits of those allotted to the use of the members, which shall be appropriated to the accommodation of visiting clergymen and candidates for orders who may be invited by the Rector or wardens of the church in which the meetings of the Council are held under the direction of the President and Council.

3d. No spectators shall, during the daily sessions of the Council, be admitted above or within the pews allotted to the members, and the Rector and wardens of the church in which the sessions of the Council are held are directed to see that this rule is enforced.

4th. No rule of order shall be suspended except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

JOURNAL
NINETY-SECOND ANNUAL COUNCIL
OF THE
Protestant Episcopal Church
IN VIRGINIA.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH,
ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 18th, 1887.

The Ninety-second Annual Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia met to-day in St. Paul's Church, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Morning prayer was read by the Rev. Robb White. Ante-communion service was read by Bishop Whittle and Bishop Randolph. The sermon was by the Rev. H. B. Lee, on the 7th verse of the 33d chapter of Ezekiel.

After divine service the Council assembled in the church and was called to order by the Bishop.

The roll of the clergy entitled to seats was called, and the following answered to their names :

Rev. T. G. Dashiell presented a petition from certain parishioners residing within the bounds of Whittle Parish asking to be set apart as a separate and independent congregation, and, upon his motion, it was referred to the Committee on New Parishes.

The Bishop of West Virginia, Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin, was invited to a seat in the chancel with Bishop Whittle.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell moved that on Friday morning at 10 o'clock Bishop Randolph be requested to deliver to the Council an address prepared by him in reference to the proposed name of our Church.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell moved that Rule of Order No. 3 be stricken out of the Rules, and that the same be appended to Canon 13.

The motion was referred to a committee consisting of Rev. T. G. Dashiell, Rev. H. T. Sharp, Mr. R. Taylor Scott, and Mr. S. J. C. Moore.

Resolution on Cost of Printing Journal.

On motion of Rev. W. C. Latané, it was ordered that the Parochial Reports be endorsed with the number of the year and the names of the Church, Parish, County, and Rector.

On motion of Rev. H. B. Lee, it was ordered that the proposed amendment to Article II of the Constitution, offered last year, be made the order of the day for to-morrow, immediately after the reading of the Bishops' addresses.

On motion of Rev. A. P. Gray, it was Resolved, That this Council meet at 4 P. M. to-morrow for a special service of prayer to Almighty God on behalf of our State and Diocese, that He may send us a fruitful season and enlighten our darkness amid our State troubles.

Rev. J. J. Clopton moved that Canon 8, Section 2, be so changed as to read at lines eighteen and nineteen, "only male persons, communicants in good standing," &c.

The motion was referred to the committee to whom was referred the proposed amendment to Canon 13.

In absence of Rev. Thomas Spencer, Assistant-Secretary, Rev. J. J. Lloyd was appointed as same, pro tem.

The Rev. W. T. Roberts offered the following :

Whereas, the expense of printing and distributing the JOURNAL is greater than that of similar publications in the State ; and

Whereas, according to the report of the Finance Committee to the last Council, there will certainly be a deficiency of $2,000 in the treasury at the close of the present fiscal year ; and

Whereas, the said Finance Committee, in said report, did call attention to the expensiveness of the aforesaid JOURNAL and recommend its reduction ; therefore be it

Resolved by this Council, That a committee of five—three Clergymen and two Laymen—be appointed to examine the JOURNAL and report by what means or methods the cost can be reduced.

The resolution was referred to the following committee: Revs. D. F. Sprigg, D. D., W. T. Roberts, and T. G. Dashiell, and Messrs. Thomas Potts and Joseph Bryan.

Second Day's Minutes.

The following was offered by the Rev. Wylls Rede :

Resolved, That a special committee, consisting of two Clergymen and three Laymen, be appointed to consider a request for an alteration of the boundary line between St. James'-Northam and Henrico Parishes, and to report to the Council before its adjournment what action should be taken upon the same.

The resolution was decided to be out of order, as neither Parish had sent any petition upon the subject.

The Council then adjourned until Thursday, at 10 o'clock A. M.

THURSDAY, May 19, 1887.

The Council met at 10 A. M. for divine service. Morning prayer was read by Rev. R. W. Forsyth. The sermon was by Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin.

After service the Council assembled for business, and was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The following clergy, absent yesterday, appeared to-day and took their seats :

Rev. W. E. Burwell,	Rev. R. J. McBryde, D. D.,
" R. R. Claiborne,	" John McGill,
" L. R. Combs,	" C. O. Pruden,
" D. C. T. Davis,	" B. M. Randolph,
" Benjamin Dennis,	" Frederick F. Reese,
" J. S. Hanckel, D. D.,	" W. R. Savage,
" O. A. Kinsolving, D. D.,	" F. G. Scott,
" C. Minnigerode, D. D.,	" B. D. Tucker.

Rev. B. D. Tucker offered a petition from St. Peter's Church, Elizabeth River Parish, to be set apart as an independent church.

Referred to Committee on New Parishes.

Bishop's Report.

Bishop Whittle then read his Annual Address :

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN :

My first service after the adjournment of our last Council was May 30th, 1886, when, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Lawrence, G. W. Nelson, and the rector, I consecrated Grace Memorial Church, Lexington, and preached the sermon. This is a massive, costly, and beautiful building of lime-stone, erected, after many years of prayer and effort under the faithful ministry of the late Rev. W. N. Pendleton, D. D. (whose funeral was, I believe, the first service held in the completed edifice), for the worship of Almighty God and in memory of the character and services of the great General Robert E. Lee. At night, in same church, after sermon by Rev. Mr. Nelson, confirmed five.

June 4.—Preached in Emmanuel, Front Royal, and, at the request of the rector, baptized an infant.

June 5.—Preached in St. Thomas, Middletown.

June 6.—Meade Memorial, White Post, confirmed two.

June 7.—Christ Church, Millwood, confirmed six.

June 8.—Grace, Berryville, confirmed eleven.

June 9.—Wickliffe Church, Clarke county, confirmed two.

June 11.—Attended the chaplain's examination of the colored divinity students in Petersburg.

June 15-16.—Assisted in the examinations at the Theological Seminary.

June 22-25.—Attended the meeting of the trustees and the closing exercises of the Seminary, and on the last day admitted three members of the graduating class to Deacons' Orders.

June 29.—Preached in St. John's Church, Hampton, ordained the assistant minister, Rev. William N. Meade, Presbyter, and confirmed four, of whom two were Indians. Rev. Messrs. Tucker, Reese, the rector and others assisted in the services.

July 9.—Admitted three of the colored divinity students in Petersburg to Deacons' Orders.

August 29.—Christ Church, Warm Springs, Bath county, baptized an adult, preached, and confirmed six. This church was then and is now without a rector.

September 5.—Conducted the service and preached morning and night in Emmanuel Church, Goodson, which was and still is vacant.

Bishop's Report.

September 6.—St. Thomas, Abingdon, confirmed six.

September 7.—Preached in Grace Church, Glade Spring.

September 8.—Preached in Christ Church, Marion—the rectorship vacant.

September 9.—St. Thomas, Wytheville, preached and confirmed sixteen. This church building had been much enlarged and improved since my last visit, which indicated the prosperity of the parish under its energetic and faithful pastor.

September 10.—McGill Memorial (vacant), preached and confirmed one.

September 12.—Preached morning and night in the Stras Memorial Church, Tazewell Courthouse.

September 14.—Our own building not being finished, preached in the Baptist Church, Pocahontas—which was kindly loaned us—and confirmed seven.

September 15.—St. James', Central, confirmed four.

September 17.—Christ Church, Blacksburg, confirmed twelve.

September 19.—Consecrated St. Paul's, Salem, Roanoke county, and, after sermon by Rev. R. A. Goodwin, confirmed eight. This was a small brick building, which had been enlarged to a commodious and handsome church. At night of the same day conducted service, preached, and confirmed ten in St John's, Roanoke, which was then without a minister, but is now served by Rev. William H. Meade, D. D.

September 26.—Old Church, Chase City, confirmed three.

September 27.—St. James', Boydton, confirmed three.

September 28.—Preached in St. Luke's, Mecklenburg.

September 29.—Grace, Mecklenburg, confirmed one.

October 3.—At the request of the rector, baptized an infant in St. John's, Lunenburg, preached, and confirmed two; and in the afternoon, in Trinity Chapel (colored), confirmed nine.

Soon after my return from the General Convention, which was near the end of October, I set out on a visitation, extending through nearly two weeks, of the colored congregations of Brunswick and Mecklenburg counties. Most of the way I was accompanied by Rev. Messrs. E. B. Jones and J. S. Russell, to whom I am indebted for acceptable help, the former preaching twice and the latter once, besides assisting in the services. On every occasion I preached, or made an address, and celebrated the Lord's Supper. What I saw and heard of these colored congregations—the large attendance, their apparent interest in, and attachment to, our services, the numbers confirmed, their humble, but earnest efforts to build themselves churches, and the testimony borne by the whites to their good influence on the surrounding communities—was most gratifying. And I here take occasion to say that anything which may be given to aid these people to complete any of the seven churches which they have commenced will be worthily bestowed and gratefully received.

November 9.—Trinity Church, Brunswick, confirmed four.

November 10.—St. James' (colored), confirmed one.

November 11.—St. Thomas' (colored), confirmed twenty.

November 12.—St. Andrew's, confirmed one, and St. Paul's (colored), confirmed six.

November 13.—Diamond Grove (colored), confirmed fifteen.

November 14.—St. Martha's, Brunswick, confirmed forty five, and St. Mary's, Mecklenburg, confirmed thirty-five.

November 15.—St. Mark's, Mecklenburg (colored), confirmed twenty.

November 16.—Grace (which was loaned by the white vestry for the occasion), confirmed seventeen, colored.

November 17.—St. Paul's Chapel (colored), confirmed forty-nine.

November 27.—Preached in St. John's Church, Nansemond county, and confirmed one.

November 28.—In the morning preached in the Glebe Church, and at night in St. Paul's and confirmed five.

December 5.—St. James', Louisa Courthouse, preached and confirmed two. Had appointments for night and the next morning at Gordonsville, which I was unable to fill, because of an unusually severe snow-storm.

December 14.—In St. Paul's, Norfolk, after sermon by Rev. A. S. Lloyd, the Rev. B. D. Tucker presented J. H. M. Pollard, a colored Deacon, who was admitted to Priest's orders.

December 19.—St. John's, Richmond, confirmed nine.

1887, January 12.—St. Stephen's, Petersburg, ordained George F. Bragg, Jr., Deacon.

February 6.—Officiated morning and afternoon in Christ Church, Williamsburg, reading prayers, preaching, celebrating the Lord's Supper, and confirming eighteen. The church was and still is without a pastor.

Bishop's Report.

February 9.—St. Stephen's, Petersburg, admitted J. S. Russell (colored), Deacon, to Priest's orders.

From February 24th to March 1st, was at the Theological Seminary going over the Prayer-Book with the senior class, by request of the Board of Trustees. And I will remark that I was most favorably impressed by the earnestness and fidelity of professors and students in their attention to their respective duties.

March 6th.—Assisted by Rev. J. R. Hubbard, the rector being absent on account of sickness, preached in St. John's Church, Portsmouth, confirmed eight and celebrated the Lord's Supper. At night preached in Trinity Church and confirmed eighteen.

March 13.—Christ Church, Norfolk, confirmed thirty-one; St. Paul's, twenty; and St. Luke's, thirty.

March 14.—Consecrated St. Peter's Church, Brambleton. Brambleton, then a beautiful suburb, is now within the corporate limits of Norfolk, and has a population of about 3,000. The Church is a comfortable and pretty frame building, on a large and valuable lot, with a good and self-supporting congregation and a minister of their own, all the result of the faithful labors of Rev. B. D. Tucker, of St. Paul's, Norfolk.

March 15.—Preached in the morning in Eastern Shore Chapel, Princess Anne county, and confirmed twelve, and at night in St. Peter's, Brambleton, and confirmed sixteen.

March 16.—Preached in Emmanuel, Kempsville, and in the Holy Innocents' (colored), Norfolk, and confirmed six.

Nowhere in the Diocese is there a larger field for our Church amongst the colored people, or one where its elevating and sanctifying influences are more needed than in the city of Norfolk. The minister who is laboring amongst them has much to encourage him, but they are sadly in want of a suitable church building, and can hope to accomplish comparatively but little until this want is supplied. The congregation of the Holy Innocents, I am persuaded, are ready to contribute the extent of their ability towards the erection of a church, but they are poor, very poor, and must have help from those whom God has made stewards of more of the good things of this world. Would that our brethren, Clerical and Lay, of Norfolk, could be persuaded to take hold of this important work without delay and push to speedy completion.

Bishop's Report.

March 20.—Grace Church, Petersburg, confirmed thirty-five, and St. Paul's, sixteen.

March 23.—Christ, Richmond, confirmed seventeen.

March 25.—St. John's, Richmond, confirmed fifty-six.

March 27.—St. John's, Petersburg, confirmed seven; The Good Shepherd, thirty-four; and St. Stephen's (colored), twenty-six.

March 30.—Monumental, Richmond, confirmed fourteen.

April 3.—Christ Church, Gordonsville, preached and confirmed six, and St. Paul's (colored) School, and confirmed nineteen. The colored work at this place, under Mrs. B. S. Brent, is most encouragingly successful.

April 6.—St. Paul's, Richmond, confirmed eleven.

April 8.—Good Friday. Trinity, Staunton, confirmed twenty-six.

April 10.—Easter-Day. Preached morning and night in Grace Memorial, Lexington, and confirmed fourteen.

April 11.—Emmanuel, Harrisonburg, confirmed nine, one being colored.

April 12.—St. Andrew's, Mt. Jackson, confirmed four.

April 13.—Emmanuel, Woodstock, confirmed one.

April 14.—Christ, Winchester, which, since last November, has been without a Rector, confirmed four.

April 17.—Meade Memorial, Manchester, confirmed twenty-one, and St. Philip's (colored), Richmond, confirmed three.

April 24.—Christ Church, Loudoun, confirmed eight, and St. James', Leesburg, confirmed nine.

April 25.—Preached in St. Paul's, Hamilton, and confirmed two.

April 26.—Preached in Church of Our Saviour, Oatlands.

April 27.—Confirmed in Aldie, two; and in Emmanuel, Middleburg, three.

April 28.—Trinity, Upperville, confirmed two.

April 29.—Emmanuel, Fauquier, confirmed three.

April 30.—Trinity, Marshall, confirmed three.

May 1.—Grace, The Plains, confirmed three, and in Whittle Chapel, in the same Parish, confirmed four.

May 3.—Leed's, Fauquier, confirmed twelve.

May 7.—Preached in Mapsico Church, Charles City county, and confirmed two.

May 8.—Preached in Westover Church, and was prevented by a severe storm from filling another appointment on the same day.

Bishop's Report.

May 15.—Made a second visitation to Christ Church, Richmond, and confirmed nine, and a third to St. John's, where ten were confirmed, making seventy-five during the year.

Kinsolving in Richmond county, Rev. George E. Howell in Liberty, Rev. William P. Burke in Petersburg, Rev. Walter L. Burwell in Alexandria, Rev. George F. Bragg, Jr., in Norfolk. The four last mentioned are colored.

MINISTERS DECEASED.

It is my painful duty to report the deaths of two of our brethren of the clergy during the past year. The Rev. Edmund C. Murdaugh, D. D., went as a candidate for Orders to Alabama, and was ordained Deacon by Bishop Cobbs, January 6, 1845. After laboring for a number of years in that diocese, he returned to Virginia, to Martin's-

 Bishop's Report.

Brandon and Southwark Parishes, whence he removed, for a short time, to Maryland, and finally to Fredericksburg as rector of St. George's Church. Subsequently he organized Trinity Church, in the same place, and became its first rector, in which charge he died, November 7, 1886, after a ministry of nearly forty-two years. He was earnest and diligent in the Master's work, and abundant in labors, especially amongst the poor. Having fought a good fight and kept the faith, and finished his course, he has doubtless entered into the joy of his Lord.

The Rev. Dabney M. Wharton, after a pilgrimage of more than four score years, departed this life at his home, in Westmoreland county, May 4, 1887. Ordained by Bishop Moore, July 10, 1834; he passed the greater part, if not the whole, of his humble, gentle and earnest ministry of more than fifty-two years in the counties of Spotsylvania and Westmoreland. He had no regular charge for some time before his death, and, although feeble from infirm health and the weight of years, yet, constrained by the love of Christ, he continued to labor, as he had opportunity, to the last. He was truly a good man, full of the Holy Ghost, and, by his godly life and conversation, adorned the doctrine of God his Saviour in all things. All who enjoyed the privilege of his acquaintance may well bless God for the good example of this His servant, who, having finished his course in faith, now rests from his labors.

The condition and interests of our various diocesan institutions will be laid before you in the reports of their respective officers.

Bishop's Report.

There are at this time at least forty of our churches, in as many as twenty-five different counties, which have no regular ministerial services. To provide in some measure for this deplorable state of things the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society at their last meeting made provision for the employment of an Evangelist, and one will be appointed as soon as a suitable man can be found. To say nothing of carrying the church into new fields, or of building it up in feeble parishes, the statement just made shows the supreme importance of sustaining our Missionary Society, and that I cannot too earnestly urge my brethren of the clergy not to fail to call on their people to contribute liberally to its funds.

During the past year, three kind friends of the negroes have enabled the trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School to purchase a valuable piece of property, of nearly six acres, with two sets of buildings, beautifully situated on one of the principal streets of Petersburg, at a cost of about nine thousand dollars. One of the buildings is occupied by the colored divinity students, and the other by a normal school, Rev. R. A. Goodwin Principal, with a boarding department for girls under the management of Mrs. Payne, widow of Bishop Payne, who resides in the house. Altogether, the work amongst the colored people, involving many and great difficulties, is encouraging to those who are engaged in it.

A session of our General Convention was held last October in the city of Chicago. A number of unimportant changes in the Prayer Book, which had been proposed by the preceding, were adopted by this Convention, and are now, of course, parts of our Liturgy.

The House of Deputies occupied several days in discussing a proposition to change the name of the church, the object being to get rid of the title "Protestant Episcopal." The proposition was lost by a small majority, but will no doubt be renewed in the next Convention, and with every prospect of success. What the Bishops will do if the question shall be brought before them no one can say.

The fact that the movement met with such favor in the House of Deputies has created widespread surprise and alarm. But why should it be so regarded by any who are acquainted with the history of events during the past fifty years? It is simply the seed which has been sown and permitted to grow, bringing forth fruit after its kind, and which might have been looked for as a matter of course. As you are aware, each of my predecessors, Bishops Moore, Meade and Johns, and many other true and faithful men, solemnly warned the Church, from time to time, that Romish teaching and practices, contrary to the Word of God and condemned by our standards, were being privily brought in amongst us, which would ultimately destroy the Scriptural and Protestant character of our communion. These innovations have continued to increase with such steadiness and rapidity, without hindrance or even rebuke, that in many places, and by many of our clergy, doctrines are openly and boastfully taught and ceremonies observed, for protesting against which our fathers were burned at the stake. It is not not strange, then, but just what might have been expected, that these Romanizers, having changed for themselves the Church, should wish to change the name also, and adopt another suited to the new order of things. I cannot trust myself to discuss this subject; but there are two questions which, it seems to me, we are bound to consider. First, is it not our duty to make an effort to change the organization of our General Convention and to constitute it on a basis of something like justice and equality, so that a small minority of our ministers and members shall not have the power, through their representatives, as now, to legislate for the large majority? And, second, are we of Virginia (whatever other dioceses may do) going to submit to the effort of this minority to undo the work of the Reformation for us and our children, unprotestantize our Church and carry us back to Rome?

May He who is the Fountain of all Wisdom direct us in all our doings with His most gracious favor, and further us with His continual help, to the glory of His holy name.

Bishop Randolph then read his Annual Address:

ADDRESS OF BISHOP RANDOLPH.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

Before I begin to read the record of visits to the Parishes, I must express my regret that circumstances compelled me, in the fall and in the early spring, to relinquish work which I had hoped to accomplish. After the General Convention I had planned to visit the churches in the counties bordering upon the Rappahannock and Potomac rivers, but was prevented from doing so by lameness, the

CHURCHES CONSECRATED.

Trinity Church, Pittsylvania county, was consecrated on the 13th of September, 1886. The Rev. George Funsten and the Rev. Dr. Dame assisted in the services. The church is a neat Gothic building, with a seating capacity for 175 persons. The congregation was organized and the church was erected under the pastoral care and the missionary ministrations of the Rev. Dr. Dame, Rector of Epiphany Church, Danville. The history of the work of the Rev. Dr. Dame in building up the Episcopal Church in the city of Danville, and in planting churches in the counties adjacent beyond the limits of his own parish, is an encouraging record of the power of missionary zeal, fidelity and perseverance in the Christian ministry. For the half of a century his devoted work has resulted in the steady growth and extension of our Church throughout the portion of the Diocese of which Danville is the centre. Under our Church system the permanent pastorate with the missionary spirit is the strongest element of power and steady growth. Changes may be desirable for ministers, and, under exceptional circumstances, for Parishes. Where the support is absolutely inadequate, the removal of the pastor is not an open question. A migratory ministry is the necessary result of an ungenerous and parsimonious indifference among the laity in the provision made for the support of the clergy. Each year of faithful service increases the value of your pastor's ministrations to you and your children, and strengthens the hold of your church upon your community. Each year should find a congregation more generous and self-sacrificing in the expression of their sense of the value of ministerial fidelity. It is a blessing to a people when a good man abides among them and grows old in their service in the Gospel ministry.

Assistant Bishop's Address.

On the 14th of February, St. Thomas' Church, Halifax county, was consecrated. This church, it is hoped, will unite with the churches at Mt. Laurel and Clover Depot, Halifax county, in the support of a minister. The Rev. Thomas Packard, under whose ministry this church was built and this congregation organized, and the Rev. Mr. Pender, assisted in the consecration service.

The occasion was the last service of the Rev. Mr. Packard in the Parish.

The Missionary Society, in response to a request from myself, were compelled to decline an appropriation for this new field, and Mr. Packard, finding the support inadequate to the needs of his family, accepted a call to the Diocese of Maryland.

I deeply regret his loss to the Diocese. As a scholar and a gentleman, and a devoted worker in the ministry, he has the confidence and the admiration of the people of all classes in his Parishes, and of his brethren in the ministry.

On April the 6th, Grace Memorial Church at Lynwood, Rockingham county, was consecrated. The Rector, the Rev. G. Moseley Murray, the Rev. Dr. Wheat, and the Rev. O. S. Bunting, of Harrisonburg, assisted in the services. The church is Gothic in form, and both the exterior and interior are comely and graceful. The seating capacity is for two hundred persons. In addition there is a gallery for colored people, which is always well filled. The cost of the building is $1,200—a specimen of economical construction. It stands upon the field of the battle of Port Republic, and upon the spot where the fight was the hottest and the carnage the greatest. Nature heals the ravages that man has wrought in the earth, and the grass grows green upon the mounds of buried cities and from the blood of battle-fields. The gospel of peace that comes from the Lord of Nature heals the wounds of human passion, and survives the desolations of the wrongs and the strifes of men. This little valley was once covered with the pall of the smoke of battle, and echoed with the cries of combat and the thunder of artillery. To-day it is peaceful, and consecrated to the gospel of peace, and the hills around it echo to the hymns of redemption. I cannot speak too warmly of the fidelity and enthusiasm of the minister of this Parish and his people in their work among the poor.

On the 11th of April, Emmanuel Chapel, near Boyce station, Clarke county, was consecrated. The Rev. Mr. Page, of Wickliffe, and the Rev. Mr. Phillips, of Berryville, with the Rector, the Rev. C. B. Bryan, assisted in the services. This work is the result of the efforts of the Rev. Mr. Bryan, the Rector, at Millwood, to extend the church to a class of people in a thickly settled community who have been practically without Gospel ministrations. Already the work has the tokens of the blessing of God upon the community and upon the Parish. My heart warms when I think of these consecration services, and the loving earnestness of these Rectors in their work among the poor.

In the month of June I visited the Diocesan School for girls at Staunton. Before coming to Virginia to live, my experience with large schools for girls in the great cities had, in some instances, produced feelings of depression with reference to the standards of female education. My visit to this school gave me the impression of earnest and faithful and thorough work. The Principal and her corps of teachers appeared to me to be inspired with the desire to accomplish the best results in the development of mind and character in each pupil committed to their charge. I think the Diocese may congratulate itself in having such a school for the education of its daughters.

I assisted the Bishop in the ordinations at the Seminary on the 25th of June. I regret that so far I have not been able to attend the meetings of the various convocations to which I have been kindly invited. I am satisfied, by observation, of the good accomplished by these meetings of the clergy to the churches in the communities where they are held and upon those who participated in them. As missionary organizations, they promise more and more to become most important agents for the extension and the building up of the Church. I would most earnestly advise the clergy to be faithful in their attendance upon them. If you cannot attend, at least write a letter to the Secretary expressing your sympathy and explaining the cause of your absence. The age we live in is expressing its sense of the power of co-operative work by forming associations in every department of knowledge and of progressive industry.

It is but the working out of a Gospel principle into all the activities of man's temporal life. The world is learning it from Christ and from the Christian Church. The law of sympathy with one another is as much a part of the Christian code as prayer and worship and faith. Sympathy not only with each other's joys and sorrows, but practical and personal sympathy with each other's work, and in the common aim of the body to which we belong. A minister's field and first duty is to his own Parish, but he misses the strength which comes from sympathy with his brother-workers when he gravitates into the habit of never looking beyond his own field of labor. Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus—not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. It is good for us, it is good for the great cause, when we meet to strengthen each other's hands and cheer each other's hearts in the work of the Lord and Master whom we serve.

These meetings tend to break the loneliness which is sometimes a trial and a discouragement to the pastors of our country churches, and out of them spring personal friendships which cement the clergy of a community and a diocese into a living brotherhood. We should try to make the brotherhood of the Christian ministry a reality, and to keep it so.

When a brother is in trouble, write him a letter of sympathy. When he is in joy, tell him that you share his joy. When he preaches a good sermon, grasp his hand and tell him that his sermon helped you. So far from contributing to vanity and conceit, it will humble him, and help him as he stands again to do his Master's work.

Sympathy with one another is the practical bond of unity in the Church, and under its genial influence, alienations are healed and new energies for work are born. Sympathy is not, as we are ready to suppose, a question of temperament; for we are all narrow and self-bound by nature. It is a question of contact with Christ, and it widens and deepens as we get closer to Him.

The imitation of Christ is not impossible to any of us; for in the power of His spirit, His perfections may become ours, and His strength may grow fair and noble out of all our human weakness.

Perhaps it is well for persons in the position which we, your Bishops, occupy, to embrace every opportunity to remind our brethren of these elementary Gospel principles, which form the blessing and the strength of the Gospel ministry.

The order of the day, the proposed amendment to Art. II of the Constitution, was then taken up, by which it was proposed to strike out the words "minister" and "clergyman" wherever they occurred, and insert the word "Presbyter."

On motion of Rev. R. A. Goodwin, the subject was laid on the table.

Rev. G. H. Norton, D. D., presented the annual report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese begs leave to report that since the last Council the following have been recommended as candidates for Holy Orders, viz:

Paul Albert Hotaling,
L. W. Doggett,
R. C. Jett,
F. P. Clark,
John T. Foster,

C. E. Woodson,
James W. Morris,
Lucien Lee Kinsolving,
Mack Floyd Nelson, colored,
Beverly Moses Jefferson, colored.

 Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The following have been recommended for Deacon's Orders, viz :

R. Allen Castleman,	George Edward Howell, colored,
A. B. Kinsolving,	Wm. Patterson Burke, "
T. C. Page,	Walter Lewis Burwell, "
	George F. Bragg, Jr., "

The following have been recommended for Priest's Orders, viz :

Rev. Keating S. Nelson,	Rev. J. H. M. Pollard, colored,
	" James S. Russell, "

Also consent was given to the consecration of Rev. Edwin Gardner Weed, Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Florida; and of Rev. Elisha Smith Thomas, as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Kansas. Consent was also given to the election of Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, S. T. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Missouri, and of Bishop Whittaker, as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH PACKARD, President.

GEO. H. NORTON, Secretary.

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D., presented the annual report of the Board of Managers of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, which was referred to the Committee on Widows and Orphans.

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund respectfully report: That in consequence of the large demand upon the income of the Board, no increase has been made the past year to the amount of capital invested. It remains $22,580 in bonds, with market value of $27,494.97.

A committee of the Board having examined into the state of the securities, found them safe and profitable investments, and in accordance with the report of our Treasurer.

It will at once be seen that the income from the above sum, being less than $1,500, can afford to the families of our fifteen beneficiaries a very meagre amount of help and comfort. We are compelled, then, to fall back upon the annual contributions of our Parishes to furnish the necessary means for the bare sustenance of the widows and orphans of our deceased brethren. And yet, to this important and vital object of charity more than one-half of our churches—and among them some of our richest ones—have contributed during the last year not one cent. The amount received by our Treasurer from only seventy-seven parishes and churches was $985.41. We have been obliged, then, to reduce the amounts appropriated in a majority of cases. The sum to be distributed was only $2,210, and although death has removed two of our beneficiaries, one new family has been added to our list, and the number of families remains the same—viz: fifteen. If all the churches and Parishes of the Diocese would contribute an average of $20, some adequate relief might be afforded to those helpless sufferers, who justly claim from the members of the Church in Virginia their first consideration.

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

The list of appropriations is as follows: To Mrs. Meredith and daughter, $200; Mrs. Weddell, Mrs. Steptoe, Mrs. Murdaugh, $200 each; to Mrs. Hoxton's children, Mrs. Pendleton, Mrs. Stringfellow, Mrs. Gregory, each $150; Mrs. I. P. McGuire, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Okeson, Mrs. Morrison and the Fisher children, $125 each; Mrs. E. B. McGuire, $60.

Rev. Dr. Gibson read the report of the historiographer of the Diocese:

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER.

Of late years there has been a great awakening of the public mind as to the value of the original sources of history. Time was when historians were content to accept oral traditions for facts. Hence many original records were suffered to moulder into illegible dust. Historians are no longer satisfied with drinking at the branch when they can find the spring from which it flows. In England they have had, for some years past, a large corps of competent editors with a great company of assistants tracing the streams of history up every rivulet to their sources, copying and printing decaying documents and enlarging to an enormous extent fire-proof record offices for their safe-keeping. A like awakening has taken place in America. Historical Societies have sprung up in nearly every State, and some of the younger sisters and daughters of Old Virginia have made liberal legislative appropriations for gathering up the fragments of history which have survived the ravages of "Time, War, Fire and Flood." No State was more rich in original records than Virginia. Among the head-springs of our history, both civil and ecclesiastical, are the Acts of the General Assembly, the Records of the Quarter Courts and of the old General Court, and Vestry Books and Church Registers. Think for a moment of the risks which these records have run. The several fires at Jamestown, culminating in the great conflagration kindled by Bacon in 1676, which reduced the city to ashes. Then the removal of the archives to the new capital of Williamsburg, and the several fires there. Next the removal of the government and public papers to Richmond in 1780. Then the panic which drove the government to Charlottesville and Staunton, and the transportation of the archives to the mountains in wagons and the loss by the way going and returning. Then came the destruction and in the winter of 1781 in the Revolution, and, to cap the climax, the more destructive cultures which followed in the wake of the Federal army in the war of 1861-65: the industrious search of private houses for pillaging of private papers and in the State Library and other offices at Richmond, and finally the burning of the State Courthouse, containing the records of the General Court, so rich in civil and ecclesiastical history, and in which had been deposited, at the advent of the enemy, many of the records of the County Courts, and some Vestry Books and Church Registers.

Luckily, Hening had collated and embalmed in print the Acts of the General Assembly, and his "Statutes at Large" is to this day one of the best histories of Virginia in Church and State. A like good work was done by our far-seeing Bishop Meade for our Church Records. His antiquarian tastes, his intense Virginianism, and his love for the Church, made his Episcopal visitations of Parishes, like the herald's visitations of bounties in England, a search for the muniments of the history of old families and churches. With a rare instinct, he ferreted out old vestry books and registers from their hiding places, made large extracts from them, and preserved in print many things which otherwise would have been irreparably lost. His book, like an ark, has survived the deluge, and delivered to the new world many precious relics of the old. If he had done nothing else, he would have deserved well of the country and of the church. The State, too, has done a good thing in employing Dr. Palmer to brood over the chaos of archives in the attic of the capitol, and reduce them to order. The first fruits of his labors, "The Calendar of State Papers," is as full as an egg of meat, and his elegant "introduction" to it is an honor to the author and to Virginia Literature. The State did another good thing in sending commissioners to England to procure copies of the duplicates of some of our lost documents.

The Historical Society of Virginia, too, by its able secretary and executive committee, merits high commendation for much good work, and especially for snatching from "decay's effacing fingers" the Dinwiddie and Spotswood Papers, the Huguenot and other MSS., and preserving them in print. And it will not be deemed invidious if I add that there have been times when Mr. R. A. Brock, its self-sacrificing secretary, has had to bear the whole burden upon his "Atlantean shoulders." The point I wish to emphasize is, that it is now everywhere recognized that among the head-springs of our history, the Church Records are of exceeding value. Queries come to me from New England to New Orleans, and from Virginia to California, from the sons of sires born and baptized in Virginia. Many of them turn wistfully to the land of their fathers, inquiring as eagerly for certificates of birth, baptism and marriage as they would for titles to property. And, indeed, it often happens that titles to property depend upon these records. It is curious to trace the severe ordeal through which some of our Church Records have passed. Here is a Vestry Book of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover, which was found in the streets of Richmond after the fire, and placed in a drug-store. A young lady spied it there and gave me notice of it, and by the courtesy of Dr. George I got possession of it. Here is another, which was left by Federal soldiers in a tavern which they occupied at Sussex Courthouse. General Shands, finding it there, rescued it from ruin. Rev. F. Stringfellow gave me notice, and General Shands kindly sent it to me at my request. The register of the same Parish was carried to Pennsylvania, and falling into the hands of a gentleman, he sent it to Mr. Brock, in whose loving custody it now is. And here is a register in vellum, found amongst the lumber of the loft of the courthouse at Yorktown. That eminent jurist, Conway Robinson, was so impressed with its value that he asked me to allow him to have it copied. This he had done under his own eye, in his office, carefully collating it with the original. Here is the Vestry Book of St. Patrick's Parish which, after being lost to public view from time immemorial, was found in the library of Hampden-Sidney College, and turned over to me at my request by Prof. Holliday. Again, here is a register of St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper, which was taken from a private house and conveyed by soldiers to Philadelphia. My antiquarian friend, Dr. Peterkin, got wind of it and gave me notice, and by his kind aid it was sent to me. There is no covert insinuation in applying the word "antiquarian" to my excellent friend. It only means that he is a man of that true antique flavor that can extract its essence of humanity from an old book or an old date cut in stone.

Once more, here is the Vestry Book of Truro Parish, recording the church work of such men as George Washington and George Mason, a book which Bishop Meade longed to see and died without the sight. I received anonymous intelligence of it, and after a pleasant correspondence with unknown parties, I succeeded in buying it for twenty dollars on my own responsibility.

It is not surprising that these venerable vestrymen, married pairs and baptized infants, after such perilous passages, should have come down to us with broken backs, dislocated members, and vestments all tattered and torn. It almost broke the heart of the venerable clerk of Essex county, Mr. Micou, in whose office were deposited the records of old Rappahannock county, to lose his Register of Marriages because there was not room for them in the wagons in which he conveyed his other papers to a place of safety on the approach of an invading army.

Lawyers sometimes bring into court the woe-begone wives and children of their clients that their piteous aspect may plead more plaintively than words. So do I exhibit these old and battered books with the hope of moving that sympathy which I cannot command by arguments. With such clients at my back, I feel that I cannot altogether fail in moving the hearts of my hearers to have these old books clothed in decent vestments.

A Tentative List of Colonial Vestry Books and Registers.

Those who know of others will please send to me their names and dates.

Of those two head-springs of our history, Jamestown and Williamsburg, no record other than 1865 remains. The invaluable vestry book of Bruton Parish was carried off during the late war by Federal soldiers or camp followers.

 Report of Theological Seminary and High School.

Dr. Norton then read the annual report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School.

REPORT OF THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND HIGH SCHOOL.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School beg leave to report that during the present year there have been in the Seminary :

Senior Class.....	10 students.
Junior "	13 "
Preparatory Department.....	13 "
Total.....	40 "

There has been unusual interest among the students on the subject of Foreign Missions, and it is understood several have decided for that field of labor.

Rev Carl E. Grammer has been elected Assistant Professor of Hebrew and Greek Languages and Biblical Literature, and will enter on duty the beginning of next session.

The vested funds of the Seminary have been somewhat increased during the past year by the generous contributions of friends. It is hoped the example will be followed by others, so that the Institution may be enabled to meet the responsibilities of a Divinity School in our age and country.

The reports of the Seminary Professors, of the Principal of the High School, and of the Instructor of Theology in the Petersburg Branch School are annexed.

The High School pursues its unbroken career of prosperity, and fulfils the best wishes of its friends.

The work of training colored candidates for Holy Orders at Petersburg is doing a good, and, if properly sustained, promises a great work.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF BIBLICAL LEARNING.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

I would respectfully report to the Trustees that I have made a beginning this session in the department of the English Bible which has been committed to me. I am more and more convinced of the importance of the study of the English Bible by students.

My plan has been for the classes to prepare a written analysis of each book of the Bible to be corrected by me, and then in the class their attention has been called to any difficulties, and especially to any changes made in the revision, with which I am familiar.

Theological Seminary.

The Senior Class has read over with me the English Bible as far as the middle of Isaiah, and the Middle Class as far as the Psalms.

The Preparatory Department has been, in my judgment, well taught, and according to the monthly reports of its teachers the students in it have made unusual progress.

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submits the following report of the studies pursued under his direction during the current session.

The Senior Class, with three recitations a week, and the Wednesday evening exercise, has studied the 39 Articles with Boulton, and finished the review with written questions. They have also in Natural Theology studied Hopkins's Outline Man, and are now with lectures and written questions studying Liturgic's Specific Exercises in Homiletics, with Recitations on Broadus, have gone on for a large part of the session.

The Middle Class, reciting five times a week, has studied Butler's Analogy and Knapp's Theology. The former they have finished, and they are in review of the latter. They have also had introductory exercises in Homiletics.

To the Junior Class I have given three recitations a week on Apologetics and Natural Theology, using Fisher's "Grounds of Theistic and Christian Belief" for the former, and Chadbourne's work for the latter. They have finished Fisher, and are now reviewing Chadbourne.

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHURCH POLITY.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The undersigned respectfully reports that during the last eight months he has given instruction to the several classes in the Seminary as follows:

The Junior Class he has met for recitation in Hebrew, and the Greek of the Septuagint and the New Testament daily, or five days in the week.

The Middle Class have studied under his instruction select chapters of some of the prophetic books of the Old Testament in Hebrew, and the epistle to the Romans and the Galatians, the epistles to the Ephesians, Colossians and Thessalonians, of the New Testament, in Greek on three days in each week.

He has met the Senior Class on two days in the week (Monday and Friday) for recitation and lectures on the Hebrew text of the book of Job—the first fourteen chapters—and on the first six chapters of the prophecy of Theological Seminary.

Isaiàh; and on the Greek text of the New Testament, the first epistle to the Corinthians, and the epistles to the Ephesians, Colossians and Philipians.

During the month of October, in the absence of the Professor of Ecclesiastical Polity, and at his request, the undersigned gave a course of lectures on the Church and Ministry to the Senior Class as preparatory to the study of the text-book in this department.

J. J. McELHINNEY.

Theological Seminary, May 19, 1887.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary:*

The Professor of Church History, Canon Law and Pastoral Theology, respectfully submits the following annual report:

The Senior Class, with four weekly recitations, has studied Short's History of the Church of England, written lectures on English Church History, and on the History of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Green's History of the English People; Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, Book I; The Constitution and Canons of the Church; The Pastoral Epistles in Greek, and Meade on the Pastoral Office.

The Middle Class has read essays and studied, with three recitations a week, Kurtz's Church History, with constant parallel references to Robertson's Church History.

The Junior Class, with four weekly recitations, has written essays and studied Dr. Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, and read the Acts of the Apostles in Greek.

He has, in accordance with the written request of the Trustees, frequently attended the classes in the Preparatory Department, and gladly testifies to the faithful and efficient work done by this most indispensable adjunct of the Seminary.

He has also, at the request of the Trustees, taught the Senior Class Church Polity during the current session.

KINLOCH NELSON.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1887).

Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL.D..

President of the Board of Trustees:

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

The whole number of pupils entered the present session is eighty-eight. * * * The general condition of the School has been encouraging. Not a single case of serious sickness, and little of any kind has occurred, and good conduct has prevailed. The only change in my corps of assistants was that occasioned by the withdrawal, in July last, to accept the head mastership of Trinity Hall, Louisville, the new Diocesan School for boys in Kentucky, of Mr. E. L. McClelland. Mr. McClelland's connection here of twelve years was one to which not a little of the success the School has in that time enjoyed was due, and the recollection of his conscientious and valuable services will long be gratefully cherished. He has been succeeded by Mr. James W. Kern, late assistant instructor of Latin and Greek in the University of Virginia, a teacher of reputation as well as of skill and experience. * * *

I have little or nothing to report as to the religious exercises and privileges of the School additional to what was submitted last year. Prayers morning and evening every day, service and sermon at the Seminary Chapel on the morning of every Sunday and of the four chief holy days during the session, with Bible class Sunday afternoon, constitute as before, all on which attendance is required. The last service on Sunday consists of the regular order of evening prayer, with the addition of a special sermon once a month by the Rev. Dr. Nelson, and sometimes another from the Rev. Dr. Walker, of the Seminary. A devout improvement of the ecclesiastical year, including the minor festivals, continues to be attempted. During the season of Lent several extra week services in the School Chapel—one regularly conducted by the Rev. Dr. Nelson, our acting pastor—are accessible to the boys, and the Holy Week is emphasized besides by special daily devotions and instruction. As leaves of absence are never allowed at that time, the minds of all are more readily directed to its lessons.

The devotional meeting for the boys, which has so long been held at the School Friday night by a seminary student, and is a potent agency for good, has this year been in charge of Mr. Geo. Gordon Smeade, of the senior class, whose zeal and efficiency in the work have rivalled that of his most successful predecessors. To him, as well as to the reverend gentlemen mentioned above, the hearty thanks of myself and of all interested in the School are due. Including two, who received the rite at home, fourteen boys have been confirmed during the session; the number of communicants being in all now thirty-six.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

REPORT OF THE INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of the Diocese of Virginia:

During the past year I have had under my tuition in the Branch Divinity School in Petersburg nine students, to whom instruction has been given in the following studies:

 Report of Committees—Election, Contingent Fund.

Paley's Evidences, Butler's Analogy, Questions and Outlines on 39 Articles, Knapp's Theology, the Prayer Book, Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, Kurtz's Church History. Also instruction has been given in Latin, Book-keeping and Mental Science to the Divinity students, and also to some of the scholars of the Normal school. In Greek the Divinity students have gone through Romans, James, and a portion of Galatians, and in Hebrew, chapter of Deuteronomy, and a review of the Grammar.

The assistant teacher, the Rev. William P. Burke, has rendered efficient service in teaching other academic branches to students of both schools. For the most part our students have made fair progress in their studies, and in one or two cases show marked improvement in that respect.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

Rev. J. B. Newton presented the following report from the Committee on Elections, which was adopted :

Your Committee on Elections have had under consideration the question referred to them concerning the lay delegates from St. Bride's Parish.

We find that St. Bride's Parish, one of the old Parishes of the Diocese, embraces the growing town of Berkeley, in which both congregations are worshipping, containing about three thousand inhabitants. As an abandoned Parish, the field was occupied and worked by the congregation of St. Paul's, Elizabeth River Parish, and a chapel built, and the congregation there worshipping has been hitherto represented in Council.

We further find that St. Bride's has recently been revived, and another congregation has been formed, a rector called and in charge. Although the forms of law have not been strictly complied with, they have been substantially so, and we therefore recommend that the lay delegates of both congregations, Judge G. D. Parker and Jacob W. Dunstan, be admitted to their seats.

JOHN B. NEWTON,
SAMUEL J. C. MOORE,
R. TAYLOR SCOTT.

Rev. T. M. Carson presented the report of the Committee on Contingent Fund, appointed at the Council of 1886, which was made the special order of the day to-morrow, immediately after divine service.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONTINGENT FUND, ETC.

The committee appointed at the Council of 1886, to consider the general expenses of the Diocese, and especially the most effective method of collecting the Contingent Fund, beg leave to report that they have given the subject, in all its bearings, the careful consideration which its gravity demands.

Report of Committee on Parochial Reports.

In the judgment of the Committee no more perplexing problem, yet none of profounder interest, touching the practical life of the Church in the Diocese can come before this Council. With great diffidence we have sought a solution of difficulties which have been long recognized as serious hindrances to growth and progress, invoking such aid as was accessible in the discretion and experience of others.

It is manifestly both desirable and necessary to provide a fund which shall be at once both ample in itself and, as far as possible, stable and secure. In the absence of an endowment, such as would rid us of anxieties, the needed revenues must come in some form as stated voluntary contributions of the people. But these contributions, whilst free-will offerings, are none the less to be regarded as sacred obligations, to which we are bound by every sense of duty and affection. Earnestly desiring to realize this fact for ourselves and to impress it upon others, we recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That any material reduction of the expenses of the Diocese would be unwise, and is, as matter of fact, impracticable. Only at one point does any reduction seem to be either just or possible, viz.: in the form of the JOURNAL and in the number of copies to be printed.
2. That the existing mode of assessment should, for the present at least, be adhered to, viz.: that each Church or Parish be expected and required to pay a sum equal in dollars to the number of its communicants.
3. That this sum be collected from the congregation at large in quarterly instalments instead of annually, as at present.
4. That to facilitate this end, the Secretary shall notify the Rector and Treasurer of each Church or Parish as soon as may be after the adjournment of this Council, and regularly thereafter prior to the beginning of the quarter, that one-fourth of the entire annual assessment is due.
5. That this sum shall be due and payable on the 15th day of July, October, January, and April of each year.

Respectfully submitted.

The committee feel constrained to beg for Secretary of Council and for future committees who have to examine these reports, that clergymen will be more prompt in sending in their reports, more accurate in their calculations, and, above all, more careful in future to send in their reports not so much soiled, nor so dreadfully blotted and blurred.

(Signed)

J. K. MASON,
Chairman for Committee.

Rev. C. Walker, D. D., presented the following from the committee appointed last session on proposed amendment to section 1, canon X, which was adopted.

SECTION 1. "Whenever the members of the Church, residing in a particular portion of a Parish shall desire to separate from the Parish of which they form a part, it shall be lawful for them to assemble, after public notice given in the church or place of public worship, or posted upon the door of the same, and appoint a committee to take such measures as may be necessary.

C. WALKER.

 Report of Committee on Episcopal Fund.

Rev. E. W. Hubbard offered the following, which, on motion of Dr. Clarkson, was laid on the table :

Whereas, it is a matter of fact well known to all the members of this Council and of this Diocese, that the Constitution of the Church in this Diocese was adopted altogether by white congregations, and that the Church, from its reorganization in 1785 to the year 1865, was administered altogether upon the basis of a white membership and of a white constituency and a white Convention or Council ; and

Whereas, although no legislation to that end has ever been had, colored ministers have been allowed to sit in this Council ; and

Whereas, it is a matter of anxious concern with many, whether such a change in the membership of our Diocesan Council is in accordance with the fundamental law of this Diocese, as originally adopted,

Resolved, That the matters involved herein be referred to a committee to consider and report to this Council what action in the premises is expedient, and the form of the same.

Rev. Douglass Hooff presented the following report from the Committee on the Episcopal Fund :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPAL FUND.

To the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Virginia :

I herewith enclose the account of the Episcopal Fund, of which I am treasurer, showing balance due treasurer of $65.84, which is caused by my not being able to invest exact amount on hand and not being able to purchase less than a $500 bond.

The fund consists now of the following securities :

$2,100	bonds of the corporation of Alexandria at 65.....	$1,365
1,500	bonds of the Va. Midland R. R. Co. 5's at 105.....	1,575

Increase since last report of one $500 Charlottesville and Rapidan Railroad bond.

As the securities of this fund are in the First National Bank here, I would respectfully suggest that the committee appointed to examine this account be instructed to examine the securities and see that they are as stated above.

Respectfully,

A. HERBERT, Treasurer Episcopal Fund.

The undersigned Committee on the Accounts of the Episcopal Fund, beg leave to report that they have examined the statement of the Treasurer, Colonel Arthur Herbert, and find it correct.

Report of Committee of Diocesan Missionary Society.

The cash balance on hand May 12th, 1887, was $65.84. The addition to the principal since the last report amounts to $465.81. The market value May 12th of securities held by the Treasurer was $8,063.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

DOUGLASS HOOFF,
J. W. BEVERIDGE.

The Rev. P. M. Boyden offered the following, which was laid upon the table :

Resolved, (1.) That the salary of the Secretary of this Council be $250 per annum.

Resolved, (2.) That if an assistant Secretary be needed the Secretary provide one.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell, on behalf of Rev. H. M. Jackson, who was detained from the Council, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church :

Whereas, the order of the Diaconate, as instituted by the Apostolic Church, has fallen into practical disuse, and no longer meets the purposes for which it was originally created : therefore be it

Resolved, That the said order should be restored to the polity of the Church, according to its normal function.

2. That the congregations of the Church in this Diocese are counselled, wherever practicable, to elect each a pious and discreet man from the body of the congregation to exercise the office of perpetual Deacon, and to certify him to the Bishop for ordination.

3. That the general regulations governing the election of Vestrymen should govern the election of Deacon.

Rev. Pike Powers presented the annual report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report that they have aided, since the last Council, fifty-one missionaries and rectors of weak parishes—to-wit : Rev. Messrs. P. M. Boyden, Mecklenburg ; P. Brooke, West Point and King William county ; L. R. Combs, Gordonsville and Louisa ; T. W. Cain, Richmond ; R. A. Castleman, Westmoreland ; R. R. Claiborne, Madison ; J. J. Clopton, Manchester ; W. M. Clark, Amherst ; B. Dennis, Tazewell county ; H. L. Derby, Lancaster ; G. M. Funsten, Henry county ; J. B. Funsten, Richmond ; C. Grubb, Hanover ; R. A. Goodwin, Petersburg ; J. E. Hammond, Montgomery ; J. C. Hobson,

 Report of Committee of Diocesan Missionary Society.

Petersburg; J. H. Hundley, Essex; A. Jæger, Campbell; W. C. Latané, Westmoreland; J. P. Lawrence, Amherst; T. E. Locke, Albemarle; W. N. Meade, Hampton; A. A. McDonough, Fauquier; S. S. Moore, Fairfax; John McGill, Ashland; J. M. Meredith, Spotsylvania; G. M. Murray, Rockingham; Alexander Overby, Charlotte; C. Page, Loudoun; T. C. Page, Stafford; J. E. Poindexter, Caroline; G. W. Phelps, Greenville; T. J. Packard, Halifax; James S. Russell, Brunswick; W. R. Savage, Princess Anne; J. W. Shields, Shenandoah. F. Stringfellow, Mathews and Middlesex; J. W. Sykes, Bristol; H. T. Sharp, Alexandria; A. B. Tizzard, Chesterfield; Hale Townsend, Hampton; J. W. Ware, Prince Edward; S. S. Ware, Loudoun; and six colored deacons—viz: Rev. Messrs. G. E. Howell, W. E. Howell, W. L. Burwell, W. P. Brooke, J. W. Carroll, and J. T. Harrison. The amount appropriated to these fifty-one ministers was $8,970, but this amount was not all paid, because some resigned before their year was out, and some have but recently begun work. The number now on our list is forty, including the six colored deacons—to-wit: Rev. Messrs. Boyden, Brooke, Claiborne, Combs, Castleman, Derby, Dennis, J. B. Funsten, Hammond, Hobson, Hundley, Jæger, Latané, Lawrence, Locke, Meade, McDonough, McGill, Murray, Norwood, Overby, C. Page, T. C. Page, Poindexter, Phelps, Russell, Shields, Savage, Stringfellow, Sharp, Scott, Tizzard, Townsend, J. W. Ware, S. S. Ware, G. E. Howell, W. E. Howell, Burwell, Carroll and Harrison.

We are happy to say that Meade Memorial Church, Manchester, Rev. J. J. Clopton, has resigned its stipend and become self-supporting.

Besides the stipends of our missionaries, we have paid Rev. Job Turner, missionary to deaf mutes in the Southern States, at the rate of $100 a year; $522 for a new edition of the Mission Prayer Book (5,000 copies), and a special appropriation of $50 to a clergyman of the Diocese.

There are several Parishes now vacant, which we have heretofore helped, and which will doubtless expect help from us again as soon as they procure a minister. There are detached churches which cannot easily be connected with any Parish, and there are a number of mission points which ought to be worked. Several of our convocations are moving to do something for these places, and will probably look to us to aid them in their efforts. Our existing appropriations amount to $7,645. So that while our people have done wonderfully well this year, though the worst year, financially, we have had for a long time, raising over $9,000 for Diocesan missions; yet if we are to keep our work up on the present scale, or if we are to increase it at all, it will not do to relax our efforts, or to diminish our contributions. The outlook is encouraging. Reports from almost all quarters are favorable, and we have reason to thank God, and to congratulate the Council and the Church on the manner in which the people have rallied to our aid in this hard year; and we wish to make especial mention of the Sunday Schools and others who, through their mite boxes, have given us between four and five hundred dollars.

The contributions in the month of April, 1887, amounted to upwards of Next Meeting of Council.

$3,400, the largest amount, we believe, ever given in one month since the Society had an existence. But we suppose the people had no more money in April than in any one of the five or six preceding months, and it would be not only a great convenience but a great help to the committee if the churches would distribute their contributions more equally. In the latter part of the fall and in the winter months we were greatly straitened, and were compelled to borrow money to meet our engagements; but if we had received in November half of what we received in April there would have been no difficulty. Of course, April is generally the Easter season, and whilst it is well to honor our risen Lord by greater gifts at this season, yet the Scripture rule is the rule of systematic giving, and the best way to honor and to please the Lord is to do for Him and His cause at all times when we can.

We would state, in closing this report, that the Executive Committee at their last meeting passed a resolution requesting the Bishop to appoint an Evangelist for the Diocese at a salary not exceeding $1,000, as soon as he can procure a suitable man.

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary Diocesan Missionary Society.

The following resolution, adopted at the meeting of the Diocesan Missionary Society, held Wednesday night, May 18th, was offered in the Council by Rev. Pike Powers, and unanimously approved:

Resolved, That as the sense of this meeting of the Diocesan Missionary Society, the Executive Committee be requested to confer with all the Sunday schools in the Diocese and to ask that they receive mite-boxes, and appropriate their Lenten offerings to the treasury of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

On motion of Judge Sheffey, it was resolved that the next meeting of the Council be held in Trinity Church, Staunton.

Mr. E. S. Duffey offered the following, which was referred to the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society:

Resolved, That the Rector of each Parish in this Diocese appoint one of the wardens, or some suitable person, to collect the two (2) cents per week or more, from each communicant, promised by this Council, the same to be paid quarterly to the treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

Resolved, That a circular letter be furnished the Rector of each Parish for distribution, stating the wants of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

Third Day's Minutes.

FRIDAY, May 20th, 1887.

The Council met at 10 A. M. Service was read by Rev. R. R. Claiborne ; after which Bishop Randolph, according to request of the Council, read his address upon the effort to change the name of our Church.

The Council then assembled for business, and was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

The following clergy, absent yesterday, appeared and took their seats :

Rev. W. Q. Hullihen,

" P. P. Phillips,

" C. B. Bryan,

Rev. J. J. Gravatt,

" J. H. Hundley.

" G. S. Somerville.

The Committee on New Parishes asked and obtained leave to retire to consider important business.

The special order of the day—the report of the Committee on Diocesan Expenses and the Contingent Fund—was taken up.

The resolutions were taken up seriatim.

The first resolution was adopted.

The second resolution was adopted.

Judge Sheffey offered the following amendment to the third resolution :

"But in case it shall be found impracticable or inexpedient in any Parish or church to make such quarterly collections in full at the end of each quarter, then as to any balance which may remain due on the 15th day of April in any year, it shall be the duty of such Parish or Church to cause such balance to be paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese on or before the first day of the next Council."

Rev. Dr. Hanckel moved to strike out the words "in full."

Resolutions on Proposed Change of Name.

Pending the consideration of which, on motion of Rev Frank Page, the third resolution and amendments, together with the remainder of the report after resolution third, were laid upon the table.

Petitions were presented from Greenwood Parish, Albemarle county, and from St. James'-Northam Parish, Goochland county, asking the Council to fix the boundary lines for said Parishes, and were referred to the Committee on New Parishes.

Rev. R. T. Davis, D. D., offered the following :

RESOLUTIONS ON THE PROPOSED CHANGE OF NAME OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH,

adopted by the Piedmont Convocation for presentation at the Diocesan Council of Virginia, to be holden in the city of Alexandria on the 18th day of May, 1887.

Whereas, a proposition to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church was made in the last General Convention, and received much favor, gaining a large affirmative vote; and

Whereas, this movement to change the name of our Church was initiated and primarily urged by men who disparage the Reformation, and have no sympathy with Protestantism, and who, in consistency, must advocate further changes in the Book of Common Prayer, with which, as it now stands, they do not hesitate to express dissatisfaction; therefore,

Resolved, That we are determined not to abandon those Protestant principles which are embodied in our Prayer Book, and which are, as we believe, taught in the Holy Scriptures; and that we cling to the name by which those principles are distinctively declared.

That, as it is a change in the Prayer Book itself, we regard the alteration proposed as outside the legitimate powers of the General Convention, and we consider it as little, if at all, short of revolutionary, tending to involve the Church in discord and strife, and to unsettle the titles to much of our Church property.

Resolved, finally, That we hereby declare our unalterable and unyielding opposition to the change thus proposed, and we affirm that we will not, as a Diocese, give our assent to the omission of the word "Protestant" any more than of the word "Episcopal," from the name of our Church in the title of our Prayer Book.

 Resolutions in Regard to Change of Name.

Protestant Episcopal we are, and Protestant Episcopal we intend to remain.

On motion of Rev. T. G. Dashiell, the resolutions offered by Rev. Dr. Davis, together with the remarks of Bishop Whittle in his annual address upon the same subject, and the address of Bishop Randolph, delivered in the church this morning, were referred to the following committee for report at the next Council, with the request that their report be published in the Southern Churchman thirty days before the meeting of the Council:

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle,
 Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph,
 Rev. R. T. Davis, D. D.,
 " J. Peterkin, D. D.,
 " J. McGill,
 " C. R. Hains, D. D.,

Rev. B. D. Tucker,
 Judge W. S. Barton,
 John L. Williams,
 R. C. Selden,
 Dr. Jas. W. Claiborne,
 Bickerton L. Winston,

Rev. J. B. Newton offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to have published, with their permission, as many copies as may be deemed best of the address delivered by Bishop Randolph this morning; also, the remarks of Bishop Whittle in his annual address upon the same subject, and to raise the funds necessary for said publication.

The resolution was carried, and Rev. J. B. Newton, Mr. Thos. Potts and Mr. Joseph Bryan appointed as said committee.

On motion, it was resolved that when the Council adjourn, it adjourn to meet at 4 o'clock P. M.

Rev. T. M. Carson presented the report from the Committee to examine accounts of Diocesan Missionary Society, that same was correct and supported by proper vouchers.

Rev. Robb White presented the following report:

Report for Relief of Disabled Clergy.

REPORT FOR RELIEF OF DISABLED CLERGY.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the report from the Society for the Relief of Disabled Clergy, beg leave to make the following report :

They have examined the papers and find them correct and supported by proper vouchers, and the Society in a very flourishing condition.

The Society has received contributions from about 120 Parishes and churches, amounting during the year to.....	$2,126 83
Beginning the year with cash balance of.....	818 73
With the interest from investments, amounting to.....	966 86

They have had available for distribution.....	$3,912 42

Of this amount $2,000 was distributed to the beneficiaries, leaving a cash balance of $1,912.42.

Of this amount $1,060 was invested in Petersburg Railway bonds, increasing their invested fund to $17,000.

Respectfully submitted.

ROBB WHITE, Chairman.

Rev. J. S. Hanckel, chairman, offered a partial report from the Committee on the State of the Church, which was approved by the Council :

The Committee on the State of the Church, to whom was referred a resolution, offered by Rev. Mr. Jackson, proposing to provide for an Order of Deacons, for purposes indicated, and eligible by their respective congregations, having duly considered the same, respectfully report that, in their unanimous opinion, the proposal is inexpedient.

Rev. F. Stringfellow, from Committee on Widows' and Orphans' accounts, reported same correct and supported by proper vouchers.

Mr. W. N. Nelson, from the Committee on the Brotherhood, offered the following :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE BROTHERHOOD.

The Committee on the Brotherhood respectfully report that they have examined the reports of the President and Treasurer of the Brotherhood, and ascertain that there are now about seven hundred ordinary contributing members who, pay one dollar each upon the death of a clerical member, and eleven life members who contribute two dollars each; that within the seventeen years of the existence of the Brotherhood $32,123.09 have been distributed among the families of twenty-nine deceased clergymen, in sums varying from $1,500 down to $637.34.

 Report of Committee on Amendment to Canon XIII.

The amount recently collected upon the death of the Rev. E. C. Murdaugh, and included in the above, is $745. No collection has yet been made on account of the Rev. D. M. Wharton's death. The permanent fund now in the hands of the Treasurer amounts to $2,009.91.

The committee, observing the great irregularity in contributing, and the striking disparity in the amounts given, where all under the present scheme are entitled to receive the same amounts, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, which they hope will give greater stability to the Brotherhood in its resources, and give greater satisfaction to the contributors that the funds are appropriated with some regard to the necessities and natural equities of each case.

Resolved, 1. That it is the sense of this Council that the Constitution of the Brotherhood be so changed that the payment by members shall be for a fixed sum annually.

Resolved, 2. That the amount to be appropriated to the family of any deceased clergyman shall be determined upon after a full consideration of all the facts in the case by a standing committee to be appointed by the Council annually.

Resolved, 3. That this Council request each minister of this Diocese to call the attention of his congregation to the objects of the Brotherhood, and to appoint an agent of the Brotherhood for such congregation, whose duty it shall be to solicit memberships and collect and remit dues.

JOS. BRYAN,
WM. N. NELSON,
Committee.

The first and second resolutions were lost, the third resolution was adopted.

The committee appointed on the amendment to Canon XIII offered the following, which was approved by the Council :

The committee to whom has been referred the amendment proposed to Canon XIII respectfully report that they have considered the subject, and recommend that the third rule of order be stricken out, and that Canon XIII be amended so as to read as follows :

CANON XIII.

OF THE EVIDENCE OF THE APPOINTMENT OF LAY DELEGATES TO THE COUNCIL.

The appointment of lay delegates to the Council of this Diocese shall be certified by the rector, register, or warden of the proper parish or church, in duplicate, and said certificate shall be in form as follows :

 Report of Committee on Amendment to Canon VIII.

"This is to certify that at a meeting of the Vestry (or Trustees, as the case may be) of — Parish (or Church), in — county, held on the — day of —, A. B., who is a communicant in said parish, or church, was appointed a lay delegate to represent the same in the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, to be holden on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —.

"A. B., Rector,

"C. D., Register, or Church Warden."

The original credential of lay delegate shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Council, and the duplicate delivered to the delegate-elect. The Secretary shall make out a roll and call the names of all certified to him as duly and canonically elected. The President of the Council shall then appoint a committee, to be composed of four clerical and three lay delegates, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the lay delegates, and who shall report the names of those entitled to seats; but until said report shall be received and adopted, no business shall be considered by the Council.

Should doubt arise as to the right of any lay delegate to his seat, the matter shall be referred to the Committee on Elections for examination and report.

Respectfully submitted,

H. T. SHARP,
T. G. DASHIELL,
SAMUEL J. C. MOORE,
R. TAYLOR SCOTT.

The same committee offered the following report (proposed amendment to Canon VIII), which was also approved:

CANON VIII.

The committee to whom has been referred the amendment proposed to Section 2 of Canon VIII, concerning the qualifications of vestrymen, and which said amendment adds to such qualifications that no one shall be elected a vestryman who is not a communicant of the Church in good standing, unanimously report that they have considered the subject, and deem it inexpedient to amend said Canon so as to add the proposed qualification.

On motion of Mr. Rosewell Page the report of Committee on Clerical Support was made the special order for 4 P. M.

The Council then adjourned until 4 o'clock P. M.

 Report of Committee on Clerical Support.

4 P. M.

Council reassembled and was called to order by Bishop Randolph.

The special order, the report of Committee on Clerical Support, was taken up. The report was received.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

Your committee beg leave respectfully to report :

There have been laid before us one hundred and thirty-five reports of treasurers, representing the charges of one hundred and seven ministers and assistant ministers.

Ninety-nine churches have paid in full their obligations in money to their ministers, no account being taken of supplies furnished.

Eight churches have paid more than they promised.

Twenty-eight churches appear to be sadly in arrears to their ministers.

Ninety parishes have rectories.

The whole amount promised during the past year to 107 ministers and assistants..... $76,455 33

Whole amount paid in, including overpayments..... 74,703 65

Net deficit..... $ 1,751 68

The deficit appears to have been about 2.30 per cent. of the whole amount promised, which, in a year of exceptional embarrassment and pecuniary trouble throughout the State, seems to your committee encouraging.

The whole amount paid to the ministers heard from..... $74,703 65

Estimated amount paid by Diocesan Missionary Society to ministers heard from..... 8,000 00

Total amount paid 107 ministers..... $82,703 65

—being an average of about $770 to the minister, besides, in most cases, a rectory.

It is due to the churches reported deficient, that we should say that we have reason to believe that, in many cases, the deficits reported result from inaccuracy in accounts and misunderstandings on the part of the treasurers. The committee are loth to believe that the parishes could, under any circumstances, fail of their obligations to the Church and to the men of God laboring among them, to the extent indicated by some of the reports.

Your committee therefore most earnestly recommend that the fiscal year of the churches be made to conform to the Council year—from April 30th to April 30th—and that the blanks furnished by the Secretary be made to correspond to this suggestion. Further, that the treasurers, for the sake of appearance as well as duty, that their good may not be evil spoken of, be careful and accurate, and confine their reports to the current fiscal year.

Report of Committee on Journal.

The Committee appointed to consider the cost, &c., of printing the JOURNAL, presented the following :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JOURNAL.

The Committee appointed to examine the JOURNAL and report by what method, or methods, its cost can be reduced, have given the subject their careful attention, and present the following report :

The attachment of your Committee to the JOURNAL in the present well-known form is exceeded by that of no one present, but they all believe that the JOURNAL can be greatly improved and its cost materially reduced. They, therefore, unanimously offer the following recommendations :

1. That the Parochial Reports, now occupying ninety-four pages of the JOURNAL, be tabulated. Your committee believe that in this way they can, without detriment, be made to occupy about ten pages.
2. That the various Treasurers' Reports give only the receipts and disbursements in the aggregate, the items given in them all properly occurring once in the Parochial Reports.
3. That the printing of the JOURNAL be made more compact. There is too much spacing.
4. That after the Bishops' reports and those of the Standing Committees of the Diocese and of the Council, no others be inserted in the JOURNAL except by special order of the Council. Your committee are of the opinion that much material, in the form of reports and other papers, might be left out of the JOURNAL without injury to that publication.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. F. SPRIGG, Chairman.

W. T. ROBERTS,

T. G. DASHIELL,

THOMAS POTTS.

Dr. Kinloch Nelson offered the following substitute, which was adopted :

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Council that the JOURNAL should be printed in the same style and distributed freely to the Diocese as heretofore ; and that they express full confidence in the Secretary to reduce the expenses thereof as much as possible.

Rev. G. W. Nelson presented the report from the Committee on the Bruce Fund, showing the accounts to be correct and payments sustained by proper vouchers.

Rev. W. T. Roberts offered the following resolution :

Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

Whereas, unsound and mischievous Sunday-school instruction books are constantly being issued; and,

Whereas, their suppression has been found necessary for the security, in one of our Dioceses, of its Sunday-school children against false teaching; and,

Whereas, improper Sunday-school books are already in use in this Diocese, and the only way to prevent their further introduction and to suppress mischievous books is to concentrate on good ones; therefore, be it,

Resolved, That this Council appoint a committee of three to report at the next Council the best books for instructing our Sunday-schools in the Holy Bible and Church Catechism.

Carried, and the following committee appointed: Rev. Messrs. Roberts, G. W. Nelson and H. B. Lee.

Rev. James Grammer presented the report from the Committee on the State of the Church. The report was received and resolution adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The committee, in reviewing the reports that have come up from the Parishes of the Diocese, finds but little that calls for any special remark.

The Parochial Reports show the Church to be, outwardly at least, in healthy working condition. While there has been no considerable advance on the exhibits of past years, there is enough done to be thankful for, and to encourage us in our work. Thirteen hundred and fifty confirmed; a total of 15,299 communicants from 181 parishes; 14,000 children in our Sunday-schools, and a total of contributions of $218,437, show the blessing of God to be resting upon our labors in His cause.

Yet, out of these 15,000 communicants, surely there ought to be more than seven young men offering themselves for the work of the Ministry; and surely there ought to be more than seven hundred members of the Brotherhood. If these seven candidates for Orders indicate the spiritual vigor of our Church—and it is only those who are unusually vigorous in their spiritual life who offer themselves for the Ministry—for the reason that it offers so little inducement of a worldly kind—then there seems to be in this fact a ground of humiliation before God that there is so little of the spirit of self-denial and self-consecration in the religion of to-day.

The outlook, however, is brighter, when we look at our Sunday-schools, and reflect upon the opportunities and possibilities in these 14,000 children under instruction in our Sunday-schools. In ten years these will all have passed out of the Sunday-school. How many of their names will be on the communion roll? How many of them will be in the Ministry? The questions will at least suggest to us the solemn responsibility resting upon us, who have the training of them for these ten years.

Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

Mission work among the colored people in this Diocese is very bright with hope. Nearly 300 of them confirmed within the year, and nearly 1,000 communicants in the Diocese, and 10 ministers at work, and 9 postulants and candidates for Orders. And all this in so short a time and under such difficulties! There seems clearly to be a great trust committed to this Diocese—a great and effectual door opened, and, God help us to realize it, a great responsibility laid upon us. May it not be that God is going to honor this Diocese of ours to be the leader in this work, and to blaze a way for the Church through the intricacies of its untrodden darkness? And should not we go forward, in a simple faith, one step at a time, as God shows us where to tread, in the confidence that He is going before us, and will not lead us astray?

We are thankful to say that the entire exhibit of the Parochial Reports is encouraging as indicating our Diocese to be, not only a live Diocese, but, in the main, in a healthy condition, and full of energy and zeal. At the same time it is well to bear in mind that all such indications are but partially safe and reliable, for the reason that the Church is not simply an organism that can be defined by laws and measured by statistics. It is the living people of God; and hence any inquiry as to the state of the Church should embrace, besides the information contained in Parochial Reports, such questions as these: What is the habit of the people in attending public worship? the practice of heads of families in regard to family prayer? in regard to observance of the Lord's day? what is the state of separation from the world, as well from its pomps and vanities as from the covetous desires of the same? is there a readiness or a backwardness to all good works? what about liberality in giving? unity, peace and concord in the congregation? and in general, are the fruits of the spirit abounding in the private life and character of the members? For the real health of the Church is ascertained more by the personal gifts and graces of the Spirit than by any organic symptoms. As the Church is a spiritual as well as an organic body, there may be growth and thrift outwardly, while its spiritual health is feeble.

While the reports, therefore, are encouraging and afford cause of thanksgiving to God, there still remains to be sought those other evidences of the spiritual health of the Church which such reports can give but very partially, but which can only be given by the pastors themselves. And the committee recommend to our ministers to make a fuller use of the margin for remarks in our printed forms of Parochial Reports to indicate what, in their view, statistics alone cannot give—the spiritual state of the flock of God under their care.

The true state of the Church is to be sought in the personal piety and religious activity of the individual members of the Church. It is as true of the entire body as it is of the single member. "To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." How are our ministers and members living? What is the character of the religious teaching in our Diocese?

 Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

The multitude of persons publicly consecrating themselves and their lives to Christ in the rite of confirmation and in the rite of ordination, may indicate either a vigorous and growing life in our Church, or, alas, it may indicate a lowering of the standard of Christian living and ministerial consecration and pastoral faithfulness. An abundance in supply may indicate a depreciation in value; as cheapening the cost of the religious profession and privileges may multiply the number of those seeking them.

But should any one take a discouraging view of the present state and outlook of our Church in Virginia, let him reflect that we, through the good hand of our God upon us, have been preserved from many of the evils that are afflicting the Church elsewhere.

As to the great issues that have been disturbing our peace, defiling our purity and thus tending to destroy our integrity, we in this Diocese have been preserved in a substantial unity and unanimity which call upon our souls and all that is within us to bless His holy name. "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

We recognize in this the grace of our Lord bestowed upon the faithful services of the past and present generation of gospel-preaching Bishops, ministers and members, ever more concerned for the spiritual than for the mere ecclesiastical interests of the Diocese, more concerned to follow Christ closely, and make Him great and glorious, than to magnify the Episcopal Church, dear as that Church was to them; and we of to-day will do well to keep in mind that a continuance of this distinguishing favor of God towards this, our Diocese, depends upon our continuance in setting forth Jesus Christ and Him crucified as the power of God and the wisdom of God. Any substitution for this must prove to be but the wisdom of men, which is foolishness with God. We have no other business or care than to "show forth the honor of His name and to make His praise glorious." While we with single eye are seeking above all His honor, the welfare and honor of our dear Church will be His peculiar care: "Them that honor me I will honor."

If it will not be deemed officious, the committee will recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That it be submitted to the judgment of the Bishop to appoint the Committee on the State of the Church a year in advance.

Respectfully,

THE COMMITTEE.

Rev. C. J. Gibson moved that the form of Parochial Report be so altered as to show how many catechisings during the year, and also number of children confirmed from members of Sunday Schools. Pending consideration of this—

Rev. Mr. Marshall moved to adjourn. Lost.

The resolution of Dr. Gibson was then adopted.

The Council then adjourned.

Report of Committee on New Parishes.

SATURDAY, May 21, 1887.

Council met at 10 A. M. Service was read by the Rev. Dr. Hains. The sermon was by the Rev. W. T. Roberts.

The Council then assembled for business. Minutes of preceding day read and adopted.

The following report, presented by the Rev. O. A. Kinsolving, from the Committee on New Parishes, was adopted by the Council :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NEW PARISHES.

The Committee on New Parishes would respectfully report, that they have considered the petition from a number of "residents of the southeastern portion of Whittle Parish, Fauquier county, requesting the Council to allow them to form a separate congregation in said parish, with an independent minister, stating that they have erected a handsome and commodious house of worship at Little Georgetown—a convenient point for the purpose—and that they are prepared to support a minister, and that they have given to the Bishop and to the vestry of said parish the notices required in Canon XI," and recommend that the petition be granted.

The committee have also had before them a petition from St. Peter's Church, Elizabeth River Parish, Norfolk county, organized in November, 1886, under Canon XII. Now, finding that the church is self-supporting, and having obtained consent of the vestries of said parish and given the required notice to the Bishop of the Diocese, ask to be received as an independent church. The petition being in due form, in compliance with the Canon, and no objection being made, the committee recommend that the prayer of the petitioners be granted.

A petition from Greenwood Parish, Albemarle county, has also been laid before the committee, asking that the metes and bounds of said parish be established as follows: By the Mountain Plain road from Jarmon's gap, beginning at Jarmon's gap; thence to Mechum's river; thence up the river to Chilton's or Shelton's mill; thence due south to the top of Little or Ragged Mountains; thence, with the top of said mountains, to the county line of Nelson county; thence, with the said line to the top of the Blue Ridge, and thence, with the Augusta county line, to the beginning. The committee recommend that this petition be granted.

A petition from St. Mary's congregation. St. James'-Northam Parish, Goochland county, has been withdrawn.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

O. A. KINSOLVING, Chairman.

Report from the Committee on Sunday-Schools.

Rev. Dr. Barten offered the report from the Committee on Sunday-schools :

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The Committee on Sunday-schools beg leave to report that there have been reported in the Parochial Reports received 13,111 Sunday-school scholars, of which 10,827 are white, 2,149 colored, and 135 Indian. These are taught by 1,643 teachers. The offerings aggregate $4,919.87. Compared with the report of last year there is an increase of about three hundred children, with twenty-six teachers.

The Sunday-school must always claim our attention, our earnest efforts and our prayers. The problem of a healthy religious education is rapidly becoming the leading question before the church. Such an education, though, to be done chiefly by the influence and teaching of the father and mother in the home, is to be supplemented, not to be superseded, by the special body of the church in the way of Sunday-school effort. We recognize the fact, that at the root of all religious education is, and must ever be the home. No Church, no Sunday-school can ever quite supply the place of those first loving thoughts of the Heavenly Father, and of the heavenly home and of the great merciful Christ, who went about doing good, and took the little children in his arms—thoughts which a child should learn among the earliest lessons of the home. But the fathers and mothers home part in the religious training of the child, may be neglected, or may be but poorly attended to—many causes operate to make such a training in many families exceedingly precarious, nay, often wanting altogether.

Hence the solemn duty of the church to provide for all deficiencies by a judicious course of Sunday-school instruction to strengthen the good work begun at home, or undertake it altogether, where it is deficient or neglected. The children of the church need special training, discipline and instruction they also need worship, and for all these they are to be brought into the Sunday-school; and the minister of the Parish should put himself at the head of it, and ever look upon the superintendent, the teachers and officers as his helpers in this the most important department of his parochial work.

Perhaps it is well to direct attention to that portion of Sunday-school effort which is often very much neglected—the element of worship! The proper function of the church is worship, intelligent worship it is true, but yet worship! It is true, a certain space is allotted to a sermon in which the minister is expected to do some teaching, but in the main it is for worship that our people come to church. If the Sunday-school is an integral part of the church, then should not this be borne in mind? Should not more time be given to worship than is often done now? Is there not danger of often reducing the worship of the children to the minimum, forgetting that the singing of bright hymns or penitential psalms as the lesson may dictate the occasional use of portions of the service and other acts of worship, may educate the heart and mind as well as mere formal and dogmatic teaching?

 Resolutions of Thanks.

Sunday-schools have improved, and will continue to improve, as to their hymns, their books of instruction, and their opening and closing services. In several of these respects the church owes a debt, which ought to be recognized, to many successful leaders who have been doing good and thorough work. But much remains yet to be done. It is not easy to apply what has been done to general use. A wide field here opens into which your committee cannot now enter. But often the wish is expressed, more particularly by our rural Parishes, for more carefully selected lists of question books, library books, and also Sunday-school hymnals, from which to choose, books perfectly safe, free from objections on the score of extreme church teaching, and in keeping with the plain practical, protestant tone of thought and feeling familiar to our people.

A committee, appointed for such a purpose, might undertake this work at their leisure, and bring forward at some future Council the result of their investigation, and by doing so would greatly aid the Parish minister, who has not always the time nor the opportunity of making as careful a selection as he might desire.

We need an ever-growing realization of the importance of Sunday-school work. The religious education of our children becomes more and more the question of the day. Moral training, such as is given by our public school system, and even in some of our private schools, must be supplemented by religious training in the home and by the church. Let the church be faithful in this matter, and liberally offer for this good cause her means, her best men and women to do the work of teaching, her earnest, faithful prayers, and the blessing of God will rest upon her.

On motion of Mr. Frank Nelson, it was resolved that the Secretary be directed to distribute the copies of last year's JOURNAL among the Parishes.

Rev. A. S. Johns offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the cordial thanks of this Council be given to the citizens of Alexandria and vicinity for their great kindness and abounding hospitality to the members of this body.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council be also given to the Rector of St. Paul's Church, to the vestry, Committee of Arrangements, and the pages for their constant attentions to our comfort.

Resolved, That $15 be paid by the Treasurer to the sexton of St. Paul's Church.

Resolved, That the usual number of Journals be printed for distribution.

Mr. Rosewell Page offered the following for Rev. Dr. Dame, which was referred to the committee appointed yesterday to consider the resolution of Rev. T. G. Dashiell, concerning the change of the name of the Church.

Report of Committee on Finance.

Whereas, since the adoption of the Constitution of the Church in the United States the number of Dioceses has so greatly increased as to make the membership of the House of Clerical and Lay Delegates too large for the proper consideration of the matters coming before them in the time usually occupied for the meeting of the General Convention; and,

Whereas, the representation therein—of an equal number from each Diocese—is not, in our judgment, just and equitable, being the same for a Diocese of 500 as for 50,000 communicants.

Resolved, That our delegates to the next General Convention be, and they hereby are, requested and instructed to bring this matter to the notice of that body and ask that the organization of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies may be so far constitutionally changed as to make representation therein be dependent on the number of communicants in the Diocese, allowing for each organized Diocese one clerical and one lay deputy, and one additional clerical and one additional lay deputy for each succeeding 10,000 communicants.

Resolved, further, That our delegates be, and are hereby, requested and instructed to present before that body the earnest appeal of this Diocese not to legislate any further on the name of our Church; that while we might not have chosen the name in the beginning, we now hold it and expect ever to remain connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, and earnestly urge the members not to be guilty of the schism, of which we think they would be guilty, by going out from us and our known principles as the great power protesting against an error, whether coming from Roman or other schismatic parties or churches.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell offered the following, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Council takes occasion to express its great pleasure in having at its session our venerated brother, Rev. George A. Smith, the senior Presbyter of the Diocese, and the first alumnus of our Theological Seminary.

Judge Sheffey offered the following report from the Committee on Finance, which was adopted :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance respectfully report to the Council that, at the request of the committee, James T. Gray, Esq., Treasurer of the Diocese, submitted to them the statement of his accounts, which, upon careful examination, were found to be correct and sustained by proper vouchers. The committee renew, with sincere pleasure, the expression of their grateful appreciation of Mr. Gray's gratuitous services to the Diocese, not only in the admirable manner in which the accounts are kept, but in promptly giving to the committee valuable information as to the financial condition of the Diocese. The statement of the Treasurer's accounts, herewith returned, and other means of information, enable the committee to submit to the Council the following statement:

At the commencement of the fiscal year (1886-'7) the sum due the State Bank was $1,575. The receipts on account of dues to the Contingent Fund last year were $10,773.32, which, compared with those of the preceding year, amounting to $10,529.82, show an increase of only $243.50. For the current year (1887-'8) we learn from our Treasurer that the aggregate amount of moneys actually secured and of checks tendered and presently available is $10,044.43, and that additional dues, the payment of which before the publication of the JOURNAL may reasonably be relied on, will amount to $845, making altogether $10,889.43 for the current year, showing an increase of only $116.11 over the receipts of last year.

The Treasurer's statement shows a balance to his credit in the State Bank of Virginia of $153.51; but it also shows that in order to supply the wants of the Diocese, the Treasurer was called upon to borrow, and did kindly borrow, two sums of $700 and $875, in March and May, respectively, which call loans must be paid out of the present receipts. The result, therefore, is that the Diocese begins the current fiscal year with a debt-charge upon its income of $1,421.49, showing a decrease of indebtedness, as compared with that of May, 1886, of $153.43. This is somewhat encouraging, in view of the fact that the sum of $1,040.92 was disbursed by the Treasurer in paying charges connected with the General Convention held in Chicago in October last.

From our last year's report it will appear that provision was made, by resolution of the Council, for "paying the cost of such repairs of the Episcopal residence as may be needed."

Your committee regret exceedingly to learn, through Major D. N. Walker, one of the trustees of the property, that, doubtless for want of funds, this was not done; and that the residence is sadly in need of repairs, which will cost from $450 to $500. Whatever the cost may be, the work should be done, and done at once; and your committee will report to the Council a resolution to accomplish that object.

The Treasurer's report of 1886 shows that the printing and distribution of 1,500 copies of the JOURNAL cost $492 and $70, $562.

It appears from the report now under consideration that the same number of JOURNALS cost $391 and $30, $421—a reduction in cost of $141.

Your committee are of opinion that the work is now done at reasonable rates, in a manner acceptable to the Diocese, and they are assured that the Secretary will continue his efforts to have the work well and economically done. We, therefore, advise that no change be made in this department of the Diocesan service.

 Report of Committee on Finance.

From the Treasurer's report it will appear that the ordinary expenses of the Diocese will amount to, say, $10,183.84. This sum should be provided for. In addition, the Diocese owes the State Bank of Virginia the sum of $1,575 with interest, making, say, $1,590. And in addition to this we must reckon and estimate $500 for the repairs of the Episcopal residence, making altogether $12,273.84.

Our income will be, say:

From contingent fund, dues.....	$10,889 43
Interest on government bonds.....	104 00
Interest on deposits, say.....	149 29

Total income..... $11,042 72

So that $12,273.84, less $11,042.72, leaves $1,231.14, which will be the debt of the Diocese at the next annual session in May, 1888. So that if all our expectations be realized and the sums expected fall into the treasury we will begin the next year with a debt of $1,231.14.

This ought not to be. On the contrary, means should be in hand to lay the foundation of sure and independent support for the Episcopate in this Diocese.

The reports to the Council show that there are 15,381 communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, and upon the basis of assessments made for Diocesan support upon the Parishes and congregations, the income to the contingent or Bishop's fund, as it is called, should be $15,381. In fact, the amount received is only $10,889, showing a discrepancy of $4,492 between the amount assessed and the amount realized or received. This is about thirty per cent. of the amount which ought to be paid. It does seem to your committee that if due effort were made to stir up the minds of the laity of the Diocese to a sense of the responsibilities resting upon them, there would be no difficulty in securing all the money needed for the purposes of the Diocese.

At the present session of the Council it has been determined that the Parishes and congregations be charged with the duty of providing the means for the common objects and charges of the Diocese, upon the basis of one dollar for each communicant in the respective Parishes and congregations, each Parish and congregation being charged with the payment of the amount necessary to meet the assessment made upon it. It is now hoped that the mischiefs of former derelictions in duty will cease.

Heretofore it has been true, and the reports to this Council show that it is still true, that from many Parishes and churches no reports are made at all, and from many no reports of communicants are made; and the amounts silently paid in are sadly disproportioned to those which should be paid. In this way delinquent Parishes and churches escape the discredit of their failure to do their duty to the Church in the Diocese. As your committee has often shown, there would be no difficulty in meeting all the expenses of the Diocese, without the discredit of indebtedness, if the Parishes and churches paid in their quotas at the rate of one dollar for each communicant.

Report of Trustees of Virginia Female Institute.

The charges upon the Diocese and its expenses have been much reduced of late ; and your committee are of opinion that no further reductions can, with justice to the general interests of the Diocese, be made at this time. And, in view of the encouraging expectation, that with due efforts on the part of the Parishes and churches to do their duty, the income of the Diocese will be sufficient to enable the Council to continue to make provision for paying examining chaplains for their services, and to continue the compensation now allowed to our faithful and laborious Secretary, it is not deemed necessary to recommend any changes in these matters.

In conclusion, your committee tender their exhortation to the Clergy and Laity to consider and deal with the subject of Diocesan Support as a matter of honest business. It is not charity, but the sacred obligation of duty, which is involved in making ample provision for defraying all Diocesan expenses, and Clergy and Laymen should realize that the support of our Bishops and Diocesan officers is not only a duty of the highest obligation, but one which should be gladly and promptly discharged.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

1. That the trustees of the Episcopal residence be authorized to have the same duly and promptly repaired, in order that it may be a comfortable abode for the Bishop of the Diocese, and that the Treasurer pay for such repairs upon the certificates of one or more of such trustees.
2. That the Treasurer pay the customary charges for the salaries of the Bishop, Assistant Bishop, Secretary, Chaplains, Historiographer, and other customary expenses, including the rent of the residence of the Assistant Bishop and the sum of fifteen dollars to the sexton of St. Paul's Church, Alexandria.

H. W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

Judge Sheffey presented the report of the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute. Resolutions adopted.

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute submit to the Council their annual report :

The interest on the debt of the Institute is paid by Mrs. Stuart regularly every six months. The insurance on the property is kept up, and the grounds and buildings are kept in good condition and repair. Indeed, a more beautiful site for a girls' school can hardly be found anywhere, and in no establishment are there better arrangements for the health and comfort of the pupils. As the report of Mrs. Stuart shows, there has been almost an entire exemption from sickness. Mrs. Stuart states that the present session has, in most particulars, been a very satisfactory one ; that whilst the present number of boarding pupils—sixty-three—is slightly smaller than it was last year, the day school is larger. In the boarding department there are pupils from sixteen States. The number from Virginia is twenty—an increase in the patronage of the Diocese gratifying to the Trustees, and which they trust will continue. The spirit which pervades the household is pure, refined, and marked by strong religious influence. Four of the pupils were baptized by the Rector of Trinity Church, Staunton; twelve were confirmed by the Bishop in April. One was confirmed in Charlottesville; and three, one a Presbyterian, one a Baptist, and one a Methodist, are prepared for church-membership when they return to them respectively. Thus it appears that during the session sixteen of the pupils have confessed Christ before the world, and it is believed that they will adorn the profession of their faith by lives of fidelity and zeal in their Saviour's service.

One member of the corps of teachers, the instructress in French, will withdraw from her position at the close of the session. Her place will be filled by the appointment of a thoroughly competent and skilled instructor. The commencement exercises will be held on the 7th and 8th of June next. The friends and patrons of the Institute are cordially invited to attend these interesting exercises.

Mrs. Stuart closes her very satisfactory report, "asking for the prayers and good wishes of all who are interested in the true education of our girls."

The Trustees heard, with much gratification and pleasure, that part of the addresses of the Assistant Bishop, in which he spoke of his visit to the Institute. His opinion as to its management, its influence for good, and its prospects for continued usefulness, the Trustees think is just and well founded, and they sincerely trust that in the near future the income of the Institute may become the means of increasing the number of scholarships and adding largely to the facilities for educating the daughters of clergymen and other members of the church who need assistance in securing "the true education of our girls," of which Mrs. Stuart speaks. If the aim of the Principal and Faculty of the Institute continues to be thorough instruction in every branch of knowledge taught in it, and to inspire each pupil with an elevated sense of right and an earnest desire to attain all that is noble and true in woman, as Mrs. Stuart has heretofore declared to be her object, and as the Trustees believe is her purpose, then will the beneficial influence of the Institute pervade more and more the households of the church throughout our land, and promote its prosperity and spiritual welfare.

The trustees renew their expressions of commendation of the Institute as one of the most important of our Diocesan institutions, and respectfully ask the Council to adopt the following resolutions:

That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia has heard, with gratification the report of the trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, this day made which, taken in connection with the words of the Assistant Bishop, in his address on the same subject, give strength to the opinion that this Diocesan training school for girls is growing more and more in the confidence of the Church, and, as a nursery of refined and Christian culture, deserves continued and increased confidence and support. The Council therefore again

 Adjournment.

most cordially commends the Institute to the continued patronage of the Diocese, and earnestly unites with the principal in asking for it "the prayers and good wishes of all who are interested in the true education of our girls."

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

Rev. David Barr offered the following, which was adopted :

Resolved, That so much of Bishop Randolph's address as relates to the convocational work of the Diocese be referred to a committee of nine, composed of the following presidents of the convocation, with request to report at the next Council :

Rev. Dr. Hanckel,	Rev. Dr. Davis,
" Dr. Gibson,	" B. D. Tucker,
" Everard Meade,	" Dr. Dame,
" T. M. Carson,	" Pike Powers,
Rev. C. B. Bryan.

Rev. W. T. Roberts offered the following resolution, which was lost :

Resolved, That with a view of improving our Sunday-schools, a committee of three be appointed to report upon the practicability of establishing a Sunday-school Teachers' Institute.

Mr. Philip H. Powers offered the following, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Secretary and Treasurer be directed to revise and correct the blank forms for "Receipts of the Treasurer of the Contingent Fund."

Rev. George A. Smith was here introduced and made a brief address to the Council in acknowledgment of its resolution respecting himself.

The minutes of the day were then read, and after singing the 315th hymn by the members, prayer was offered by the Bishop, and the Council adjourned sine die.

T. G. DASHIELL, Secretary.

JOHN J. LLOYD, Assistant Secretary.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WINCHESTER, May 14th, 1887.

To the Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., B. P. E. C. of Va.

REV. AND DEAR SIR.—I hereby report for the year 1887. I have been detained at home with sickness in person and family, my wife being very ill at this time. I have, therefore, done very little work. Baptisms only two, marriages three, funerals two.

JOHN B. T. REED.

Post-office, Winchester, Va.

GENEVA, May 13th, 1887.

To the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Virginia:

MY DEAR SIR,—I hereby submit my record of official acts for the period assigned. My state of health at times has prevented me from reporting a larger number.

Held divine service seven times, assisted three, preached six times, administered Holy Communion seven times, assisted at a burial once. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Deprived, as I shall be, of the pleasure of meeting you and my brethren of the clergy and laity in Council at Alexandria, I must be content with invoking the blessing of God upon its deliberations.

Sincerely yours,

PEYTON GALLAGHER.

RULES OF ORDER.

ORGANIZATION.

- 1st. The Council shall be opened each day with prayer.
- 2d. After the call to order, no member shall remain standing, nor afterward stand except to address the chair.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

- 1st. After the organization of the Council, the following order of business shall be observed :

The appointment of a Treasurer pro tempore, when the Treasurer is absent.

The adoption of rules of order.

The reading of the journal of the preceding day.

The reading of pastoral addresses.

The appointment of committees.

Report of standing committees.

Report of special committees.

Unfinished business.

- 2d. There shall be appointed by the President, not later than the second day of the Council, unless otherwise directed, the following standing committees, to consist of an equal number of each order:

A Committee on the State of the Church, to whom shall be referred the address of the Bishop on the opening of the Council.

A Committee on the Fund for the Support of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen.

A Committee on the Episcopal Fund.

A Committee on the Brotherhood.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Disabled Clergy Fund.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Bruce Fund.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Missionary Society.

A Committee on Parochial Reports.

A Committee on the Admission of New Parishes.

A Committee on Elections.

Rules of Order.

A Committee on Finance, consisting of laymen.

A Committee on Clerical Support, consisting of ten laymen.

A Committee on Sunday Schools.

3d. Immediately after the reading of the Bishops' Addresses, the Council shall proceed to elect the Standing Committee of the Diocese, the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society, and such other Committees as are necessary for the transaction of the business of the Diocese until the next annual meeting of the Council.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

1st. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President, and if in writing, be read by the Secretary, before debate.

2d. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in possession of the Council, but may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision, with the consent of the second.

3d. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the President or any member require it.

4th. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under color of amendment as a substitute for the motion or proposition under debate.

5th. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, to commit or to amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order enumerated.

6th. The previous question shall be admitted only when demanded by a majority of the members present—it shall be in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" and until decided, all debate and amendment are precluded.

7th. A motion to adjourn, or to lay on the table, shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

8th. When a member desires to speak in debate, or present any matter to the Council, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personality.

9th. If any member transgress the rules of the Council, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case, the member so called to order shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. If the ruling of the President be appealed from, the Council shall decide the appeal without debate.

Rules of Order.

10th. When two or more members rise at once, the President shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

11th. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, without leave of the Council.

12th. The vote on all questions shall be taken by ayes and noes, whenever seven members require it.

13th. Any member may call for the division of the question where the sense will admit of it, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

14th. Every member who may be in the house when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Council, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

15th. No member shall vote upon a question in the decision of which he is immediately and personally interested.

16th. Upon a division and count of the Council on any question, no member shall be counted who is not within the limits assigned as seats to the members.

17th. When a question has been decided by the Council or postponed indefinitely, it may be reconsidered upon motion made by a member voting in the majority; provided, such motion be made on the same or next succeeding day of the session.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1st. No member shall absent himself from the meetings of the Council without leave unless he be sick or unable to attend.

2d. The President shall, at his discretion, select suitable seats without the limits of those allotted to the use of the members, which shall be appropriated to the accommodation of visiting clergymen and candidates for orders who may be invited by the Rector or wardens of the church in which the meetings of the Council are held under the direction of the President and Council.

3d. No spectators shall, during the daily sessions of the Council, be admitted above or within the pews allotted to the members, and the Rector and wardens of the church in which the sessions of the Council are held are directed to see that this rule is enforced.

4th. No rule of order shall be suspended except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Rev. Dr. Hains offered the following motion to amend Article I of the Constitution, which was laid on the table :

Standing Committees.

Resolved, That in Article I of the Constitution, the words, "Third Wednesday in May," be stricken out and the following words inserted in lieu thereof: "Wednesday after Trinity Sunday in," so that the Article shall read:

"There shall be a Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia on the Wednesday after Trinity Sunday in every year."

Rev. Dr. Nelson offered the following, which was carried :

Whereas, it is of supreme importance to maintain the spiritual features which have hitherto characterized our Councils;

Resolved, That the members of this Council be urged to attend the religious services, to unite in praise to Almighty God for His blessings in the past, and in prayers that He will vouchsafe to continue these blessings to our Church and Diocese in the future.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin offered the following :

Whereas, in the providence of God our faithful and beloved Bishop is unable to be with us in our Annual Council, on account of painful sickness; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Council of the Diocese of Virginia, assure the Bishop of our affectionate sympathy and constant prayers for his speedy recovery.

Resolved further, That the Council urgently entreat the Bishop not to resume his episcopal visitations until his health is fully restored.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote, and Bishop Randolph was requested to telegraph the same to the Bishop.

The Bishop then announced the following standing committees :

" C. J. S. Mayo,	" A. Overby,
" S. S. Ware,	" J. H. Williams,
Rev. J. C. Wheat, D. D.

The Bishop's Annual Address was then read by the Assistant Bishop :

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN:

Being providentially deprived of the great privilege and pleasure of meeting you in our Ninety-third Annual Council, I send you my most loving and affectionate greeting, with the prayer that the Holy Spirit may be present to guide, direct and bless you in all your proceedings.

I was taken sick the middle of February, and have been ever since almost entirely unable to attend to any duty, and now, although much better, and I trust slowly on the way to recovery, am still not in a condition to undergo the fatigue and excitement of the Council. Having been obliged to recall all my spring appointments, I have but a poor report to make of work done during the past year. The visitations and confirmations have been as follows :

- 1887, June 1.—Trinity, Rockbridge county, confirmed eleven.

MINISTERS DECEASED.

Three of our brethren of the Clergy have been taken from us by death during the past year. On 29th July, 1887, Rev. Wm. Norwood D. D., departed this life in the eighty-first year of his age, and was followed, 27th March, 1888, by Rev. Parke Farley Berkeley, who had survived to within one week of four-score years. Eulogies these honored and beloved brethren have been written by abler pens than mine, and I simply bear my testimony to their high Christian characters as men, and their long and most faithful service as ministers of Christ. Rev. B. M. Jefferson, a colored Deacon, ordained from the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School in June preceding, died at his home in Mecklenburg county, 27th December, 1887. He was a good man and gave promise of great usefulness in the ministry, but the Master who knows best called him to Himself before his work was begun.

Bishop's Report.

The Executive Committee of the Missionary Society having made provision for the support of an evangelist or general missionary, Rev. Everard Meade has been appointed to that important office, and commenced his work the first of January last.

The most faithful and efficient treasurer of the Bruce Fund since its beginning, John L. Bacon, Esq., departed this life in July of last year, and the office is now kindly filled by William M. Hill, Esq., cashier of the State Bank of Virginia.

As chairman of the committee, to whom were referred the proposal to change the name of the church and the subject of equal representation in the General Convention, I would say that in consequence of my indisposition and of the engagements of Bishop Randolph, chairman of a sub-committee, no report has been prepared, and it is for the Council to continue or discharge the committee. But the question of changing the name of the church is one which—I am sure we are all agreed—needs no investigation or discussion. I trust, therefore, that without waiting for a report from any committee, you will not allow this opportunity to pass without solemnly proclaiming to the church and the world that the Diocese of Virginia is unalterably resolved, by God's help, ever to retain her Protestant name as well as her Protestant character and principles.

There are several important matters to which I would like to direct your attention, but am unable to make any mental effort. In conclusion, I take this occasion to say a few words to my beloved brethren of the clergy who were pleased to mark the thirtieth day of April, the twentieth anniversary of my consecration to the Episcopate, by presenting me with an elegant set of official robes and an address. I needed no token, my dear brethren, to assure me of your "esteem and appreciation." Some of you for twenty years, and all of you for such time as you have had opportunity, have uniformly manifested by word and deed your forbearance and sympathy and confidence. I gladly and gratefully testify that no man in my place ever had a more loving and lovable band of clergy to cheer and sustain and help him. Your gift, and the words which accompanied it, are most gratefully appreciated, while I am deeply humiliated by the consciousness of how little they are deserved. May God abundantly bless each one of you.

Again invoking the presence and guidance of the Holy Ghost for all my dear brethren of the Council,

I remain, faithfully and affectionately,

FRANCIS M. WHITTLE.

The Assistant Bishop then read his Annual Address:

ADDRESS OF BISHOP RANDOLPH.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

I am thankful to be able to report another year of happy work in the Diocese. During the summer months I was prevented by slight indisposition from doing full duty. I have tried to make up for this loss of time in the work of the rest of the year. The confirmations and the services in the churches have been full of encouragement.

The following is the record of my official acts during the year :

CHURCHES CONSECRATED.

September 17th, 1887.—Consecrated Chapel of the Good Shepherd, two-and-a-half miles south of Abingdon, in the mountains, and confirmed the first class. This work was begun in the woods May, 1885, for the benefit of a very ignorant and neglected population. The chapel cost six hundred dollars, and accommodates about one hundred and fifty persons. The Rev. John Lloyd, in addition to his labors in Abingdon, ministers to these poor people. The work has been greatly blessed.

September 25th, 1887.—Consecrated Christ's Church, Blacksburg. Present and assisting in the consecration, Rev. J. E. Hammond, Rector, and the Rev. G. G. Smeade, of Pulaski city. This, and the church at Central, have been vacant for some months. The field is one of the most promising in Southwest Virginia. The town of Central is rapidly developing into a large railroad and mining centre. The College at Blacksburg is in a more prosperous condition, with a larger number of students than ever before in its history. These two churches, ten miles apart, would grow strong under a manly and earnest ministry.

September 27th, 1887.—Consecrated Christ Church, Pocahontas. Baptized two infants and one adult. The church building was begun September 5th, 1886. The cost of the building was about $3,300, contributed by the people themselves, by friends in Virginia, and mainly by members of the Southwest Virginia Improvement Company. The building is handsome and commodious; there is a neat parish school building in the lot with the church, built at a cost of $2,600 by Mr. C. Clarke, of Philadelphia, and presented to the Episcopal Church. A parish school of thirty children is in successful operation.

November 12th, 1887.—Consecrated Cople Chapel at the Hague, Westmoreland county. Assisting in the service, the Rector, Rev. R. A. Castleman, and the Rev. A. B. Kinsolving. The church was erected, at a cost of about $900, midway between Nomoni and Yeocomico churches, and is used for the working societies and for the week and occasional services of the Parish. The earnest rector finds it most valuable for these purposes.

April 7th, 1888.—Consecrated St. John's Church, Chase City, Mecklenburg. This church was erected during the last year, partly from the material of the old church, which was located about a mile in the country from Chase City. Its position, on a commanding lot in the midst of a growing town, has greatly improved its congregation and its working strength.

June 9th, 1887.—I attended the meeting of the Trustees of the Colored Theological Seminary in Petersburg.

On October 23d, I conducted the service at St. Philip's Church (colored), Richmond.

On October the 27th and 28th, I attended a meeting of the House of Bishops, held in Philadelphia.

On January the 12th, I attended a meeting of the Commission of the General Convention upon colored work in the city of Washington.

On January the 23d, I attended a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Board of Missions in Norfolk, Virginia.

On Friday night, February the 10th, I delivered the address before the Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association in Petersburg, Virginia.

The growing strength and vitality of this association for Christian work among the young men of all the Protestant churches is a subject of earnest congratulation for all intelligent and liberal-minded Christians. The organic expression of Christian unity which it furnishes to the world is of untold value in the education of the people into a practical recognition of that great principle. Its direct agency in the religious training of an exceptionally restless class of pupils is felt and acknowledged with few exceptions by all the Protestant churches.

February the 14th.—I attended a meeting of the ~~committee~~ 23-pointed by the last Council to consider the proposition brought before the last General Convention to expunge the name Protestant from the title of the church.

On February the 15th, I held services at St. Philip's Colored Church, Richmond.

On February the 16th, I attended a meeting of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute in Staunton.

On April the 5th, I attended a meeting of the Commission for colored work in the city of Washington. As far as I am able to judge, this Commission is working with intelligent earnestness within the limits of the powers conferred upon it by the General Convention to discharge the duty of our church to this great field of Christian work.

It will be seen from the report of the confirmations that I confirmed one hundred and seventy-seven colored persons in nineteen churches and chapels. Of these, fifty two were confirmed in seven churches of white congregations, one hundred and twenty-five in twelve churches of colored congregations.

I observe signs of progress in these colored churches in an increase of attendance, of a more intelligent and devout interest in the services, and a gradual development of higher standards of moral and religious life among the people. I consider it of the utmost importance to their healthy growth that the congregations should be systematically trained from the beginning to contribute—as they are able—to the support of their clergy and the institutions of their church. The colored people are very poor, but there are none of them too poor to give something to the support of those who minister to them in the Gospel. Beside the Gospel ministry, there are other agencies of the Christian Church for the care of bodies and souls, which are needed anywhere—by any class or any race—are needed by the negro population in the Southern, and for aught I know in the Northern States—such as hospitals for the sick, orphan asylums, homes for old and young, who have been deserted by their natural protectors, and industrial and parish schools. The negroes are powerless to provide such institutions for themselves. For these great educational and charitable agencies they are—and will be perhaps for years to come—dependent upon the white race. But for bearing some part in the support of their clergy and the care of their church buildings they are already prepared, as the experience of the work of the

Assistant Bishop's Address.

Methodist Church among them abundantly illustrates. For their own welfare, and for the growth of true religion among them, their teachers should direct their efforts to the development of this feeling and this principle.

The work of our Church in this Diocese for this race has been marked by steady growth, while the legislation upon the subject has made no perceptible progress. It is fortunate that Diocesan Councils do not constitute the Christian Church. The rights and the privileges of membership and ministry in Diocesan Councils are infinitely inferior to the rights and the privileges of membership and ministry in the Christian Church.

I said that legislation had made no perceptible progress. To those who fail to appreciate the embarrassments that surround it, it would appear to be feeble and tentative, and to all it may appear unsatisfactory.

Bishop Johns, in his address to the first Council in Alexandria after the civil war, urges the Diocese to address itself in earnest to the practical work, and to appeal to the people to co-operate. He says: "The interest for the religious welfare of the colored people, which has almost been hereditary among Christians at the South, will allow no decline under the altered relations which have occurred, but will rise with the occasion and prove itself intellectually and piously adequate to the emergency." In response to this message of the Bishop the Council appointed, and elected from its body, a standing committee on colored congregations and passed this resolution: "Resolved, that whenever the colored members of the Church in any Parish desire to form a new and separate congregation, such action shall have the sanction of this Diocese; they may elect their own vestry and ministers; they shall be considered as under the care of this Council, and their interests as represented in or by the standing committee on colored congregations." The committee was elected at this and at other Diocesan Councils, but finally disappears from the Journals, leaving no record of its action behind. It perhaps conceived of its duties under the resolution as passive and receptive, and not active and creative, and hence its disappearance as a part of the Diocesan machinery. At any rate, it does not seem to have perished with exhaustion by reason of its labors.

In the Council of 1869, held in Fredericksburg, the question of organization for the colored work again arose, upon the application of St. Stephen's Church, Petersburg, for admission into union with the Diocese, with the rights and privileges of an independent Parish. This application was referred to a special committee, composed of some of the ablest of the clerical and lay members of the Council. They reported this resolution :

"That the congregation of St. Stephen's Church, Petersburg, be admitted into union with the Diocese of Virginia, and be represented in Council and their interests cared for by the Standing Committee on Colored Congregations, as heretofore provided."

A substitute for this report was adopted by the Council. The substitute expunges the phrase "admitted into union with the Diocese," and in its place resolves that the "St. Stephen's Church is hereby taken under the care of this Council and its interests with this body are hereby entrusted to the Standing Committee on Colored Congregations." By this resolution, the question was disposed of in accordance with and under the action of the Council of 1866.

The question, so far as legislative action is concerned, seems to have slumbered until the Council held in St. James' Church, Richmond, 1883. The Bishop's address before that Council referred to the conference to be held in the following July at Sewanee concerning the relations of the church to the colored people. A committee was appointed upon that portion of the address. Upon that committee, consisting of five clergy and four of the laity, were the three colored clergy of the Diocese—the Rev. Mr. Cain, the Rev. Mr. Pollard, and the Rev. Mr. Russell. They made a report which was signed by all the members of the committee and unanimously approved by the Council. The gist of that report is centred in this passage : "We believe that the true, the only solution of our church relation to the colored race will be found in giving them the right, and encouraging them in the exercise of the right, to a separate organization."

"They have asked, as we know, and it is natural that they should request, separate congregational organizations."

"What is true of congregations is, in its principle, true of the larger organizations—that is, Councils and Conventions."

At the next Council, in 1884, in accordance with the will of the church, both white and colored, as expressed in the Council of 1883, a resolution was adopted appointing a committee to organize a plan for a separate organization for the colored churches. That committee made its able report at the Council held in Charlottesville in 1886. It proposed a Canon, which after important amendments was adopted by the Council, with the title Canon XIII—of colored mission churches. As far as I am informed, the only provision of this Canon which has been carried out and practically applied, is that which is contained in the fifth section. In accordance with that provision, the Bishop has recently appointed a well-known and honored presbyter, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jones, to have the supervision of the colored churches in the district comprised in the counties of Mecklenburg, Brunswick, Lunenburg and Nottoway. Apart from this, the Canon has effected nothing, changed nothing. No attempt has been made towards an organization under its provisions.

The reason seems to be this: Under section third of the Canon, the ecclesiastical authority is charged with the duty of organizing the convocational system, local and general, which constitutes the representative governmental agency provided by the Canon, on the assumption that the Canon itself was designed to create a separate organization. That assumption was based on the object for which the committee framing the Canon was appointed, and on the first section of the Canon itself. That section reads: "The colored people of Virginia, who are, or may hereafter be, connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, shall constitute a missionary jurisdiction of the Diocese. The phrase, "colored people," as used by the framers of the Canon in its original form, was evidently designed to mean clergy and laity; and the phrase, "Shall constitute a missionary jurisdiction," could only mean separate organization. But in the progress of the Canon through the body, it was stated authoritatively that the first section was not to be interpreted as a severance of the relation between the colored clergy and the Council—that relation, as was supposed, being defined and established by the second article of the Constitution. Accordingly, the colored congregations would be represented on the floor of the Council by the colored clergy as they had always been.

With this interpretation in mind, the Council passed a motion to strike out the whole of the fourth section of the Canon as it came from the hands of the committee. That section reads, "At each general convocation there may be elected four clerical delegates to represent the entire colored missionary jurisdiction in the annual Council of the Diocese, to vote only in matters affecting the interests of said jurisdiction."

Assistant Bishop's Address.

It is clear this section was framed on the assumption that the Canon was designed to create a separate organization, and these representatives from the general convocation of the colored clergy and laity, formed the connecting link between the separate organization and the Diocesan Council. But if the colored clergy, under the interpretation of the second article of the Constitution, continued to be members of the Council with all the functions of membership, the provisions of the fourth section was nugatory and contradictory, therefore the fourth section was expunged, and with it the organic life of the Canon.

The permissive provisions in the other sections for convocations and associations of colored clergy and laity, to be presided over by the Bishop or Assistant Bishop, will thus be relegated to the region of voluntary meetings for devotional purposes and local business, having no legislative functions, and similar to the convocational system among the white churches. Thus, the life principle of the Canon having expired, the only remaining provision which had the appearance of vitality was the section permitting the Bishop to appoint a Presbyter with supervisory powers and functions in the colored churches. This provision has been carried out in the appointment, as stated before, of the Rev. Dr. Jones to that duty.

I have detained you with this discussion only for the purpose of explaining the reasons for the seeming failure on the part of the ecclesiastical authority to execute the provisions of the Canon. Upon the interpretation of the Canon at the time of the Council which passed it, it appears that there was nothing in the law to execute.

It is clear from this review of the proceedings of the Councils of the Diocese from 1866 to the present time, that the voice of the people who compose the Episcopal Church, both white and colored, as expressed through their representatives, desires a separate organization for the colored churches.

This desire is based upon a conviction, which is strengthened by experience, that such organization, properly regulated in its relations to the Diocesan government, is a necessity to the successful prosecution of the work of evangelizing and educating the colored people in the system of our Church. For the removal of causes of animosity and suspicion which would inevitably arise, and for the enlargement of the sympathy and support of the white race upon which the work depends.

 Assistant Bishop's Address.

So far as the social aspect and the right to choose one's associates in the personal and social and assortive relations of church life are concerned, the colored churches have expressed themselves in the request to be set apart as colored congregations. As stated in the able preamble to the report at Charlottesville, they have decided that question for themselves. Upon questions that involve agitation and responsibility in coming to definite conclusions, a large class of minds are prone to relegate decisions to the future, with a vague hope that time will bring the changes that are needed. The only change that time makes in the status of political and ecclesiastical errors, when let alone after they are recognized, is to strengthen their roots and increase the evil that must attend their ultimate removal. I trust that the present Council may find it their duty to take some step towards a definite and working plan of organization for the colored churches, which may pass into Constitutional and Canon law through the next Diocesan Council.

Another subject demanding your earnest consideration, is the question of the supply of ministration for the vacant Parishes of the Diocese. The supply of ministers is inadequate to the demand. In many cases, through no fault of their own, the people of our churches in many of the Parishes have been without the privileges of worship and pastoral care for months and for years. The natural tendency from such privation is towards extinction of the church. In my journeys over the State, I have never found a Methodist church without some pastoral care and some stated service, enough to keep their congregations alive and coherent.

In some instances, the self-denying clergy will minister to seven congregations, in others to twice that number. Our vestries must realize that one service in their churches in the month is better than no service for a year, or a permanent vacancy of the Parish. I would earnestly advise the vestries of the vacant Parishes to act under the resolution passed by the Council of 1886, and place themselves under the care of the Diocesan Missionary Committee, with a pledge to that committee for the amount they can give for such ministerial services as the committee may be able to secure. I would urge upon the Council to clothe the committee with the responsibility and the power to act upon such applications from vacant Parishes, and to prescribe this as one of its duties. I am thankful to be able to report that we have the prospect, I may say the certainty, of a larger Junior Class at our Seminary than ever before in its history, and we may look to a few years when the deacons ordained will supply the demands of our vacant fields. Until that time, it is a duty and a necessity laid upon us to keep these vacant churches open and alive by a system of missionary services and pastoral ministrations under the charge of the Diocesan Committee and of your Bishops. The Bishop of the Diocese has expressed in his address his views of our duty at the present Council upon the question of the proposal to change the name of the church ; but for his indisposition a report would have been laid before this Council. His suggestion—when he found it impossible to meet the committee—that a full expression from the Diocese might be deferred until the next Council, met with my concurrence, and was approved by other members of the committee.

It was also a suggestion of the Bishop that the committee should ask to be continued for that purpose. If it is the will of the present Council to express itself upon this subject, I am sure we will remember that we are bound in the relation of sisterhood to the great body of Dioceses which compose this church in America, and that duty and intelligent policy demand that we should unite our strength and influence with those who feel and believe with us in a hopeful and determined effort to defeat the measure which is proposed. It seems to me that it would be enough for us to say that Virginia holds the positive principles of Protestantism to be identical with the faith of the Gospel, and she lovingly appeals to her sister Dioceses to oppose the effort to expunge the name Protestant from the title of the church, as revolutionary in its tendencies, and fraught with the gravest dangers to its unity.

Upon the question of the proportional representation in the House of Deputies of the General Convention, I am persuaded that the time is coming when such a change will be agitated, and I believe consummated, because I believe that proportional representation is the expression of the principle of the right and the power of the will of the people to govern in this church. And, moreover, it is in accordance with the fundamental conditions of the original compact of the Dioceses.

I am equally clear in my own conviction that the present is of all others an unfavorable time to agitate this question.

It requires only a moderate degree of ecclesiastical statesmanship to see that the agitation of the question at present would only strengthen the hands of the party who are seeking to repudiate the name and the principles of Protestantism from this church.

Assistant Bishop's Address.

I may mention that I received some months ago, with the other Bishops of the church, a printed letter from the Archbishop of Canterbury, requesting in most courteous and brotherly terms an expression of opinion as to the desirability and the need of another Lambeth Conference, to be held during the summer of 1888. Some months afterwards I received a cordial invitation to attend the Conference which had been determined upon. I saw no intelligent reasons for the Conference, and thought that I saw some reasons against it, at least so far as concerned the Episcopal body in America, and therefore the invitation was not accepted.

I am sure that every heart in this Council unites with me in the prayer for the speedy restoration of the Bishop to health. I unite with him in asking for the guidance and the presence of God's spirit in the deliberations of this Council.

After the reading of the Assistant Bishop's address, leave was granted to the special Committee on the Proposed Change of Name in the Church, and the Standing Committees on New Parish and on the Diocesan Missionary Society to withdraw for a little while for conference.

The Council then proceeded to the election of the standing committee. The Rev. Dr. Hains and Mr. Thomas Johnson were appointed tellers.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson moved that the roll be called and the members vote as their names are called. The motion was carried.

Pending the balloting for standing committee the Rev. H. B. Lee offered the following, which were adopted :

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Council it is ~~of great~~ ^{of great} importance that the Sunday night services should be ~~maintained~~ ^{maintained} as in the past.

Resolved, That the Assistant Bishop be requested to deliver an address to the Council on next Sunday night.

Resolved, That all the members who can possibly do so be present on Sunday.

The Rev. H. Suter presented the reports of the Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF THE ENGLISH BIBLE, &c.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

I would respectfully report to the Trustees that in the study of the English Bible, I have done what I could in the insufficient time allowed me.

The Middle Class, to which I give the most attention, has read with great care the Psalms in the Authorized Version, comparing it with the Psalter and with the revision, and also thirty-five chapters in Isaiah.

The Senior Class has also read the Psalms in the same way. I thought it best to devote especial attention to the Psalter, as it is used so much in our service.

I am thankful that I have been able to officiate regularly in my turn in the chapel and in the Faculty meeting on Thursday night.

I would add that the religious spirit of the Seminary has been unusually good. I have never known so much interest in missions and in every good work.

The Preparatory Department has, in my judgment, been well taught, and its members have made good progress in their studies.

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

I would respectfully report that the classes during the session have pursued the usual course of study.

The Senior Class, reciting twice a week, have studied the Articles, Homiletics and Liturgics. With the Articles they have used Boulton as text-book, with references to other sources of information. In Homiletics they have studied Broadus, with plans, and analysis of sermons and the usual Wednesday evening exercise. In Liturgics they have studied the Prayer Book, with Dr. Butler's history of its formation and changes. Besides these studies, they have gone over Hopkins's Outline Man, in Natural Theology.

The Middle Class, reciting daily, have studied Butler's Analogy and Knapp's Theology, with written essays on subjects studied. They have also studied, and are studying, analytical arrangement and Theology of New Testament Epistles.

The Junior Class have studied, and are now studying, Chadbourne's Lectures on Natural Theology.

Theological Seminary.

I am glad to report commendable diligence and regularity in my classes. Absences, when taken place, have been from sickness or excusable causes.

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF THE GREEK LANGUAGE, &C., &C.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Greek Language, New Testament Literature, Church Polity and Pastoral Theology, respectfully submits the following annual report :

The Senior Class have read in Greek, II Corinthians, Hebrews, The Catholic Epistles, the Apocalypse, about half of St. Matthew's Gospel, and are now reading St. Luke's Gospel and the Epistle to the Romans.

In Polity they have studied the Third, Seventh, and part of the Fifth books of Hooker, with lectures in class. In Pastoral Theology they have studied Meade in the Pastoral Office, with references to other books and lectures in class, and the Pastoral Epistles in Greek.

The Middle Class have read in the Greek, I and II Corinthians, Romans, Galatians, I and II Thessalonians and Hebrews.

The Junior Class have read in the Greek, St. John's Gospel, St. Matthew's Gospel, with parallel references to the other two synoptic Gospels, I and nearly all of II Thessalonians.

The Preparatory Department, so far as he has been able to attend its recitations, is most faithfully and effectively taught by the present instructors.

KINLOCH NELSON.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Church History and Canon Law respectfully submits the following report :

The Senior Class, with three recitations a week, has studied Short's History of the Church of England, Green's Short History of the English People. Lectures, on which the class took notes, have been given, and the history of the Protestant Episcopal Church has been studied in connection with Bishop Perry's Handbook of the General Conventions. The first book of Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity has been studied as an introduction to Canon law, and the class are at present studying the Constitution and Canons of the church.

The Middle Class, with three recitations a week, have read essays on assigned topics, and have studied Kurtz's Church History through the age of Pope Nicholas I. The first four General Councils have been studied in Theological Seminary.

Robertson's Church History, which has been used throughout for parallel reading. The History of the Church, from the age of Gregory VII to our own time, has been studied in Fisher's Church History, omitting all that part which bears on the History of the Church of England.

The Junior Class, with four weekly recitations, have gone through Dr. Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, and has read in Greek the Acts of the Apostles, which has been examined and commented on chiefly from the historical standpoint. Essays have also been written, and oral reports rendered on appointed subjects.

CARL E. GRAMMER.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF HEBREW, ORIENTAL LANGUAGES, AND APOLOGETICS.

To the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

I would respectfully report as follows:

The Senior Class has read portions of the books of Isaiah and Jeremiah, besides making a general review of the Hebrew Grammar and part of Muller's Syntax.

The Middle Class has read a large number of Psalms critically, besides a few chapters in the book of Proverbs, special attention being given to the principles of Hebrew Poetry, reviewing at same time Hebrew Grammar.

The Juniors have read already forty chapters of Genesis, fourteen of Exodus, and five of Judges. They have also taken the usual courses in Apologetics.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1888).

Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL.D., President of the Board of Trustees:

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

The whole number of pupils entered the present session is one hundred and one; the maximum attendance ninety five. The general conduct and morale of the boys have been exceptionally satisfactory. * * * In respect to the moral and religious influences of the school, I can only say that the same endeavor as heretofore has been constantly made to supply all that is most salutary. Besides the usual daily prayers at home, and attendance at the Seminary Chapel Sunday morning, we have, through the kindness of Seminary Professors, enjoyed the ministrations of a clergyman at least twice a month in the School Chapel. The Rev. Professor Nelson, our acting pastor, has continued abundant in labors for us. A sermon the first

 Report of Standing Committee.

Monday night in the month; a boys' communicants' meeting before each monthly celebration; a weekly lecture in Lent, and careful attention at the proper time to the Confirmation class, have been given by him at the school before. The observance of the Christian seasons has been as usual distinct. While keeping the minor festivals in our own chapel, we attend on the chief holy days, service at the Seminary, and during Lent, and especially Holy Week, extraordinary opportunities of devotion and instruction are offered at the school. The week night meeting, so long maintained in our own chapel, was acceptably conducted this session by Mr. F. P. Clark, of the Middle Class, and afterwards by Mr. John C. Ambler, of the Senior Class, at the Seminary. My estimate of its usefulness was never higher, and to the two gentlemen just mentioned, as well as to Dr. Nelson and the other clergy referred to, my thanks are eminently due. Eleven boys, including one who received the rite at home, have been confirmed during the session; the total number of communicants being now forty-three.

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

The Rev. H. Suter presented the report of the Standing Committee :

The Standing Committee beg leave to report that since the last annual Council the following have been recommended as candidates for Holy Orders, viz:

John Carson Cornick,	John S. Berry,
Robert Lee Whitlow,	F. Lindsay Patton,
William Charles Ludwig,	Thomas Washington Vaughn, colored,
Berryman Green,	John Wesley Johnson, colored.

The following have been recommended for Deacon's Orders, viz:

H. J. Beagen,	E. H. Green,
D. P. Chockley,	W. P. Griggs,
George G. Smeade,	Lafayette Wingfield, colored,
P. R. Nugent,	Mack Floyd Nelson, "
Alexander Galt,	Beverly Moses Jefferson, colored.

The following have been recommended for Priest's Orders, viz:

Rev. A. B. Kinsolving,	Rev. Thomas Carter Page, Deacons.

Consent was given to the election of Rt. Rev. Dr. Adams as Bishop of Eastern, the consecration of Rev. James S. Johnston as Missionary Bishop of

Election of Standing Committee.

Western Texas, and of Rev. Abiel Leonard as Missionary Bishop of Nevada and Utah.

Respectfully submitted.

GEO. H. NORTON, Secretary.

JOSEPH PACKARD, President.

The Assistant Bishop retired from the Council, and the Rev. Dr Powers took the chair.

The Rev. Dr. Minnigerode offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the portion of the Assistant Bishop's Address referring to the status of the colored church organization be referred to a committee of eleven, seven clergy and four laymen.

The Rev. Dr. Minnigerode offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the portion of the Assistant Bishop's Address referring to vacant Parishes be referred to a committee of four clergymen and three laymen for consideration, with instructions to report to this Council.

The tellers in the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese reported the result of the election as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 99; all of which were cast for the former members of the committee.

The Rev. H. B. Lee moved that the Committee on Colored Organization be directed to report to this Council. Carried.

The Rev. Everard Meade presented a petition to change the name of "Patrick Parish," Henry county, to "Henry Parish," Henry county, which was referred to the Committee on New Parishes.

The Rev. Dr. Jackson offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council heartily endorses the Summer School of Hebrew at the University of Virginia, and commends its work as conducive to the advancement of scholarship among our clergy.

The Rev. Frank Stringfellow offered the following, which was adopted:

Report of Committee of Diocesan Missionary Society.

Resolved, That with grateful recognition of the recent increase in contributions for Diocesan Missions, this Council deems it to be practical, and greatly to be desired, that these contributions for the current year should be increased; and the Council earnestly urges that at least the sum of twelve thousand dollars be raised for the purpose.

The Rev. Dr. Jackson offered the following, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Council of Virginia has learned with pleasure that a magazine has been established and published at the Theological Seminary of Virginia, and urges its wide circulation in the Diocese.

The Assistant Bishop resumed the chair, and announced the following as the members of the committee on that part of his address referring to the separate organization for colored congregations :

Rev. J. S. Hanckel, D. D.,	Rev. J. S. Russell,
" C. Minnigerode, D. D.,	" George E. Howell,
" Pike Powers, D. D.,	Mr. H. W. Sheffey,
" J. B. Newton,	" Joseph Wilmer,
" George F. Bragg,	" John L. Williams,
Mr. R. H. Baker.

The Rev. Dr. Powers presented the annual report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society :

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA (1888).

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report that during the year which has elapsed—since the last Council—they have aided fifty-three ministers in charge of Parishes and missions, not including two or three colored ministers whose names are not on the minutes, and the annual sum total appropriated to those Parishes and missions is $8,520. The names of the ministers who have received aid from the committee are Rev. Messrs. John McGill, Ashland, now replaced by Rev. Thomas M. Ambler; P. M. Boyden, Mecklenburg; P. Brooke, West Point; W. P. Burke (colored), Petersburg; L. R. Combs, Gordonsville and Louisa; D. H. Chockley, Bristol; B. Dennis, Tazewell county; R. R. Claiborne, Madison Courthouse; H. L. Derby, Lancaster and Northumberland; R. A. Castleman, Westmoreland; G. W. Easter, Accomac; James B. Funsten, Richmond city; Edwin H. Green, Brunswick; James E. Hammond, Montgomery; J. C. Hobson, Amherst; J. H. Hundley, Essex; Alexander Galt, Prince George; A. Jaeger, Campbell county; A. B. Kinsolving and W.

marle; A. A. McDonough, Fauquier; C. J. S. Mayo, Warwick; W. N.

F. Nelson (colored), Richmond city; P. R. Nugent, Henry; Alex. Overby, Charlotte; T. C. Page, Stafford; C. Page, Loudoun; James E. Poindexter, Caroline; G. W. Phelps, Greenville; C. O. Pruden, Pittsylvania; James

G. G. Smeade, Pulaski; Job Turner, Missionary to Deaf Mutes; H. Townsend, Warwick; A. B. Tizzard, Chesterfield; J. W. Ware, Prince Edward and Nottoway; ——— Wingfield (colored), Nottoway; S. S. Ware, Loudoun;
D. W. Taylor (colored), Petersburg; W. B. Williams, Hanover Junction;
A. J. Willis, King George.

Some of these have served only a part of the year, and then resigned, and been replaced by others, and in some cases the Parishes still remain vacant, so that the amount paid out is not equal to the amount appropriated.
The Treasurer's report will show the exact state of the case, financially.
Several new appropriations have been made. In two cases an increase has been granted. In St. James' Church, Ashland, only one-half the former appropriation has been asked for, and Grace Church, Alexandria, has resigned its stipend, which we thankfully report. We have also appointed, at the Bishop's recommendation, Rev. Everard Meade, of Essex, as Evangelist, and have undertaken to pay his salary. He began work January 1st, 1888, and has since been actively engaged in supplying the vacant churches with services.

It will be seen that our work is not diminishing, but increasing, and that it is still parochial rather than missionary; the support of old and weak Parishes, rather than the inauguration of mission work in new fields. Although we are glad to be able to say that most of our ministers are very active in preaching at any point within their reach where there is a prospect of doing good. We know that many of the country people are poor; that the prices of farm products have been low; that the country is being depleted continually to fill up the cities, and that old church people are dying off and will continue to die off; but we believe that as a man can be pauper-ized by continued help, so a Parish can be pauperized by continued help.
We have heard of cases where the people of a Parish, under the stimulus of some new motive to exertion, have pledged themselves for nearly double the amount promised or paid to the former rector, and we are afraid that some of our Parishes are not doing all that they are able to do for the support of their rectors. There are now fifteen or sixteen vacant Parishes in the Diocese, not counting a number of vacant and isolated churches, and as the process of vacating goes on faster than the process of supplying, and will probably continue to do so as long as other Dioceses offer better salaries and equally good fields of labor, we see no remedy but one of these three get more money and make larger appropriations to the country ; or 2d, that the country churches combine in fours, or sixes, or so as to give a minister a good support, having service at each point iday in a month, or one Sunday in two months, and keeping the open the other Sundays by Sunday-school, Bible classes and lay ; or 3d, that we employ four or six evangelists if necessary, and give money to them, letting the Parishes that can support a minister do leaving the others to depend upon the evangelists and their own lay for services.

hilst there is doubtless a deficiency sometimes on the part of the sometimes on the part of the minister, and sometimes in both, we ly recognize the zeal and liberality of the church in Virginia in their itions to Diocesan missions during the past year, the amount being than ever before. We have at last reached the $10,000 so often d, and gone beyond it, and while we thank God for having put it earts of the people to devise such liberal things, and the people for done such liberal things, we must not forget to thank the teachers lden of the Sunday-schools, the teachers and pupils of a few other and the individuals, men, women and children, who have so mated us by their Lenten, Easter and home offerings.

On motion of the Rev. T. M. Carson the next annual meeting of the Council was appointed to be held in St. Paul's Church, Lynchburg.

The Council then took recess until 4 P. M.

4 P. M.

The Council reassembled and was called to order by the Assistant Bishop.

The Secretary read the following telegram received from the Council of the Diocese of Kentucky:

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 17th, 1888.

The Council of the Diocese of Kentucky sends fraternal greetings to the Council of the Diocese of Virginia.

E. H. WARD, Secretary.

The Secretary was then instructed to telegraph a suitable reply to the greeting of the Diocese of Kentucky, which was done as follows

STAUNTON, VA., May 17th, 1888.

Rev. E. H. WARD, Secretary of the Council of the Diocese of Kentucky. Louisville, Ky.:

The Council of the Diocese of Virginia affectionately reciprocates the greetings of their brethren in Kentucky.

Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Jesus' love."

T. G. DASHIELL, Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the report of the Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund report the condition of their affairs as somewhat improved. The principal of the fund now amounts to $23,028.27; its market value perhaps $28,000. But the income to be distributed, even if it were wise to use the whole of it, would not of itself afford a hundred dollars to each one of our beneficiaries. If the fund is ever to be increased for greater usefulness, the Diocese must look to the churches now to sustain by their annual contributions this blessed charity of helping the families of our brethren who are at rest. We are sorry therefore to be obliged to report the number of contributing churches this year as only sixty-three, less by fourteen than last year, and we greatly fear there is a growing indifference among our clergy to this matter, which leads them to deny to their congregations the privilege of giving to a cause which we know the laity at least esteem of highest obligation. The Board could not under such circumstances increase the amount to be appropriated. They divided $2,210, the amount given last year, among sixteen families, one new applicant having been received. We urge upon the attention of every clergyman and layman in the Diocese (is it not strange that we have to do it?) this holy work of ministering to "the fatherless and widows" of their own household of faith.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

The appropriations for the ensuing year are as follows: To the families of Rev. W. C. Meredith, Weddell and Steptoe, $200 each; to the family of Rev. Dr. Murdaugh, $175; to the families of Rev. W. H. Pendleton, Stringfellow, Gregory and Hoxton, $150 each; to the families of the Rev. J. P. McGuire, David Caldwell, W. N. Ward, N. A. Okeson and J. H. Morrison, $125 each; family of Rev. A. Fisher, $100; family of Rev. E. B. McGuire, $60; of Rev. Nelson Sale, $50.

The Rev. Dr. Grammer presented the following:

The committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Society respectfully report that they have examined the same, and find them correct, and sustained by proper vouchers.

JAMES GRAMMER, Chairman.

 Report of Committee on Sunday-school Instruction Books.

The Assistant Bishop announced the following as the committee on that part of his address referring to vacant Parishes:

Rev. James Grammer, D. D.,	Mr. C. J. Faulkner,
" B. M. Randolph,	" J. W. Pegram,
" E. Valentine Jones,	" J. G. Williams,
Rev. Everard Meade.

The Rev. W. T. Roberts presented the following :

The committee appointed by the last Council to examine the Sunday-school instruction books now on the market and in actual use in the Sunday-schools of this and other Dioceses, and to report to this body what books among them are in their judgment best adapted to aid our Sunday-school teachers in the work of imparting to the children of the church a sound systematic knowledge of our most holy faith, have given the subject their careful attention, and beg leave to present the following report :

The resolution, under which your committee was appointed, specified the lines of investigation, viz: the Church Catechism and the Bible. Along these prescribed lines their work has been prosecuted. The end kept in view, the method adopted, and the result obtained, will appear as we proceed.

In any one of our Sunday-schools, selected at random, almost every possible variety of apprehension and degree of attainment are to be found. The kind of instruction eminently suitable for one scholar is altogether unsuitable in the case of another. All these representatives of different ages and mental conditions have to be provided for according to their several capacities. Effective provision for them involves two things—a careful classification of scholars and a well arranged course of instruction. Hence, at the very beginning of their labors your committee endeavored to settle clearly in their minds what constituted a satisfactory course of Sunday-school instruction, either on the Church Catechism or on the Bible. They became convinced that such a course should at least possess the three features :

1. A satisfactory course of Sunday-school instruction ought, in its doctrinal teaching, to be in exact conformity with the doctrinal standard of the Church, literally and historically interpreted. Such conformity necessarily involves the thorough scripturalness of the course. The lamentable want of this first requisite of a Sunday-school instruction book in many of those now issued from the presses of church-publishers, and offered for sale to the unsuspecting public, discovered to your committee in the course of their recent labors in connection with this report, make it necessary for them to pause here and call attention, very plainly and pointedly, with names and dates, to an evil of great magnitude and momentous consequences. 7 want of conformity in their teaching to the doctrinal standards of the Church is not confined to the publication of one house. Whether in the East or West, in New York or Milwaukee, these book concerns, one and all, as far as our observation goes, are publishing and pushing the sale of Sunday-school instruction books, which are poisoning the minds of the young with doctrines widely at variance with the standard of this Church, and utterly repugnant to the principles of the Protestant reformation. Take as a specimen of what is being done in this line, a little book entitled "A Catechism of Christian Instruction for Young Children, third edition, prepared by a priest, published by The Young Churchman Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin." In this book, prayers for the dead, priestly pardon, transubstantiation and other Romish heresies are assiduously taught. (Vid., pages 26, 27, 32; questions 148, 154, 184.) A few extracts will make this plain. "How ought we to show our love for them (the Saints), and especially for the dead in Christ? We ought to pray for them. Why ought we to pray for the dead in Christ? Because their happiness is not yet complete. (Questions 148 and 149.) How does God forgive the sins we commit after baptism? Through the priests of His church. Whom hath our Saviour appointed to forgive our sins in his name? Our Saviour has appointed the priests of His church. (Questions 154, 338.) What is the sacrifice which the Catholic Church offers to God? The sacrifice of the body and blood of Christ. When do we offer this sacrifice to God? In the Holy Eucharist. In what way are the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ offered to God? Under the form of bread and wine. To whom did our Lord give the power to make the bread and wine the body and blood of Christ? To the Apostles, and to the Bishops and Priests who came after the Apostles." (Questions 182-185.) These extracts speak for themselves. Many more might be given equally false and more puerile. But we hasten to say that the great mass of Sunday-school instruction books now issued from many of our publishing houses not only utterly fails to meet the first requirement of a satisfactory course of Sunday-school instruction—viz: conformity to the doctrinal standards of the Church—but is full of deadly poison.

2. The second feature which your committee decided as necessary to constitute a thoroughly satisfactory course of Sunday School instruction has reference to the spirit in which the course is conceived. A thoroughly devout spirit should pervade it from beginning to end. Every page of a Sunday School instruction book should breathe the spirit of love to God and man, and be instinct with the spirit of reverence for holy things. No merely editorial work, however excellent, can make up for a defect in this particular.

3. The third feature necessary to constitute a course of Sunday-school instruction satisfactory, is regular and consistent progression. Beginning with simple and elementary instruction, the course should advance, by natural and easy steps, to higher and more advanced truth.

With these points clearly before their minds, your committee have made an earnest effort to separate from the vast mass of worthless and mischievous Sunday-school instruction books two series, one on the Catechism and the other on the Bible, which would combine the features constituting, in their judgment, a satisfactory course of instruction. They have secured from most, if not all, of our leading publishers specimen copies of their book, and have subjected them to a careful scrutiny.

As the result of their labors, they unhesitatingly recommend to this body for its approval the following list of books to be used in the order given-to-wit:

I. Course on Church Catechism.

1. "The Church Catechism, Illustrated," by Mrs. C. H. Smith, New York. James Pott & Co. (For the younger children of the church.)

2. "A Catechism on the Church Catechism," by the Rt. Rev. George Burgess, D. D., late Bishop of the Diocese of Maine. New York. Thos. Whitaker, 2 and 3 Bible House. (For general use.)

3. "A Class-Book of the Catechism of the Church of England," by the Rev. G. F. Maclear, D. D. London. Macmillan & Co. Third edition. (For advanced classes.)

II. Course of Instruction on Bible.

1. "First Steps for Little Feet in Gospel Paths," by the author of "The Story of the Bible." Philadelphia. Charles Foster, 118 S. 7th Street.

2. "The Story of the Gospel," by the author of "The Story of the Bible." Seventy-second thousand. Published by Charles Foster, 118 S. 7th Street Philadelphia.

3. "The Story of the Bible," by Charles Foster, 118 S. 7th St., Philadelphia.

4. "A Class-Book of Old Testament History," by Rev. G. F. Maclear, D. D. Macmillan & Co. (For advanced classes.)

5. "A Class-Book of New Testament History," by Rev. G. F. Maclear, D. D. Macmillan & Co. (For advanced classes.)

Your committee beg leave to say, in conclusion (1), that this list of Sunday-school instruction books is intended mainly, if not exclusively, for the use of our Sunday-school teachers. They are too expensive to be put into the hands of each scholar. On other grounds, too, this is not expedient. We conceive that the Bible and the Prayer Book is the proper equipment of every Sunday-school scholar, and the books recommended by us are textbooks to aid the teacher in unfolding the teachings of the two Books of Books. (2). We remark again that we have purposely made the list small to prevent any difficulty about choice of recommended books. (3). Of the eight books on this list, only one fails to come up to our ideal of what a Sunday-school instruction book ought to be. This book, Bishop Burgess' work on the Catechism, beyond all praise in every other respect—in its doctrinal teaching, in its devout spirit, in its chaste and elegant diction—is badly edited. It needs an analytical table of contents and a distinct heading to each chapter. This defect can be supplied by putting the book in the hands of a competent committee and getting out a new edition.

Invitation to visit Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution.

In view, therefore, of what we have laid before you, we beg leave to close our labors by submitting for your approval the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this Council approves the course of Sunday-school instruction described in this paper, and recommends to the Sunday-school teachers in this Diocese for their use, from this time until further action of Council, the instruction books herein named.

2. Resolved, That the book entitled "A Catechism on the Church Catechism," by the Rt. Rev. George Burgess, D. D., late Bishop of the Diocese of Maine, be placed in the hands of a competent committee with power to take such steps as may be necessary to secure a new and improved edition of this most valuable work.

All of which your committee respectfully submits.

W. T. ROBERTS.

The report was received and its resolutions adopted.

The Rev. Angus Crawford offered the following:

Resolved, That this committee be continued and present to the next Council a list of books for our Sunday-school libraries that they can recommend.

Resolved, That the Committee on Sunday-school Library Books be requested to edit, with Mr. Whittaker's permission, Bishop Burgess' Catechism on the Church Catechism.

Carried, and the Rev. Mr. Crawford was, upon motion, added to that committee.

The Rev. J. Peterkin, D. D., from the committee appointed at the last Council to consider the papers and resolutions relating to a change of the name of the church; stated, in behalf of the committee, that they were not prepared to present a report to the present Council, and recommended that the same committee be continued until the next annual session.

The recommendation was approved by the Council, and the committee was continued.

A communication was presented to the Council from the Principal of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution, inviting the members of the Council to visit the same.

The invitation was referred to the Rev. J. B. Funsten and Mr. Thomas Potts, as a committee to confer with Principal Doyle respecting the most suitable time for accepting such invitation.

Invitation to visit Virginia Female Institute.

The committee made report recommending five o'clock to-morrow afternoon as the time for such visit, and the Council voted to accept the invitation at that time.

The Rev. Dr. Davis presented a preamble and resolution protesting against any such action as that proposed in the last General Convention in reference to striking the words "Protestant Episcopal" from the name of the Church.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson offered the following as a substitute for the same:

Resolved, That the conviction of this Diocese is unalterably opposed to any change of the name of this Church, and by the unanimous vote of its Council proclaims the same to the whole Church.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Kinloch Nelson the above resolutions were referred to the following committee, and the report of that committee was made the order of the day for to-morrow, immediately after divine service:

Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph, D.D.,	Rev. E. L. Goodwin,
Rev. K. Nelson, D. D.,	Mr. H. W. Sheffey,
Rev. J. Peterkin, D. D.,	Mr. E. A. Hatton,
Mr. R. T. Scott.

The Rev. J. B. Newton offered the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That this Council commends the work of the Bible Society of Virginia as worthy of the cordial support of our church people.

The Assistant Bishop presented an invitation to the Council from the Lady Principal of the Virginia Female Institute to attend an entertainment at the Institute to-morrow at 8 P. M., which invitation the Council voted to accept.

The Rev. Dr. Hanckel offered the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That the Protestant Episcopal Church Home in Richmond hereby commended to the liberal support of the Diocese.

The Council then adjourned until Friday, at 10 A. M.

Report of Committee on Change of Name of this Church.

FRIDAY, May 18th.

The Council met for divine service at 10 A. M. Morning prayer was read by the Revs. O. S. Bunting and W. T. Roberts. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Henderson Suter.

After divine service the Council assembled for business, and was called to order by the Assistant Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Rev. A. P. Gray was elected Assistant Secretary to sign certificates of attendance on the Council for the purpose of obtaining return tickets.

The order of the day being the report of the committee appointed to consider the resolutions offered on the change of the name of the Church, was then taken up. The Rev. Dr. Kinloch Nelson presented the following report from that committee:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHANGE OF NAME OF THIS CHURCH.

The committee to which was referred the preamble and resolutions of Revs. Dr. Davis, Rev. Dr. Newton and Rev. G. W. Nelson as to the change of the name of this Church, respectfully present the following report:

Whereas, a persistent effort is being made to change the name of our Church, which "our forefathers" with one consent recognized and bequeathed to us; and whereas, the agitation of this subject in our General Conventions has already produced wide-spread apprehension in the Protestant world around us, and in our opinion retarded the growth and impaired the strength of our Church throughout this country; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia holds the fundamental and positive principles of Protestantism to be identical with the faith of the Gospel, and therefore lovingly appeals to her sister Dioceses to oppose the effort to expunge the words "Protestant Episcopal," either from the name of our Church or the title-page of our Prayer Book, as fraught with the gravest danger to its unity.

Resolved, 2d. That the Bishop be requested to transmit copies of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the Bishops and Councils of the respective Dioceses of this church.

Respectfully submitted, &c.,

A. M. RANDOLPH,
J. PETERKIN,
KINLOCH NELSON,
E. L. GOODWIN,
H. W. SHEFFEY,
E. A. HATTON,
R. TAYLOR SCOTT.

The preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Mr. L. M. Blackford, from the Committee on the Brotherhood, presented the report:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BROTHERHOOD.

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to submit the following report:

There have been three deaths during the year—the Rev. William Norwood, D. D., the Rev. D. M. Wharton and the Rev. P. F. Berkeley.

The family of Dr. Norwood declined to avail themselves of the benefits of the Brotherhood, and for the heirs of the other two, collections are now in progress.

We regret to observe a decline in the membership throughout the Diocese. It is now less than eight hundred—that is to say, about five per cent of the whole number of communicants, but in such decline we do not recognize any necessary indication of diminished interest. Numbers must, from year to year, become fewer by death and removal, and without constant care on the part of local agents they cannot be kept up, still less increased. Greater activity therefore on the part of agents, and the appointment by the vestry of an agent in every Parish where there is none now, are of prime importance, and earnest measures in this behalf are respectfully urged. Much has been accomplished in the distribution, since the organization of the Brotherhood in 1870, of $33,000 among the heirs of thirty-one beneficiaries; but in the language of Major D. N. Walker, the President, "should have been three times as much." It is time that the vestries of the representative lay body in each Parish should accept the duty of furthering the one agency of all others probably most calculated to arrest the constant and alarming flow of our clergy to other Dioceses.

In Parishes where there are agents, the committee thinks, that when the death of a beneficiary occurs, contributions need not stop with the dues of members of the Brotherhood. Many besides, we are satisfied, in every congregation who are unwilling to pledge themselves beforehand, would, if requested, pay the same.

Report of Committee on Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The adoption of the following resolutions is therefore recommended :

Resolved, 1. That this Council recommends to agents of the Brotherhood in all Parishes, on the occasion of the death of a beneficiary, besides collecting as heretofore from members, the issue of a special appeal to individuals in their respective congregations who are not members for the payment of the mortuary due.

Resolved, 2. That this Council further recommends to the vestry of our Parish, where there is no agent of the Brotherhood, to secure some suitable person to act as such, and to provide for his or her appointment by the proper authority in Richmond.

Respectfully submitted.

L. M. BLACKFORD,
WALTER H. TAYLOR,
GEORGE L. CURRIE.

The report was received, and its resolutions unanimously adopted.

The Rev. S. A. Wallis, from the Committee on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, presented the report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

The Committee appointed on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, respectfully report that they have examined the accounts and found them correct. They regret to find that only fifty-eight churches contributed during the past year. The committee believes that the laity would respond liberally if the clergy throughout the Diocese would faithfully do their duty in presenting at least once annually the claims of the widows and orphans of those who have spent their days in the ministry of the Word. They would therefore earnestly commend this noble object to the churches throughout the Diocese, sincerely trusting that all will be found contributing something during the coming year.

The Rev. John J. Clopton, from the Committee on Parochial Reports, presented the report :

The labors of your committee would be lightened and greater accuracy secured in its report if Parochial Reports were less carelessly prepared and handed in more promptly; or, better still, if they were forwarded to the Bishop, as the Canon requires, before the meeting of the Council.

JOHN S. HANSBROUGH,
Chairman for Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Sprigg offered the following, which was laid upon the table :

Resolved, That the Committee on Parochial Reports be instructed to append to their report the number of those confirmed by the Bishop.

The Rev. H. Suter presented the Report of the Committee on the State of the Church :

 Report of Committee on State of the Church.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to report, that in view of the fact that the statistics relative to the financial condition of the Diocese, the number of communicants and Sunday-school scholars, confirmations, and other matters bearing upon the Church in Virginia, are given in the report of the Committee on Parochial Reports, which is always printed in the JOURNAL, they do not deem it necessary to dwell in detail upon the facts so reported. They are open to the examination of the clergy and laity, and speak for themselves better than we can speak for them now.

We are also confirmed in this view by the conviction that it is impossible for this committee, or any committee, from the mere hearing of the reports, to do justice to the questions which they suggest, and to the matters with which they deal.

We may, however, express our gratitude to God for the interest in all good works which has marked, and does still mark, the clergy and laity of Virginia. Freed from the influences which retard the growth of the Church of our love in some parts of our land—true still to the truth as it is in Jesus—the clergy of Virginia, upheld by a laity as true as they, have not been without the Great Master's blessing. And your committee, while happy in the recognition of the fact, cannot fail to trust that in these times of emptiness, the pulpit and the pew will continue in the future as faithful as they have been in the past.

The Committee on the State of the Church last year lamented the fact that out of fifteen thousand communicants only seven offered themselves for the sacred ministry. The field is still white for the harvest and the laborers are still few. May we not, then, suggest to the clergy to bring the claims of the ministry before the young men of their charges, and ask of the laity a daily remembrance of the Lord's words: "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest that He would send forth laborers into His harvest."

We have reason to think that the spirit of inquiry on this subject has increased since last year's report, and that a goodly number of our young men will be added to the list of candidates for orders.

The report of the Dean of the Theological Seminary bears witness to the increase of the missionary spirit among the students, and when this grows, it has a blessing for the home field as well as for the foreign.

In this connection it is our sorrowful duty to deplore the continued exodus from the Diocese of the clergy of the rural Parishes. We cannot blame these brethren, as many—we may say the most of them—are constrained by necessity to leave for more inviting fields. Neither can we, in any case, blame the Parishes, as the exodus from them also, of the old and the young, makes them numerically and financially weak.

We have no remedy to suggest to stem the tide of clerical change, and can only hope that in the near future something may occur or be done to keep our ranks intact.

 Report from Committee on Sunday-schools.

Possibly an increase of the missionary funds—an appeal for which has been made already to the Council—may put it in the power of the Missionary Committee to help the weak, until, in the good providence of God, the growth of the rural portions of the State may require more of ministerial work.

In conclusion, your committee expresses its belief that the spiritual condition of the Church in Virginia is not a whit behind any former era of its history, and may well call for our thanks to Him from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, and our prayer that He may bless us still, and yet more abundantly.

Respectfully submitted, HENDERSON SUTER.

The Rev. G. Mosley Murray presented the report of the Committee on Sunday-schools :

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

Your Committee is glad to report that, after due examination of the statistics of this year, they find an increase in the number of scholars and teachers, and also an increase in the amount of Sunday-school contributions. The statistics are as follows :

13,675 scholars, of which 11,560 are white, 1,980 colored, and 135 Indian; an increase of 564 over the aggregate report of last year; 1,640 teachers, which 1,528 white, 112 colored, an increase of 27 from last year. Offerings $5,517.21, an increase of $597.34 over the amount reported at the last Council.

We feel greatly encouraged by this showing, but we feel, also, that there is much, very much, still to be done. If we would have in our Diocese live working and self-supporting Parishes we must begin right; that is to say we must have live, interesting Sunday-schools. Just as the future temporal prosperity of our country depends upon the secular training and education of our sons and daughters, so the future spiritual prosperity of our Church depends upon the careful and faithful religious instruction of all the young that can be brought within her influence. Without doubt the Sunday-school is the nursery of the Church; there each little one must be nourished with spiritual food, nourished, not in a listless, perfunctory way as is so often the case, but with the "sincere milk of the Word," the truth as it is in Jesus, the old, old story told often and simply. We must attract the children; the sunniest room is chosen for the nursery, its walls are hung with pictures, and all its surroundings are bright and pleasant; let us make our Sunday-schools cheerful and attractive; an hour of pleasant anticipation to the little ones.

Who is to do this work? A work so important, so vital to the interests of our Church that if it languishes the Church herself is languishing.

Is it the work of the clergyman of the Parish? Yes and no. It is the clergyman's work to be on the spot; it is his work to supervise; it is his work to know each child by name; it is his work to try with all his power to endear himself to these children; it is his work to catechise each class and each child in each class at frequent stated intervals; it is his work to be thoroughly familiar with the workings of the school in every one of its departments, and where it is possible to be ready to give his assistance and support.

It is not his work to superintend. The machinery of the Sunday-school must be operated by the laity; and just here we emphasize this point, that this duty is incumbent as much—nay more—upon the men of our congregations as upon the women. If our laymen were as zealous, as untiring and as devoted in their efforts to promote the cause of Christ and the building up of His kingdom as are the women of our Church, what Sunday-schools, what Parishes should we have! We now wish to urge upon the laymen of the Church that they assume at once their spiritual responsibilities as Christians; let them take hold of the spiritual work within their grasp; let them take hold, earnestly and prayerfully, of this Sunday-school work, and thus they will reap not only blessings for themselves, but will be instruments in God's hands for great future good in His kingdom. Let this be done, and we venture to predict with confidence that we shall hear less of vacant Parishes, less of waste places and congregations hungering for the bread of life. Let every Church be open every Sunday; let the superintendent and his band of co-workers be prompt and punctual; let them go from house to house, and earnestly and lovingly compel the children to come in; let them specially encourage the children of the poor, extending at the same time needful help and loving sympathy. The Church is a great missionary organization, and with this fact in view, and feeling that now in our Diocese the "fields are already white unto the harvest," while the laborers are few, very few, we call urgently and loudly upon the brethren of the laity to come up to the help of the clergy in this great work; we call upon them to come up and stand shoulder to shoulder in the Sunday-school movement, as being one of the most powerful factors in the missionary scheme. And we call upon the clergy to gladly avail themselves of all the efficient lay work that they can secure; and we believe that hearty compliance with these calls, in an earnest, prayerful and faithful spirit, will surely redound to the glory of God and His Church.

motion was carried, and the Revs. Dr. R. T. Davis and H.
were appointed as that committee.

 Report from Committee on Colored Organization.

The Rev. Dr. Hanckel, from the Committee on Colored Organization, presented the following as the majority report of that committee :

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON COLORED ORGANIZATION.

The committee to whom was referred so much of the Assistant Bishop's address as related to a separate organization for the colored people of the Diocese, respectfully report without preamble the result of their deliberations. They propose—

1st. That there be inserted in the third line of Article II of the Constitution, section 1, before the word "ministers" the word "white;" and in the ninth line before "ministers" the word "such"; and that there be added a third section to Article II, and so to amend it that it shall read as follows:

ARTICLE II.

SEC. 1. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop, if there be one, and of the ministers (being white) who now are, or may hereafter be, canonically settled in Parishes or churches within this Diocese, Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, Missionaries within this Diocese, and under its ecclesiastical authority, being clergymen of this Church, and canonically connected with this Diocese: Provided, that any such ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions, shall be members ex officio: Provided further, that no minister under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to a seat in the Council, and no minister shall be entitled to a seat unless he has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the six calendar months preceding.

SEC. 2. The Council shall also be composed of lay members (being white), consisting of one delegate for each Parish or church, chosen by the vestry thereof. Every Parish or church having more than one officiating minister, canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many lay delegates as it has ministers, and in every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants in the Church.

SEC. 3. The Council shall yet further be composed of four clerical delegates from the colored missionary jurisdiction of the Diocese, as constituted under Canon XIII—of Colored Mission churches. The colored clergy not connected with the Diocese shall however retain their right to a seat and voice in the Council.

Discussion of Report of Committee on Colored Organization.

The Rev. Geo. F. Bragg presented the following minority report:

MINORITY REPORT.

While we appreciate the earnest desire of the majority of this committee to honestly and fairly settle this question in such a manner as they think will best promote the work among our people, yet we are conscientiously unable to concur with them in their recommendation.

JAMES S. RUSSELL,
GEO. F. BRAGG, Jr.,
G. E. HOWELL.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson moved to lay the whole matter on the table. Lost.

The Rev. Dr. Grammer moved to postpone the whole matter to the next Council.

Pending discussion of the motion to postpone, the Council took recess until 4 P. M.

4 P. M.

The Council reassembled.

The Rev. Dr. Jackson, by general consent, moved that the Council go to the Deaf and Dumb Institution at six o'clock, which was carried.

The Council resumed consideration of the motion to postpone to next Council the consideration of the reports of the Committee on Colored Organization.

The Rev. Dr. Grammer withdrew his motion to postpone.

The Rev. Dr. Jackson offered the following :

Resolved, 1st. That it is the sense of this Council that the whole question of the Negro in the Church is not one to be settled by the Dioceses separately, except in the last resort, but must be relegated to the General Convention.

2d. That a committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed to confer with the Southern Dioceses to secure united action in memorializing the General Convention to erect a separate jurisdiction for the colored race.

The Rev. Dr. K. Nelson moved to lay on the table. Carried.

Vote on Report of Committee on Colored Organization.

Mr. Walter H. Taylor offered the following :

Whereas, it is the desire of this body, in consideration of the probable and ardently desired growth of our Church among the colored race within the borders of this Diocese, that it should at this time place upon record its recognition of the necessity for some action looking to the protection of the law-making body of the Church from the introduction of members into its Councils not qualified for the exercise of the functions of legislators; and

Whereas, it is generally considered that the best interests of both races in the Church would be most likely advanced by an arrangement for a separate organization for the colored race within its fold; and

Whereas, great care and caution should at all times be exercised in all changes in the organic law of the Church, because errors can only be avoided by careful consideration of all such proposed amendments to the Constitution; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the matter placed before the Council by the Assistant Bishop in his address be referred to a committee of — clergymen and — laymen to formulate a plan for such separate organization for the colored race, or for such other plan as will guard against the anticipated evil likely to result from a mixed Council, and submit the same for the action of the next Annual Council of this Diocese.

The Rev. H. B. Lee moved to lay the resolution on the table. Carried.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson moved to adjourn. Lost.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson moved that the order of the day be not carried out, and that the Council do now visit the Institution for Deaf, Dumb and Blind. Lost.

The Council then proceeded to vote on the report of the Committee on Colored Organization. A vote by ayes and noes and by orders was called for. The resolutions of the committee's report were approved and referred to the vestries of the Diocese by the following vote:

Report of Trustees of Virginia Female Institute.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, which was received and its resolution adopted:

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute submit to the Council their annual report for 1887 and 1888:

Since the last report was made by the Trustees, the contract with Mrs. Stuart, as Principal of the Institute, has been renewed for the term of five years, to commence on the 1st day of September, 1888, upon the following terms—to-wit: that Mrs. Stuart shall, as heretofore, pay the interest on the Institute debt as it becomes due, at the end of every six months, and also all charges for improvements, insurance, and other matters, as she has paid the same under the former agreement; and in addition, as money lent, Mrs. Stuart will pay the sum of one thousand dollars, to be applied as the Board of Directors may direct and approve, to be applied to necessary additions to, and changes in, the buildings, to an amount not to exceed in each year, on an average, the sum of five hundred dollars, and the balance, whatever it may be, to be applied as a credit upon the principal of Mrs. Stuart's debt against the Institute. In this way, and in view of the assured prospect of increased prosperity in the Institute, it is believed that the debt will be materially reduced, and that at the next renewal of the contract provision can be made for the rapid extinction of the entire debt.

The Institute buildings and grounds are in good condition and repair, and the external surroundings of the premises are very attractive and beautiful, as members of the Council have the opportunity now to observe; and by inspection of the grounds, buildings, and the arrangements made for the health and comfort of the family, they may assure themselves, and be enabled to assure others, that the Institution is richly entitled to the highest praise that can be bestowed on it. The shrubbery, trees, and grass plats and water fountains, combined with the attractive appearance of the porches and buildings, recently painted, the ample provision for light and ventilation, and for heating the apartments in cold weather, without risk of fire, all combined, render the Institute not only a beautiful abode, but a safe and healthful home for the pupils who are under the care of its skilled and careful Principal. The regimen is strict, but safe and maternal, and the results of the system of management are astonishingly gratifying. During the winter and spring, disease, in the form of measles, has prevailed throughout the city, and perhaps hundreds of persons have been more or less ill from that cause. Thus far, owing to the vigilance and care with which the pupils have been watched and guarded, not a single case has occurred among boarders in the Institute. Indeed, disorders, except those of the simplest forms, are almost unknown, and the hospital, or sick room, continues to be empty.

Mrs. Stuart's report to the Trustees is very satisfactory and gratifying; and the non-resident members of the Board of Trustees present desire to express their cordial concurrence in the commendation bestowed by the Board of Directors in their report upon the Institution and its management.

The highest number upon the boarders' list has been sixty-four, and the present and lowest number is fifty-eight. The day-school continues about as it was last session, large and well attended.

Mrs. Stuart says: "I feel that we have great cause for encouragement, not that the numbers have been increased, but that we have reached a higher standard, both mentally and morally, than ever before. The tone of the school has never been of so true and pure a character as at present.

Nine scholarships were granted this session, six to boarders, and three to day scholars. We have representatives from fourteen States and four churches, besides our own, with a larger proportion of communicants than I have heretofore known. A class of seven will be presented to the Bishop for confirmation, one of whom was baptized recently.

The Missionary Society organized last session continues a source of pleasure and profit, not only to those we are enabled to help, but also to ourselves. We hold a business meeting and a prayer meeting each once a month, presided over by the President of the Society (one of the pupils), and a large majority of the school attend, apparently enjoying the service.

We have for two years supported a scholarship in the Cape Mount school, giving some aid to our Diocesan Missionary Society and to the Divinity School at Petersburg. Mrs. Stuart concludes her admirable report with these words: "As the school is to continue under my care for at least one more term of five years, I bespeak for it the aid and good-will of all who would wish to see this, our only Diocesan school for girls, a success. Craving the prayers of our clergy and laity and the blessings of God," she subscribes her name as principal.

For years past have the local Board of Directors and the Trustees been holding up this school before the eyes of our people as a nursery of the Church, and one of its best and useful institutions, and year by year has it grown in influence and usefulness, until it is now justly regarded as a school of rare value and excellence throughout the Diocese and the Southern States; and the Trustees feel assured that under its present management its influence for good, and its increase in prosperity and numbers, must continue to grow.

The Trustees, especially those residing in the city and who have the best opportunity of observing the pupils and knowing how they demean themselves, take pleasure in saying that the influence of Mrs. Stuart's example and manner of administration, with that of her admirable Faculty, is seen in the manners, conduct and refined and lady-like deportment of her pupils in the pleasure grounds, in the streets, in the church, and wherever they appear, and they all seem to bear the impress of well-bred and cultured womanhood, the indescribable air of the true lady, which shall in the future yield happiness to many in the social and domestic circles.

 Report of Committee on Finance.

Most earnestly do the Trustees commend the Institute and its management to the confidence and liberal patronage of the Diocese, and unite with its Principal in invoking God's rich blessings upon it.

The Trustees request the Council to adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia has heard with great pleasure the report of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute this day made, which, taken in connection with recognition of its merits and usefulness by the Assistant Bishop, confirms the belief that this Diocesan School for girls is growing more and more in the confidence and good-will of those who look to such an institution, not only for acquired learning and increase of knowledge, but for the fruits of true womanly and Christian culture, which, in the judgment of this Council, constitute the best parts of female education.

The Council, therefore, renews its commendation of the Virginia Female Institute to the continued and increased confidence and support of the Diocese, and cordially unites with the Principal and the Trustees in asking for it the prayers and good-wishes of all who are interested in the true education of our girls.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY,

May 18, 1888.

Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Finance Committee:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that, at their request, James T. Gray, Esq., Treasurer of the Diocese, submitted to them a statement of his accounts for the last fiscal year, which, upon careful examination, were found to be correct and sustained by proper vouchers. Again your Committee express their grateful appreciation of Mr. Gray's gratuitous and valuable services, not only in view of the manner in which the accounts are kept, but for his promptness in furnishing the committee with all information necessary for the proper discharge of their duties. The statement of the Treasurer's accounts and other means of information enable the committee to submit to the Council the following statement:

At the commencement of the fiscal year (1887-'8) the Treasurer had to his credit in the State Bank of Virginia the sum of $153.31. The receipts on account of the Contingent Fund were $11,461.18, which, compared with those of the preceding year, amounting to $10,773.32, show an increase on this account of $687.86. The increase, shown by the last year's report, of receipts for that year, as compared with those of the preceding year, amounted to only $243.50.

For the first time, for several years, the actual results of the financial operations under the control of the Treasurer considerably exceeded for the year the estimates of income stated in the committee's last report.

Report of Committee on Finance.

These estimates, in the aggregate, amounted to $10,889.43 for the then current year. This sum exceeded the aggregate amount of receipts for the preceding year by $116.11. As before stated, the actual receipts of the year just closed amounted to $11,461.18, which exceeded the estimates by $571.75, and exceeded the actual receipts of the preceding year by $687.86, as before stated.

Upon further analysis of the account just rendered, and now under consideration, it will interest the members of the Council to know, that the extraordinary expenditures, for repairs to the Episcopal residence, amounting to $491.52, and General Convention expenses, thrown upon this year, amounting to $200, aggregated $691.52. This sum might have constituted a part of unexpended receipts had not these extraordinary demands caused a diversion of that amount from that fund. As shown by the Treasurer's report, the receipts from all sources amounted to $11,874.54; the disbursements amounted to $12,031.12, showing a deficiency of $156.58, which is the exact balance shown by the Treasurer to be due to the State Bank of Virginia.

It will be further seen from the account now under consideration that, at the commencement of the last fiscal year, the Diocese owed the State Bank of Virginia, for principal and interest of loans, the sum of $1,584.71, whilst the bank owed the Treasurer, on account current, the sum of $153.51, showing a balance due to the State Bank of Virginia of $1,431.20. This amount has been paid out of last year's current receipts, and also $691.42 for the extraordinary claims referred to, making a total of $2,122.62, from which sum, if we deduct the amount now due to the bank, which is $156.58 as aforesaid, the balance would be $1,966.04. It appears, then, that had there been no debt or extraordinary charges the balance to the credit of the Diocese, at this time, would have been $1,966.04. As matters stood, however, on the 16th of May, 1888, all receipts had been expended and a debt of $156.58 remained as a starting charge on the income of the current fiscal year. As shown by the Treasurer's account, at its close, the total amount of disbursements for the year was $12,031.12; this sum would have been reduced to $9,908.50 had not the debt to the State Bank and the extraordinary charges been included in the disbursements. Now if to these were added the sum of $1,966.04 aforesaid, the result would be exactly $11,874.54, the amount of actual receipts disbursed, as shown by the report; the balance of $156.58, due to the bank as aforesaid, making the sum of $12,031.12 the total amount of disbursements.

The ordinary expense charges against the Diocese for the year ending May 16th, 1888, as shown by the Treasurer's account, amounted to $10,065.08. For the preceding year, as appears from the last report of your committee, these charges amounted to $10,183.84, showing a difference in favor of the year just closed of $118.76, a fact probably resulting from a lessening of the traveling and other incidental expenses of the Bishops, Examining Chaplains and Historiographer.

In view of the interest which has always been felt in the subject, the committee deem it proper to refer to the subject of the cost of printing the JOURNAL and other matters.

The sums expended for these objects, including $7 for printing certificates and certain reports, as shown by the Treasurer's account, amounted in the aggregate to $487.75. In order to see how this sum compares with expenditures of former years for printing, it is stated that in 1886 the cost of printing was $562, being $74.25 more than that of the last year, and that in 1887 the cost amounted to $431, being $66.75 less than the amount now reported. What causes these discrepancies does not appear, but doubtless the reasons for them are sufficient. At the last session of the Council (see page 69 of the JOURNAL) the following resolution, by way of substitute to the report of the committee on the cost of printing, was adopted: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the Council that the JOURNAL should be printed in the same style and distributed freely to the Diocese as heretofore, and that they express full confidence in the Secretary to reduce the expenses thereof as much as possible." It is earnestly urged that the Secretary continue to give vigilant attention to this matter, so as to keep down the cost of printing as much as possible. Your committee append to this report a resolution for the free circulation of the JOURNAL.

The Treasurer informs the committee that the payments thus far have fallen considerably below those of last May, and he fears that there will be less collected this year than was received last, still he thinks that the aggregate amount of moneys already received in cash and by checks, and which may reasonably be relied on to be paid, will be about $11,000. If this expectation be realized, the income of the Diocese for the current year will be as follows:

From Contingent Fund dues, say.....	$11,000 00
" interest on Government bonds.....	104 00
" " on deposits, say.....	150 00
	$11,254 00

So that estimating the ordinary charges and expenses as they were last year, that is $10,183.84, there will be a balance to the credit of the Diocese at the end of the year of say $1,070.16.

The financial condition is therefore encouraging, and reasonably satisfactory. Still, when we consider the number of communicants in the Diocese as shown by the reports to the Council, amounting in round numbers to sixteen thousand, from each of whom one dollar should have been paid or accounted for by the respective Parishes and congregations, as required by the order of the Council at its last session, it will be seen that there continues to be a large deficit. The actual receipts on account of the Contingent Fund, as hereinbefore shown, amounted to $11,461.18—they should have been $16,000—showing a deficiency of $4,538.82, a percentage of delinquency of about 28 per cent., as it was last year. Your committee renew their urgent appeals to the laity, especially as well as to the clergy, to keep up the payment of these dues, so that, if need be, the percentage of assessment may be equitably reduced, so as to relieve all ratably, or that a fund may be realized, which, if the Council shall so determine, may be used in employing Evangelists, itinerant messengers of the Gospel, to increase the number and growth of the churches throughout the Diocese.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

1. That the Treasurer pay the customary charges for the salaries of the Bishop, Assistant Bishop, Secretary, Chaplains, Historiographer, and other customary expenses, including the rent of the residence of the Assistant Bishop, the sum of twenty-five dollars to the Assistant Secretary of this Council, and fifteen dollars to the sexton of Trinity Church, Staunton.

2. That the Secretary cause to be printed fifteen hundred copies of the JOURNAL as heretofore; that he print with the JOURNAL the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, and that he distribute, free of charge, so many as may be required for the use of the ministers and vestries of the Diocese, and dispose of the residue by sale as heretofore.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

The report was received, and its resolutions adopted.

Mr. J. W. Green presented the report of the Committee on the Episcopal Fund:

Your Committee do respectfully recommend that after reviewing the experience of our Council in the past, by the losses they have sustained by their investments in stocks and bonds, that it would not only be a safer investment, but would produce a larger income, if they would direct all the Church funds to be invested in first mortgage bonds on well improved real estate at not less than one-fourth of its assessed value. The great fluctuation which is constantly occurring in the stock market, makes it very risky in our judgment, to invest in stocks and bonds of any kind.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. W. GREEN.

The Rev. Dr. K. Nelson presented the report of the Committee on New Parishes :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NEW PARISHES.

The Committee on New Parishes respectfully submit the following report: Two applications have been referred to them, one from the Rev. G. F. Bragg and others from Norfolk, Virginia, requesting that their congregation be received under Canon XII, as a Mission Church with the name of "Grace Church," Elizabeth River Parish, Norfolk, Virginia. As all the provisions of the Canon have not been complied with, the committee hereby recommend that the petition be not granted.

The second application was that the Council change the name of "Patrick" Parish, Henry county to "Henry" Parish, Henry county. While the committee recognized the cogency of the reasons alleged for the proposed change, they did not consider that they had sufficient evidence, either that the Rector and vestry desired the change, or that due precautions would be taken to secure all rights of church property which might possibly be reby imperilled. The committee therefore felt constrained to recommend to the Council that this request be not granted.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

KINLOCH NELSON, Chairman.

The report was received and its recommendations approved.

The Rev. B. M. Randolph presented the following :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON VACANT PARISHES.

Our committee to whom was referred so much of the Assistant Bishop's Address as relates to vacant Parishes, beg leave to report that they find more than fifty vacant churches, representing as many as twenty-eight Parishes of this Diocese. A few of these are only recently and, we presume, temporarily vacant and do not, we suppose, need any suggestions from your committee. A large majority, however, are fields that have been so depleted by removals that the few who are left in them who are members of our church are unable to sustain, and are fast becoming, if not already, hopeless of sustaining, any prescribed ministrations in their churches. These are located mainly in our tidewater or southside counties. We recognize that the Diocesan Missionary Society, in its flourishing finances, is holding out promises of aid to these points under its present system of helping Parishes, but we find there are Parishes which have had standing pledges from the Diocesan Missionary Society for years and are yet further than ever from the possibility of accomplishing their purpose.

We believe that unless a new plan be adopted for helping these points they must perish, and the property pass out of the church and the valuable souls left to starve for the Gospel, for we are, in many cases, better off and have more hopeful outlook for church support than our sister churches.

In looking at the resolution to which the Bishop's address refers, we find here, in the opinion of your committee, a plan formulated which promises solution of these difficulties and, at least, deserves the attention and trial of those to whom its execution was committed by the Council.

Your committee believe it would be unwise to attempt any Canonical provision for this subject, believing that all that is possible to be done may be accomplished under existing Canons. We would therefore emphasize the object by calling the attention of this Council, and especially the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society and the laity of vacant fields: First. The special recommendations of the Bishop's Address on this subject; and, second, to the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the vestries of weak, vacant Parishes, which are unable to make satisfactory combinations to secure regular ministerial service be, and the same are hereby, requested to authorize the Executive Committee of the Resolutions of Thanks.

Diocesan Missionary Society to make such combinations, and call and employ Missionaries, as will give them some regular ministerial service, and that they pledge to that Society a specific amount of salary towards the support of such Missionary.

Resolved, That our Evangelist in his visitations be, and he is hereby, requested to call the attention of vacant Parishes to this resolution, and urge upon them the importance of availing themselves of its provisions.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES GRAMMER, D.D.,
B. M. RANDOLPH,
E. MEADE,
E. V. JONES,
C. J. FAULKNER.

The report was received and its resolutions adopted.

The Rev. Green Shackelford presented the following :

Resolved, That when a request for aid is made by the members of the vestries of vacant and needy churches desiring temporarily to sever their parochial connection with other churches in a Parish, the committee be called upon to grant these requests.

Pending discussion the motion was ruled out of order.

Rev. H. M. Jackson offered the following, which was unanimously carried.

This Council, having accepted an invitation from the Lady Principal to visit the Virginia Female Institute, hereby expresses the pleasure which the entertainment to which we were invited has given us, and above all the pleasure with which they witnessed the many evidences of the successful and capable management of the Institute.

Rev. Dr. R. T. Davis offered the following, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council are due and are hereby returned to the Rector and Vestry of this Church for the arrangements made for the comfort and convenience of its members in the transaction of its business; to the citizens of Staunton for their kind hospitality; to the pages for their courteous attentions; to the railroads for the consideration shown the Council in the reduction of fares granted the delegates, and to the authorities of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind for the pleasant entertainment given to our members.

 Report of the Historiographer.

The Rev. Dr. K. Nelsón offered the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested hereafter to appoint three speakers, to present the cause of Foreign Missions to the Annual Councils of our Church on the evening devoted to that object, and that the time of each speaker be limited to fifteen minutes.

The Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the following:

REPORT ON THE CONVOCATIONAL WORK.

The committee appointed to respond to so much of the Assistant Bishop's address to the last Council as relates to the convocational work of the diocese, respectfully report that they cordially endorse the wise and important suggestions contained therein, and do most earnestly recommend to every clergyman of the Diocese to attach himself to some one of the existing convocations, or to any other that may hereafter be formed, to attend regularly its meetings, and to perform faithfully the missionary work to which he may be assigned. Your committee regard the supply of the mission field within the bounds or reach of each convocation as the chief aim and purpose of the organization, and the organizations themselves—as the shop has expressed it—"most important agents for the extension and building up of the Church." They are also most efficient means of grace to ministers themselves, and to their congregations also, just so far as each minister becomes endued with the spirit of our Lord's commission and tries to preach the Gospel to every creature. For nothing is more certain in the experience of the Church than that Church-extension is the great means of securing His favor and promoting the Church's purity and growth in grace. The committee therefore recommend that this Council recognize the existing convocations as most important agents in the missionary work of the diocese, and earnestly commend to the care of each organization the distinctive places within its bounds, their work to be carried on in conjunction with the Missionary Society of the Diocese.

In behalf of the committee,

J. S. HANCKEL, Chairman.

On motion of the Secretary, Colonel J. H. Skinner was requested to read the Historiographer's report :

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER.

"It is not without pleasure, and perchance it may not be without use, that we rescue some quaint old document from the dust of ages, and that we arrest the floating memories of men and things as they pass down the stream of Time towards the ocean of Oblivion."

Report of the Historiographer.

Those who remember my plaintive plea at the last Council for the rehabilitation of the old vestry books, will be pleased to learn that the plea was heeded and that, under the kind supervision of Dr. Packard, the broken backs have been renewed, and the old clergy and vestrymen, decently clad, have been safely lodged in the fire-proof library at the Seminary. The same kind offices will be done for those records, still withheld by some Parishes, whenever they shall heed the call of the Council.

In the meantime they will be liable, every day, to be lost by fire, or other contingencies, by which so many of these old records have been irreparably lost. Very few persons have any conception of the value attached to these documents, not only by historians and historic societies, but also by the sons of old Virginia sires who have wandered away from their ancestral seats, and some of whom almost daily ask for tidings of their forefathers' faith.

I could adduce instances of persons confirmed in their faith, and others restored to the fold from which they had strayed, and are now useful members of flocks which feed in western pastures, by facts found in these old registers.

By the light of these records I have been able, not only to revive the memory of individuals and families, restore the lost history of churches and Parishes, but also to dissipate doubts which darkened important questions, and fix facts, which have been floating in hazy uncertainty, upon a firm historical basis.

If I had space for the exhibition of these testimonials and illustrations, every one, with a tincture of historical taste and culture, would be surprised and pleased by the induction of particulars. Every one who is moderately versed in the literature of criticism, knows the parts played by destructive critics in eliminating so-called myths from history. Some of these men have run a red-hot ploughshare through the pages of the Bible, consuming the dross, as they say, and leaving a small residuum of what they regard as the pure gold of truth. The so-called myths of Moses, and of the Gospels, are examples of this treatment.

The same destructive criticism has been applied to the history of the Church, and the State of Virginia and to the lives of some of her eminent men and women. Some of the romantic incidents in the life of Pocahontas, which have given such a charm to our early history, have been relegated by some historians to the realm of mythology. This subject has an interest for us, not only because she was the first Indian convert, but also because her descendants have been prominent members of the church in every generation, and are now represented in the person of the present Bishop of Virginia, of one of our missionaries to Japan, and several other clergymen, with divers laymen, gracious matrons, and fair maids, who are members of our communion. This subject has been so thoroughly treated by my distinguished friend, William Wirt Henry, and that high-toned old Virginia gentleman, the late Honorable Wyndham Robertson (himself a descendant of Pocahontas), as to need no further elucidation. .

like criticism has assailed, as a mere myth, some of the most interesting incidents in the early religious education of Washington. For example, a prominent historian only last year in a letter to me said that Washington's alleged training in a school in connection with a church in Stafford, Fredericksburg, was rather a fiction than a fact, and asked me if there was any authority for it. By the aid of old papers in my possession I was able to verify it so clearly and completely, that he had the frankness to admit that henceforth it must be accepted as a historical fact, and he has since so treated it in print. Bancroft, the historian, was so pleased with this fact when I told him of it at his own house that he called his secretary to take it down and preserve it amongst his papers. I might multiply these illustrations many times if time and space permitted, but I will content myself with the mention of some minor matters, which to some persons may seem of little value, and yet they have a curious interest for others who are right in tracing the smallest rivulets to their sources, knowing they are tributaries to the mightiest rivers. In logic, conclusions depend upon the premises as well as upon the major premise. For instance, the question of the application of Christian names, as St. John's, St. Paul's and the like, to some of our old churches has been mooted. With rare exceptions these are modern.

In colonial times, as a general rule, churches derived their names from their geographical position in the Parish, as the "Upper," the "Lower," or the "Middle Church." Sometimes they were called after the rivers or creeks in which they were situated, as Pohick, Quantico, Aquia and Lambs Creek churches. The Convention JOURNALS throw but little light upon this question, as they generally mention only Parishes, until the rise of independent churches, entitled to representation, which is a modern innovation. Generally the date of the introduction of Christian names can only be ascertained in those Parishes whose records are continuous from the institution of the church. Take Henrico Parish for an example. The Mother Church was called "Curles," from "Curles' Neck," where it was situated. When, in the process of population, a church was built at Richmond, upon the hill called Indian Town, it is mentioned in the Vestry Book as the "Upper Church," sometimes the "Church on Richmond Hills." Its first appearance in the Vestry Book as "St. John's Church" is on the 25th of April, 1829; and reminds me of a curious error into which some historians have been led, by the fact that the first William Randolph, of Turkey Island, was contractor for building churches in Henrico Parish. Hence, it was indeed that he was a carpenter; and another writer, building upon this allegation, said that "he came to Virginia with a broad-axe on his shoulder." The real fact is, that it was customary for the wealthiest planters in a parish, having the command of labor and material, to contract for buildings, when they had no more to do with the manual labor than Sir Christopher Wren with that of St. Paul's, London, or Michael Angelo with St. Peter's at Rome. The great Richard Bland was one of the contractors for the old

Committee on the Improvement of the Hymnal.

Blandford Church near Petersburg; and George Washington and George Mason supervised the building of the historic church at Pohick.

In this age of utilitarianism and expediency, when money is at a premium, and sentiment at a discount, we are sensible that there are persons who look upon these excursions in the valley of dry bones as a barren study, but when we consider what a magic there is in the words, my native land, our fathers, our birthplace, our home, what memories they awaken, and what virtues they evoke, we shall see that there is a "connection between topography and patriotism," between relics and religion. To recall the ages that are gone; to restore down-fallen churches; re-people deserted mansions, and to bid the grave "render back for a moment its tenants to the fond eye of regret," lifts the mind from the mire of materialism up to the spiritual sphere. Finally, in the words of an English antiquary, I can only wish that the excellent parts of those writers, who think slightly of this learning, were not spent upon more frivolous arguments, when by subtleties, quibbles and cavils of controversy, they serve only to weaken Christianity, and (what otherwise would be more pardonable) to expose themselves.

P. SLAUGHTER.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson moved that in receiving this report, the Council express its gratification in listening to it, and returns its thanks to the Historiographer. Carried.

The Rev. Dr. Gibson offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three clergymen and three laymen be appointed, in conjunction with our Bishops, to report to the next Council suggestions in relation to the improvement of the Hymnal of our Church, may secure that important end, and with the endorsement of the Council of this Diocese, be recommended to the committee appointed by the General Convention of 1886, to effect the final revision of that book.

Carried, and the following committee appointed:

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D.,	Mr. William N. Nelson,
" Chas. Minnigerode, D. D.,	" W. W. Old,
" O. A. Kinsolving, D. D.,	" Eugene Davis.

The Rev. Dr. Davis offered the following, which was carried:

Resolved. That the committee just appointed be instructed to consider the expediency of memorializing the General Convention to include the hymns of the Church within the same books with the Book of Common Prayer.

Adjournment.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Committee on Prayer Book Revision, appointed before the General Convention of 1886, be reappointed and directed to report to the next Council.

Mr. C. J. Faulkner offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Council do recommend that the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund make a further appropriation, not exceeding $150, to each of the disabled clergy in the Diocese for the current year, provided the balance of said fund now in their hands be sufficient for that purpose.

Mr. J. R. Ellis offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the President of the Brotherhood be requested to print at once, and circulate among the vestries of the several Parishes of the Diocese, such literature as may be necessary to the proper understanding of the object and purpose and workings of the Brotherhood; and that the President of said Brotherhood be requested to print the report of the Committee on the Brotherhood and forward copies of the same to the vestries of the several Parishes.

The Rev. J. C. Hobson offered the following, which was adopted :

Resolved, That each Convocation be requested to appoint a speaker, who, in connection with one appointed by the Diocesan Missionary Society, shall present the missionary work of the Diocese before the annual meeting of the Council, and that their speeches be limited to ten minutes each.

The Rev. Robb White moved that the Council adjourn after the usual closing exercises. Carried.

The minutes of to-day's session were read and approved.

The Council then united in singing the 315th hymn :

"Blest be the tie that binds,"

and in the recitation of the Apostle's Creed ; prayer was offered by the Assistant Bishop, and the Council adjourned sine die.

T. G. DASHIELL, Secretary.

THOMAS SPENCER, Assistant Secretary.

MISCELLANEOUS.

*Right Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D.,
President of the Board of Trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School:*

During the present session I have had under my instruction the following classes, to-wit : In the Normal Department I have taught the second Latin class and the advanced class in English Grammar and Composition. In the Divinity School classes, I have taught the first Latin class—made up partly of Normal scholars and partly of the Divinity students—and the class in Greek and New Testament Exegesis.

The last-named class has reviewed the Greek Grammar and gone over, with much care, portions of the Gospel of St. Matthew and of St. John.

The progress made by the students has, in the main, been fair and, in some instances, noteworthy.

Respectfully submitted,

F. G. SCOTT.

*Right Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D.,
President of the Board of Trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School:*

I respectfully report that the Divinity School has been in successful operation during the past session. You will see from the reports of Professors Spencer and Scott, as well as from this, that the students are faithful and earnest in their efforts to prepare themselves for the sacred ministry. Their behavior has been excellent.

Six students have been in attendance, five of whom expect ultimately to take Priest's Orders; these are pursuing their academic studies in the Normal School. Three will leave the school in June next.

The Normal School has also prospered. Fifty-two have matriculated during the session. Of these five are also in the Divinity School. Two or more in the Normal School, not now in the Divinity School, hope to take Holy Orders. I have instructed the classes in the Divinity School in Apologetics, Homiletics and Pastoral Theology; and a candidate for Deacon's Orders only in Pinnock's Analysis of the New Testament.

In the Normal School I have given instruction to the Senior Class in the Prayer Book, Church History, and the Theory and Art of Teaching.

The conduct of pupils in the Normal School has been very good.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. GOODWIN, Principal.

Right Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D.,

President of the Board of Trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School.

I respectfully report that during the past session I have taught in the Divinity School classes in the following studies: Hebrew Grammar, Bible History and Introduction, Systematic Theology, Church History, Church Polity, the Prayer Book and the English Bible. The students have done well in their work.

In the Normal School I have taught classes in the following studies: Mental Science, Moral Science, and General History. In these studies the scholars have made fair progress.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

REPORT OF COLORED WORK IN ORANGE COUNTY—

MAY 14, 1888.

The work commenced eight years ago without any nucleus. There are now directly connected with the Mission :

Families,	-	-	-	-	78
Have been baptized,	-	-	-	-	98
Confirmed,	-	-	-	-	57
Apostatized,	-	-	-	-	3
Suspended,	-	-	-	-	6

There are three stations—one in Gordonsville, another nine miles in the country, and the third one four miles from the village; two Parish schools; three Sunday-schools and one night school; three colored teachers, and more than two hundred pupils under church teaching and training.

Many persons are connected with the work who cannot attend the schools.

There is in Gordonsville an excellent building—furnished; and at the distant station a log house, put up by the people, is entirely inadequate to the needs of the station.

REVISED CONSTITUTION
OF THE
IN THE DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA.

As adopted in 1836, and amended in 1840, 1850, 1860, 1864, 1867, 1872 and 1881.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia on the third Wednesday in May every year; but the Council which meets in the year previous to the meeting of the General Convention may have power to appoint the time and place of meeting for the next annual session, and in the event of the existence of an epidemic disease, or any other good cause, rendering it necessary or expedient to alter the place fixed on for any meeting of the Council, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese may change the place, or the time, or both.

ARTICLE II.*

SEC. 1. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop, if there be one, and of the ministers who now are, or may hereafter be, canonically settled in Parishes or churches within this Diocese, Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, Missionaries within this Diocese, and under its ecclesiastical authority, being clergymen of this Church, and canonically connected with this Diocese: Provided, That any ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions shall be members ex officio: Provided further, That no minister under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to a seat in the Council, and no minister shall be entitled to a seat unless he has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the six calendar months preceding.

SEC. 2. The Council shall also be composed of lay members, consisting of one delegate for each Parish or church, chosen by the vestry thereof. Every Parish or church having more than one officiating minister, canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many lay delegates as it has ministers, and in every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants in the Church.

ARTICLE III.

Twenty members of the clerical and twenty of the lay order shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE IV.

In all matters that shall come before Council, the clergy and laity shall deliberate in one body, and the concurrence of a majority shall give validity to any measure; but when five members require it there shall be a vote by orders, and a majority of each order shall be necessary to a decision.

ARTICLE V.

The election of a Bishop in this Diocese shall be made in Council in the following manner: The order of the clergy shall nominate and appoint by ballot some fit and qualified clergyman for that office, and the votes of a majority of that order shall be requisite to constitute a choice; and thereupon such appointment shall be presented to the order of the lay delegates, and be considered by them; and if on a ballot it shall appear that the person so nominated is approved by a majority of the lay order, he shall then be declared to be duly elected.

ARTICLE VI.

The Bishop shall be President of the Council, in which character it shall be his duty to give to the Council annually a general view of the state of the Church; to call special Councils at whatever time and place he shall think necessary, or when required by the Stand-

Constitution.

; Committee; to preserve order during the time of session; to put : question, collect the votes, and declare the decision; and he may iver his sentiments on any subject after it has been discussed ore a vote thereon. The Assistant Bishop, if there be one, shall side in the Council in the absence of the Bishop.

ARTICLE VII.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopal Office, the Council, immediately upon their assembling, shall choose by joint ballot a President from among the order of Priests, who shall remain in office til the next annual Council, or until the next election of a President. He shall perform all duties, and possess all the privileges ove specified; but he shall not call special meetings of the Council unless applied to for that purpose by a majority of the Standing mmittee; and if the Bishop of the Diocese be not present at any eting of the Council, they shall elect, in the manner aforesaid, a sident pro tempore.

ARTICLE VIII.

A Secretary shall be appointed by the Council, who shall continue in office during good behavior. His duty shall be to make notes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into : hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the icerns of the Council which may be in his possession. It shall his duty to notify through the channel of the public papers, as may think proper, the time and place for the meeting of the succeeding Council. The Secretary shall annex to the journals of every ceeding Council a list of the clergy, with all alterations therein oduced in the preceding year by ordinations, deaths, removals, pensions and degradations.

ARTICLE IX.

A Treasurer shall be appointed by the Council, who shall continue office for one year, or until his successor shall be appointed. It ill be his duty to receive and keep safely all money and other property confided to his custody; and he shall disburse and dispose of the same as may be ordered by the Council. He shall annually report to the Council an account showing all money and other property received by him, and the manner in which he has disbursed or disposed of the same.

In case of a vacancy in the office by the death or resignation of the Treasurer, or in case of his misconduct, incapacity, refusal or failure to discharge the duties of his office during the recess of the Council, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese may fill the said vacancy, or remove the said Treasurer, and appoint a Treasurer pro tempore, who shall take into his custody all the money and other property, and all the books and papers belonging to the said office, and discharge the duties thereof until the election of a Treasurer by the Council.

ARTICLE X.*

Each Annual Council shall elect by ballot a Standing Committee, consisting of six members, three clerical and three of the lay order, who shall be communicants of the Church in the Diocese.

ARTICLE XI.

Every Parish within this Diocese shall be entitled to the entire benefit of this Constitution as soon as it shall have signified its ratification thereof, either in writing or by sending a lay delegate to the Council; and such Parish shall thereafter be benefited and bound equally with the other Parishes in this Diocese by every rule and Canon which shall be framed by any Council acting under this Constitution for the government of this Church in ecclesiastical concerns.

ARTICLE XII.

This Constitution shall be unalterable, except in the following manner: A proposition for any change shall be introduced in writing and considered in Council, and if approved of, the same shall be transmitted to the several vestries of the Parishes which shall have ratified this Constitution; and if again approved of in the next ensuing Council by a majority, the change shall then take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS
OF THE
DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA.

Adopted 1849, 1850, 1860, 1867, 1872, 1882 and 1887.

CANON I.

Of the trial of a Clergyman, not being a Bishop.

SECTION 1. The trial of a clergyman, not being a Bishop, shall be on a presentment in writing, specifying with reasonable clearness and certainty as to time, place and circumstance, the crime or misdemeanor, by violation of the canons or otherwise, charged ; the said presentment to be made to the Bishop, either by the Council, or by the vestry of the Parish to which the accused belongs, or by any three presbyters of the Diocese, entitled to seats in the Council; the said vestry, or presbyters, pledging themselves to act as a committee of prosecution. If, however, the presentment be made by the Council, then the Council shall appoint the committee of prosecution and furnish them with such instructions as may be deemed necessary.

SEC. 2. Such presentment being made to the Bishop, and being accompanied by a further statement in writing of the names of the witnesses, and of the purport of their evidence, and by such documentary evidence as may be in their possession, the Bishop shall immediately proceed to the trial, according to the following provisions: He shall nominate from among the clergy entitled to seats in the Council, other than the members of the Standing Committee, eight presbyters, and cause a list of their names and a copy of the presentment to be furnished to the accused, or left at his place of residence. Of the eight presbyters nominated as aforesaid, the accused may choose five, or, in case of his refusal or neglect for twenty days so to do, the Bishop shall select five, and the presbyters so chosen shall constitute a court for the trial of the accused. The Bishop shall also, at the same time, cause at least thirty days' notice of the time and place of the trial to be given, both to the accused and to the parties presenting him, and also to the presbyters nominated as before provided.

Canons.

SEC. 3. The court shall appoint a President and Secretary—the first always from their own body.

SEC. 4. If the accused appear before proceeding to trial, he shall be called on by the court to say whether he is guilty of the offence, or offences, charged against him, and on his neglect or refusal to answer, the plea of not guilty shall be entered for him, and the trial shall proceed: Provided, that for sufficient cause the court may adjourn, from time to time, and place to place: And provided also, that the accused shall, at all times during the trial, have liberty to be present, to produce his testimony, and to make his defence.

SEC. 5. On the request of the accused, or the committee of prosecution, witnesses may be summoned—if before the meeting of the court—by the Bishop; if during the session of the court then by its President. All testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation, administered by some officer authorized by law. In case the testimony of any witness—whose attendance on the trial cannot be obtained—is desired, it shall be lawful for either party, at any time after notice of the presentment is served on the accused, to apply to the court, if in session, or, if not, to the Bishop, who shall thereupon appoint a commissioner to take the deposition of such witness; and such party so desiring to take the deposition shall give to the other party, or some one of them, reasonable notice of the time and place of taking the deposition, accompanying such notice with the interrogatories to be propounded to the witness; whereupon, it shall be lawful for the other party, within six days after such notice, to propound cross-interrogatories, and such interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, if any be propounded, shall be sent to the commissioner, who shall thereupon proceed to take the testimony of such witness, and transmit it under seal to the court. But no deposition shall be read at the trial unless the court have reasonable assurance that the attendance of the witness cannot be procured, or unless both parties shall consent that it may be read.

SEC. 6. The court having deliberately considered the evidence, shall, within ten days after closing the same, declare in a written judgment signed by them, or a majority of them, that the accused is guilty, or not guilty, of the charge or charges, or any of them, laid in the presentment, in the order therein set forth, and also, if guilty, what punishment shall be awarded, which judgment, with all the evidence received, shall be delivered forthwith to the Bishop; whereupon, unless the Bishop see cause to mitigate or remit the punishment, or to grant a new trial, he shall pronounce sentence according to the judgment of the court, and such sentence shall be final. In case a new trial is granted, a new court shall be constituted according to the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. 7. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear before the court, when summoned according to section second of this Canon, and no defence be there made under his authority, the court shall declare him to be in contumacy, and report the same to the Bishop, and sentence of suspension from the ministry shall pass against him for contumacy; but the said sentence shall be reversed by the Bishop, if—within three calendar months—the accused shall tender himself ready, and accordingly appear to take his trial on the presentment; but if he shall not so tender himself before the expiration of the said three months, the sentence of degradation from the ministry for contumacy shall forthwith be pronounced by the Bishop, who shall cause such sentence to be publicly read to the congregations of the Diocese by the respective ministers thereof.

SEC. 8. If at any time the accused shall confess himself guilty of the matters charged in the presentment, or any of them, the court shall proceed to award the punishment, and certify the same, as hereinbefore provided, to the Bishop, who shall, unless he see cause to remit or mitigate the punishment, pronounce the sentence according to the Canons.

SEC. 9. All notices and papers contemplated by this Canon may be served by a summoner, or summoners, appointed by the Bishop, or by the court when the same is in session, and the certificate of any such summoner shall be evidence of the due service of a notice or paper. The delivery of a written notice or paper to a party, or the leaving it at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 10. The accused party may have the privilege of appearing by counsel, in number not more than two, and, in case of the exercise of such privilege, but not otherwise, those presenting shall have the like privilege. If the party accused desire it, the trial shall be in public, and said party shall be entitled to a copy of the evidence if he require it.

SEC. 11. In case of a presentment occurring during a vacancy in the Episcopal Office, such presentment shall be made to the Standing Committee, who shall thereon take such steps as are by this Canon enjoined on the Bishop: Provided, that on receiving the proceedings and judgment of the court, they shall transmit the same to the Bishop of some other Diocese, who shall be requested, and is hereby authorized, to act thereon, as if he were the Bishop of the Diocese, and, if he shall concur in opinion with the court, he shall proceed to pronounce sentence accordingly.

SEC. 12. The expenses of such trial, as also those of the investigating committee, preliminary to a presentment, shall be defrayed by the Treasurer out of the contingent fund by order of the Council.

CANON II.

Of the proceedings in the trial of a Laymen, after expulsion by the Minister from the Holy Communion.

If any person repelled from the Holy Communion shall allege to the Bishop that injustice has been done, or if, notwithstanding he shall have professed himself ready and willing, in truth and sincerity, to comply with the requisitions expressed in the Rubric, in order to be restored to the Holy Communion, his repulsion shall be continued, he may present his complaint in writing to the Bishop, setting forth the grounds thereof, and desiring that he may be restored to the Communion, and then the Bishop, unless he think fit to tore the communicant from the insufficiency of the cause assigned the minister, shall nominate two of the clergy and two of the y, of whom the minister repelling shall select one of the clergy-n, and the communicant one of the laymen; and it shall be the y of the two thus chosen to take without delay the evidence in : case, under oath and in writing, of such witnesses as may be duced by either of the parties, and to certify the same to the hop, who, thereupon, unless for his own satisfaction, or for good ise shown by either of the parties interested, he shall desire fur-r evidence, shall proceed to adjudge the case. If further evidence required, it shall be obtained and certified, either by the same nmmission, or by another appointed in the manner above pre-bid, as the Bishop may direct. And when the evidence is thus cured, the Bishop shall adjudge the case, and shall communicate judgment whenever made to the minister repelling, and to the nmunicant repelled, which judgment shall be final and conclusive: ovided, that in case his judgment shall direct a further continuance the repulsion, it shall nevertheless be subject to all the conditions l provisions of the Rubric.

Canons.

CANON III.

the transfer of Communicants from one Parish or Church to another.

Every communicant removing from one Parish or church to other within this Diocese, and desiring to be enrolled as a communicant thereof, shall present to the minister a certificate of regular nding from the minister, or, if there be no minister, from the ves- of the Parish or church from which the communicant desires to transferred.

CANON IV.

Ministers to be careful in admitting to Holy Communion.

No minister shall enroll any persons as communicants in the Parish congregation under his charge, until he has conversed with them the subject, or unless he shall be satisfied that they have been ular communicants in some other Parish or congregation; nor shall he enroll any one who is known to deny the doctrines of the gospel as generally set forth in the authorized standards of the Church; nor shall he report to the Diocesan Council, as a communicant, any one who has not (without satisfactory reason) communed within the year immediately preceding the annual meeting of the Council.

CANON V.

Communicants to have Family Worship.

It shall be the duty of every communicant in this Church, who is at the head of a family, to live in the daily exercise of family worship.

CANON VI.

The members of this Church to instruct their Families in the principles of Religion.

The members of this Church shall instruct their families, as far as they are able, in the principle of the Christian religion. Parents and sponsors shall be careful to teach their children the solemnity and obligation of their baptismal vow, to cause them to attend the catechetical and other instructions of their minister; and, as soon as they are sufficiently instructed and impressed with the importance and sacredness of their baptismal promise, shall take care that they come to the Bishop to be confirmed by him.

CANON VII.

Of the due celebration of Sunday.

All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, in hearing the Word of God read and taught, in private and public prayer, and in acts of charity, using all sober and godly conversation.

CANON VIII.

Election and Duties of Vestries and Wardens, &c.

SEC. 1. All persons who have attained the age of twenty-one years, have resided in the Parish in which they offer to vote for six months next preceding the election, and are communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church, or regular contributors to the charges of the Parish, shall be entitled to vote at the election of vestrymen for such Parish.

SEC. 2. The election of vestrymen shall be held on Easter Monday; or in case no election be held on that day, on such other day as shall be designated in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The election shall be held at the Parish church, or some place of worship, if there be one; if not, at such other place within the Parish as shall be designated in the manner hereinafter provided. The voting shall be by ballot. The number of persons to be voted for by each elector shall not be less than three, nor more than twelve, and shall be fixed—where the election is the first in a new Parish—by the Council on its admission into the Diocese, or, before the election commences, by a majority of the qualified electors who shall have assembled to vote at such election; or, in case the election be in an organized Parish, the number to be voted for shall be the same that constituted the former vestry, unless such number be changed in like manner by a majority of the qualified electors so assembled. Only male persons shall be eligible to the office of vestrymen; in other respects the qualifications of vestrymen shall be the same as those prescribed for voters. The persons chosen by a majority of the votes cast at such election, together with the minister in charge of the Parish, if there be one, shall constitute the vestry of the Parish, and they shall continue in office until their successors are elected, and qualify as hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 3. In case there be in a Parish congregations not exceeding four in number, apart from each other, but not constituting independent cures, a separate election shall be held for each congregation at its usual place of worship, or, if there be none, at such other place as shall be designated in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The qualified electors of such congregation shall, in the manner prescribed by this Canon, elect three persons, who shall be vestrymen of the Parish. The vestrymen chosen for such congregation shall, together with the minister in charge thereof, be the constituted authorities of such congregation, and shall manage and control the affairs of the same, so far as they pertain alone to the congregation, and not to the Parish at large. The vestrymen chosen by such congregations in the same Parish shall, together with the minister in charge thereof, be the constituted authorities of the Parish, as its vestry, and shall manage and control the affairs of the Parish, either in general meeting, a majority of the whole number of vestrymen in the Parish being present, or in case such meeting be impracticable, or in the opinion of the minister in charge too inconvenient, any matter concurred in by a majority of the vestrymen of the respective congregations, and duly recorded by the register of the Parish, shall be deemed to be the act of the vestry of the Parish. But in no event shall the aggregate number of such vestrymen exceed twelve.

SEC. 4. If there be no Parish church or place of regular worship for the Parish or congregation, as the case may be, the minister in charge of the same, or other person or persons named in the next succeeding section, shall have authority to appoint the place within the Parish at which such election shall be held. If such place of voting be so fixed before Easter Monday, the same notice of the time and place of election shall be required as in the next succeeding election.

SEC. 5. If no such election be held on Easter Monday, the same may be held on any day thereafter (except Sunday), to be fixed by the minister in charge, or if there be none, by one of the wardens, or by two vestrymen, or, if there be none, by three members of the congregation. Of the time and place of such special election, due notice shall be given during the services held at the Parish church or place of worship on the two Sundays next preceding such special election; or in case no such services be held, by posting copies of such notice for two weeks next preceding such special election at the front door of the Parish church or place of worship; or, in case there be none, at two or more public places in the Parish.

SEC. 6. The vestry shall appoint three persons, of whom not more than two members shall be of their own body, to act as judges, to conduct and superintend such elections. In case no such judges be appointed, the members of the vestry present shall act as judges of election; and in case none of the vestry be present, or if present, fail to act, the electors may choose three of their number to act as such judges. The judges of election shall judge of the qualification of the voters, and of those elected as vestrymen.

SEC. 7. As soon as may be after such election, the persons chosen to act as vestrymen shall at such time and place as the minister shall appoint, or as shall otherwise be designated, assemble and proceed to organize the vestry. The register and treasurer of the former vestry shall attend. The proceedings shall be opened with one or more collects and the Lord's prayer by the minister in charge, or in his absence by one of the wardens, or any other member who may be requested to preside over the meeting.

SEC. 8. Every person chosen a vestryman, shall, before he acts as such, subscribe the following declaration and promise : " I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation ; and I do yield my hearty assent and approbation to the doctrines, worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in these United States; and I promise that I will faithfully execute the office of vestryman of ——— Parish, or church, in ——— county, according to my best knowledge and skill." No person shall act or vote as vestryman until he has subscribed this declaration and promise.

SEC. 9. The vestry shall proceed to elect two wardens, a register and a treasurer, who shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The wardens must be communicants and members of the vestry.

SEC. 10. Vacancies occurring in the vestry shall be filled by a vote of the remaining members, and a majority of those who have qualified shall constitute a quorum. The Rector shall preside at all meetings when present, and be entitled to give the casting vote in case of a tie, when he is not personally interested. All vestry meetings shall be subject to his call, and in case he fails, at the request of two vestrymen, to call a meeting, such vestrymen, if they deem it necessary, may themselves call a meeting.

Duties.

SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of the vestry to determine upon and elect a Rector ; to co-operate with him in gathering souls into the fold of Christ ; to see that he be properly supported ; that his salary be paid with regularity and punctuality ; to make and execute all contracts for the erection, furnishing and preserving the church edifice and other church property ; to regulate the use of the Parish graveyard ; to employ an organist, and otherwise provide for sacred music, subject to the control of the Rector, and generally as the constituted agents of the Parish or congregation to transact all its temporal business.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the wardens to keep watch over the church property ; to see that it is duly prepared for every occasion of public worship ; to see that the sexton and other employees properly discharge their duties ; to collect the offerings of the people ; to take charge of the font and communion plate ; to provide out of the Parish funds, under the direction of the vestry, a sufficient supply of vestments and books to be used in public worship, and also the elements for each celebration of the Holy Communion ; to attend to the accommodation of the congregation with seats, and to maintain order and decorum in the time of public worship.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the register of the vestry to take charge of all Parish records ; to keep correct entries of all proceedings of the vestry, and when there shall be no Rector, to enter upon the Church register usually kept by the Rector, all baptisms, specifying the Christian and surnames of the parents, with the name and date of birth and baptism of the person baptized ; also all marriages, deaths and funerals, with dates and names of parties, and in like manner all confirmations administered in, and communicants lost or gained by the Parish, and furnish a report of the same to the annual Councils of the Diocese.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of all moneys, except communion alms and other special offerings, and to disburse the same under the direction of the vestry, and to make such reports to the Council as are required by its orders. The term " Parish," wherever it occurs in this Canon, shall be interpreted also to mean church or congregation, wherever such a church or congregation is entitled to a separate vestry, unless where the context requires a more restricted construction.

Canons.

CANON IX.

Concerning Exceptions to the foregoing Canon.

Whereas, the preceding Canon, which directs the manner of choosing vestrymen in the several Parishes, is not applicable to the case of churches built and supported by voluntary associations of individuals; and it is proper that those who hold the sole property of a particular church—as in the case of the Monumental Church, Richmond, and in all similar cases—should provide for its care and management, the choice of vestrymen shall be made by the pew-holders of the respective churches, conforming, as to the time of appointment and manner of qualifying the vestrymen, to the regulations prescribed by the eighth Canon.

CANON X.

Of the Division of Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever the members of the church, residing in a particular portion of a Parish, shall desire to separate from the Parish of which they form a part, it shall be lawful for them to assemble, after public notice given in the church or place of public worship, or posted upon the door of the same, and appoint a committee to take such measures as may be necessary.

SEC. 2. The committee thus appointed shall give to the Bishop and to the majority of the vestry (if there be one) of the Parish from which they desire to be separated, a formal notice of their intention to apply for such purpose, which notice shall contain a description of the proposed line or lines of division, and shall be sent to the Bishop and said vestry at least three months before the meeting of the Council to which the application shall be made.

SEC. 3. Said application shall be made in the form of a petition to the Council, and shall set forth the considerations which are supposed to render the division desirable; whereupon the Council may, if they deem it expedient, proceed to divide said Parish, and to constitute the portion thereof applying for separation a new Parish, with all the rights and privileges of other Parishes of this Diocese.

Canons.

SEC. 4. As soon after the adjournment of the Council as may be practicable, the committee aforesaid shall give at least two weeks' notice to the members of the church, residing in the new Parish, to assemble for the election of a vestry, which election shall be conducted according to the directions contained in Canon VIII.

SEC. 5. The committee aforesaid, or a majority of those who may attend, shall judge of the qualification of voters, and of the qualification of persons proposed to be elected, and of the election of vestrymen; and those persons whom said committee shall declare to be duly elected, shall be the vestry of said Parish until the election and qualification of the succeeding vestry.

CANON XI.

Of the Formation of New Congregations.

When any number of persons belonging to any Parish or congregation, sufficient to build a house of worship and provide for the support of a minister, shall choose to separate from the Parish or congregation of which they have hitherto been a part, they may proceed according to the directions given in Canon X, except that in this case the direction as to a line or lines of division is inapplicable. The Council may, on such petition, constitute the applicants a separate congregation, and authorize, by special enactment, such peculiar provisions as to the right of suffrage, the employment of a minister or ministers, and the manner of holding and managing the property of such congregation, as they may propose, and the Council deem expedient: Provided, That the time of electing and the manner of qualifying vestrymen shall always be conformed to the regulation prescribed in Canon VIII.

CANON XII.

Of Mission Churches.

SEC. 1. When any number of persons belonging to any Parish or congregation desire a separate and independent organization, but cannot comply with the requirements of the Canon in regard to the formation of new congregations, they may, until they are so able, proceed to organize a Mission Church upon the following conditions:

They must obtain the approval of the vestry of the Parish to which they belonged, and if there be two or more vestries in the Parish they must have the consent of a majority of the same.

They must have the approval of the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese.

They may have their own vestry and officers, whose manner of election and whose duties shall be according to the provisions of these Canons in regard to the election and duties of other vestries, except that they shall have no representation in the Council of the Diocese, and shall not call a minister without the approval of the ecclesiastical authority.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the vestry of a church organized under this Canon to give notice of the same to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Diocese, and a list of Mission Churches so organized shall be published annually in the JOURNAL.

CANON XIII.

Of Colored Mission Churches.

SEC. 1. The colored people of Virginia, who are, or may hereafter be, connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, shall constitute a Missionary jurisdiction of the Diocese.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful to organize Mission Churches or congregations, composed exclusively of colored persons, within the limits of any already existing Parish, subject to the same conditions and regulations as are other Mission Churches (see Canon XII), and specially those of this Canon.

SEC. 3. Colored churches and congregations, organized as above provided, may be associated with other churches similarly constituted in convocations, such convocations to consist of as many congregations as may be determined by the ecclesiastical authority.

A General Convocation, to be composed of two clerical and two lay deputies from each local convocation, may be held at such time and place as may be designated by the Bishop as to the first meeting, and afterwards by the General Convocation itself, to be presided over by the Bishop or Assistant Bishop, with power to consult and devise measures for their common welfare, which measures shall take effect when approved by the Council of the Diocese.

SEC. 4. Colored congregations, constituted as above provided, may acquire and hold property of their own, as by law provided, but cannot come into possession of the property of any white congregation, except by transfer, under the laws of the State of Virginia; nor shall any white congregation come into possession of the property of any colored congregation except by like transfer.

SEC. 5. There may be appointed by the Bishop one or more Presbyters, who shall have general supervision of the colored churches and congregations within a prescribed district, whose duty it shall be to preside at meetings of convocation; to administer the Lord's Supper for colored deacons; to advise and aid such colored deacons, and when desired by themselves, colored Presbyters also, in preparing classes for confirmation, and in general to discharge such other duties as may be assigned by the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Evidence of the Appointment of Lay Delegates to the Council.

The appointment of lay delegates to the Council of this Diocese shall be certified by the rector, register, or warden of the proper Parish or church, in duplicate, and said certificate shall be in form as follows:

"This is to certify that at a meeting of the Vestry (or Trustees, as the case may be) of ——— Parish or Church), in ——— county, held on the ——— day of ———, A. B., who is a communicant in said Parish or Church was appointed a lay delegate to represent the same in the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, to be holden on the ——— day of ———, in the year of our Lord ———.

"A. B. Rector.

"C. D. Register, or Church Warden."

Canons.

The original credential of lay delegate shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Council, and the duplicate delivered to the delegate-elect. The Secretary shall make out a roll and call the names of all certified to him as duly and canonically elected. The President of the Council shall then appoint a committee, to be composed of four clerical and three lay delegates, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the lay delegates, and who shall report the names of those entitled to seats; but until said report shall be received and adopted, no business shall be considered by the Council.

Should doubt arise as to the right of any lay delegate to his seat, the matter shall be referred to the Committee on Elections for examination and report.

CANON XV.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. Any vacancy occurring by death, or otherwise, in the Standing Committee, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the remaining clerical members and lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop, as regards discipline, except the pronouncing sentence of suspension, deposition or degradation from the ministry, shall belong to, and be performed by, the Standing Committee.

SEC. 3. The record of all the proceedings, on a presentment of a clergyman or layman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, before every stated meeting of the General Convention, to draft, with the advice and approbation of the Bishop, a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, to be presented to the General Convention.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, at every meeting of the Council, to submit, in addition to the report of their proceedings, the documents also which have been laid before them during the year.

Canons.

CANON XVI.

A List to be made of Ministers in this Diocese.

SEC. 1. Within one week before every stated meeting of the Council of this Diocese, the Bishop, or, if there be no Bishop, the Standing Committee, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church, canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective cures, or of their stations as missionaries, or of the colleges, academies, or other seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, or in regard to those who have no cure, or are not engaged in missions or institutions of learning—as above, their places of residence only. And such list, corrected as hereinafter mentioned, shall be laid before the Council on the first day of meeting, and the names of the clerical members called therefrom, and appended to the journal, and shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the General Convention.

SEC. 2. The list of the clergy of this Diocese, so prepared by the Bishop or Standing Committee, and annexed according to the changes which may occur, whether by death, ordination, discipline, or canonical removals from or admission into this Diocese, shall be evidence of a clergyman's having a cure or mission, or engagement in a seminary of learning, and no clergyman, while suspended from the ministry, shall have a place on said list.

SEC. 3. The right of any clergyman to a seat in the Council shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Constitution and Canons by the Council itself, whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the clergy to attend regularly at the meeting of every Council. At the opening of the Council their names shall be called over and absentees noted, and at the ensuing stated Council they shall be required to give excuses for their absence.

CANON XVII.

Respecting the Property of the Church.

The vestries respectively shall hold all glebes, lands, parsonage uses, churches, books, plate or other property now belonging or hereafter accruing to the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, as trustees for the benefit of the Parish or church, whose use the same were or shall hereafter be purchased or otherwise obtained; and may improve, demise, or otherwise dispose of the lands or houses allowed for the minister's habitation or use with the minister's consent; and if there be no minister, with the consent of the Bishop; or, in case there be no minister, and the Episcopal Office be vacant, then not without the consent of the Standing Committee. The vestry may also use, improve, or dispose of all personal property, and the produce, rents and profits of lands and houses (not appropriated for the occupancy and use of the minister) belonging to the church, in repairing the church and parsonage house for the benefit of the respective Parishes or churches, and may make such rules and orders for managing the affairs and temporal concerns of their respective churches and Parishes as they shall think most conducive to their interest and prosperity. They shall have the sole power of directing the payment of money belonging to the respective churches and Parishes, and appoint a clerk, treasurer and collector when necessary; all which proceedings shall be entered in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose. But when there be trustees under the act of the Legislature, passed February 3d, 42, authorized to hold real property, such real property shall not be subject to the provisions of this Canon.

CANON XVIII.

Of Church Property for which there are no Trustees.

The Council shall annually elect a Standing Committee, to consist of two clergymen and three laymen, whose duty it shall be to claim and on behalf of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, all property, real and personal, belonging to said church or any Parish or congregation thereof, whether said Parish or congregation has been disbanded or not, as to which there are no duly constituted trustees in whom is vested the legal title thereto.

The said Committee shall use all due diligence, by proper legal steps or otherwise, to secure such property to the use and benefit of the said Church, or of the proper Parish or Congregation thereof, and to that end the members of said Committee, or the persons designated by them, are hereby nominated without further action of the Council, to the respective courts to which said Committee may apply, as the trustees for any such property so to be claimed by said Committee.

When any such property shall be recovered by said Committee, it shall be held by the trustees appointed for the use and benefit of this Church, or the Parish or Congregation properly entitled thereto.

CANON XIX.

Offenders to be admonished or repelled from the Lord's Table.

Any member of the Church, being a communicant thereof, conducting himself or herself in a manner unworthy of a Christian, ought to be admonished or repelled from the Lord's Table by the minister of the Parish or Church, according to the Rubric; and gaming, attendance on horse-racing and theatrical amusements, witnessing immodest and licentious exhibition or shows, attending public balls, habitual neglect of public worship, a neglect of the Holy Communion, or a denial of the doctrines of the Gospel, as generally set forth in the authorized standards of the Church, are offences for which discipline should be exercised. This enumeration, however, shall not be construed to include all the subjects of discipline in the Church, and in cases where it may be deemed expedient by the minister, or may be requested by the accused, the Church wardens, or either of them, if communicants, shall be summoned to assist the minister in ascertaining the facts of the case: Provided, that if such warden or wardens shall fail or refuse to act within ten days, the minister shall proceed to act under the Rubrics of this Church.

CANON XX.

Proceedings for the Expenses of the Diocese.

The vestry of each Parish or Church shall, at every annual Council, pay to the Treasurer such sums as may be apportioned to them respectively, for the purpose of defraying such expenses as may be authorized by the Council.

Canons.

CANON XXI.

Concerning altering or adding to the Canons of the Church.

No proposed alteration or addition to the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Council, unless at least one day's previous notice be given in open Council, nor until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a committee of at least two presbyters and two laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted during the same Council if two-thirds of the members shall not concur therein; but if the majority be less than two-thirds, it shall lie over for consideration until the next Annual Council.

CANON XXII.

All the former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

ORGANIZATION.

- 1st. The Council shall be opened each day with prayer.
- 2d. After the call to order, no member shall remain standing, nor afterward stand except to address the chair.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

- 1st. After the organization of the Council, the following order of business shall be observed :

The appointment of a Treasurer pro tempore, when the Treasurer is absent.

The adoption of rules of order.

The reading of the journal of the preceding day.

The reading of pastoral address.

The appointment of committees.

Report of standing committees.

Report of special committees.

Unfinished business.

- 2d. There shall be appointed by the President, not later than the second day of the Council, unless otherwise directed, the following standing committees, to consist of an equal number of each order :

A Committee on the State of the Church, to whom shall be referred the address of the Bishop on the opening of the Council.

A Committee on the Fund for the Support of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen.

A Committee on the Episcopal Fund.

A Committee on the Brotherhood.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Disabled Clergy Fund.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Bruce Fund.

A Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Missionary Society.

A Committee on Parochial Reports.

A Committee on the Admission of New Parishes.

A Committee on Election.

Rules of Order.

A Committee on Finance, consisting of laymen.

A Committee on Clerical Support, consisting of ten laymen.

A Committee on Sunday Schools.

3d. Immediately after the reading of the Bishops' Addresses, the Council shall proceed to elect the Standing Committee of the Diocese, the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society, and such other Committees as are necessary for the transaction of the business of the Diocese until the next annual meeting of the Council.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

1st. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President, and if in writing be read by the Secretary, before debate.

2d. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in possession of the Council, but may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision, with the consent of the second.

3d. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the President or any member require it.

4th. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under color of amendment as a substitute for the motion or proposition under debate.

5th. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, to commit or to amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order enumerated.

6th. The previous question shall be admitted only when demanded by a majority of the members present—it shall be in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" and until decided, all debate and amendment are precluded.

7th. A motion to adjourn, or to lay on the table, shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

8th. When a member desires to speak in debate, or present any matter to the Council, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personality.

9th. If any member transgress the rules of the Council, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. If the ruling of the President be appealed from, the Council shall decide the appeal without debate.

Rules of Order.

10th. When two or more members rise at once, the President shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

11th. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, without leave of the Council.

12th. The vote on all questions shall be taken by ayes and noes, whenever seven members require it.

13th. Any member may call for the division of the question where the sense will admit of it, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

14th. Every member who may be in the house when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Council, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

15th. No member shall vote upon a question in the decision of which he is immediately and personally interested.

16th. Upon a division and count of the Council on any question, no member shall be counted who is not within the limits assigned as seats to the members.

17th. When a question has been decided by the Council or postponed indefinitely, it may be reconsidered upon motion made by a member voting in the majority : provided, such motion be made on the same or next succeeding day of the session.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1st. No member shall absent himself from the meetings of the Council without leave unless he be sick or unable to attend.

2d. The President shall, at his discretion, select suitable seats without the limits of those allotted to the use of the members, which shall be appropriated to the accommodation of visiting clergymen and candidates for orders who may be invited by the Rector or wardens of the church in which the meetings of the Council are held under the direction of the President and Council.

3d. No spectators shall, during the daily sessions of the Council, be admitted above or within the pews allotted to the members, and the Rector and wardens of the church in which the sessions of the Council are held are directed to see that this rule is enforced.

4th. No rule of order shall be suspended except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

These delegates shall have the privileges of the floor of the Council, and the right to vote on all matters affecting the Convention.

Report of Committee on Church Investments.

The Council may grant to the Convention such additional privileges as may be expedient and equitable.

The proposed Canon was referred to the following committee:

Rev. R. A. Goodwin,
" B. D. Tucker,
" H. B. Lee,

Mr. W. H. Taylor,
" F. H. McGuire,
" Mann Page.

Rev. H. M. Jackson presented a petition of All Saints' Church, Richmond, for admission to the Council, which was referred to the Committee on New Parishes.

Rev. J. B. Newton offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church :

Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia earnestly protests against the adoption by the General Convention of the Report of the Committee on the Hymnal in its present form, and especially against the rejection of so many of the hymns which, for generations past, have been the joy and comfort of Christian hearts.

On motion of Rev. T. G. Dashiell, the amendment to Article X of the Constitution, proposed at the last Council, was adopted by this Council, so that Article X, as amended, reads as follows :

" Each Annual Council shall elect by ballot a Standing Committee, consisting of six members, three clerical and three of the lay order, who shall be communicants of the Church in the Diocese, and who shall continue in office until their successors shall be appointed."

Mr. Taylor Scott read the Report of the Committee on Church Investments. Report received and resolution adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH INVESTMENTS.

The committee appointed at the last Council to examine the trust funds of the Diocese and to report to the Council how the said funds have been invested, etc., would submit the following : The committee met in the State Bank, Richmond, June 8th, 1888, Rev. T. G. Dashiell was in the chair, and the Rev. J. B. Funsten was chosen Secretary. Mr. R. Taylor Scott, who had been requested by the Chairman to stop in Alexandria on his way from Warrenton to Richmond, and to make examination into the Episcopal Fund, made report that he had attended to the duty, and that he had found the report made by the Treasurer, Colonel Herbert, to be in every particular conformed to the report made on page 123 of the JOURNAL of 1888. The investments are made by the Treasurer. They are held by the Trustees named on page 5 of the Journal of 1888. The securities are kept in a box in the First National Bank of Alexandria, and are properly marked.

 Report of Committee on Church Investments.

A sub-committee, consisting of the Rev. H. M. Jackson, Messrs. Joseph R. Anderson and R. Taylor Scott, then examined the securities of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund. Mr. Mayo, the Treasurer, was present, and gave the committee valuable assistance and information.

The examination showed investments and cash amounting in par value to $25,328.27 as per report, JOURNAL 1888, page 122, and having an estimated present value of $27,593.27. The investments are made by a Committee of the Board of Managers; they are held by the Trustees named on page 5, JOURNAL 1888; are first-class securities, and are kept in a box in the State Bank. They are carefully examined, and a list made of them by a Special Committee of the Board at its annual meeting immediately before the meeting of the Council.

The income consists of interest upon the securities and collections from the churches, and disbursed by the Board at its annual meeting in May of each year.

The securities of the Bruce Fund were then placed in the hands of the sub-committee by the Bishop, who attended at their request, and gave a history of the fund, and stated how its income was applied.

The investments "first-class" are held by the Bishop and Mr. William M. Hill, and are kept in the State Bank. The sub-committee ascertain the report concerning the fund on pages 116-117 of the JOURNAL of 1888, to be correct in every particular.

The securities of the Disabled Clergy Fund were subsequently examined by the Rev. Joshua Peterkin, Rev. J. B. Funsten and Rev. T. G. Dashiell.

The report to the last Council stated the assets to be $19,000 in bonds and $433.33 in cash. Some of the investments—Richmond City Bonds—matured last July and were paid by the city to the trustees. This necessitated a change in the investments, but the amount in the hands of the trustees aggregates what was reported to the Council in May, 1888. The securities all are first-class and held by trustees and kept in the State Bank.

Disbursements have been made by the Treasurers, acting under orders passed by the Council in the year 1856. This order reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the appropriations be confined to the relief or aid of disabled clergymen of our own Diocese, and such as have labored in the same office therein for at least three years before the disability shall have occurred, and no appropriation exceeding $250 shall be made in any year to any one individual."

The original Board of Trustees did not all reside in Richmond. The Committee Appointed to Control Invested Funds of the Diocese.

Treasurers therefore did not summon them to meet in Richmond when any case of pressing necessity arose, but in emergencies would act alone under the general instructions referred to—both in making investments and in assisting beneficiaries.

It is within the power of members of this committee to bear testimony to the judgment and kindness with which the Treasurers have acted toward some of our needy and now deceased brethren.

The committee think it a matter of importance that this Fund should hereafter be managed by a board whose members live near each other; that the board should meet when the disbursements are made; that the investments be made by the board, or a sub-committee of the same, and the securities examined and listed at least once a year.

The committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That a clergyman be added to the Board of Trustees of the Fund for Relief of the Disabled Clergy.

Respectfully submitted,

T. G. DASHIELL,
for the Committee.

Rev. F. F. Reese offered the following:

Resolved, That a Committee of two Clergymen and three Laymen be appointed to consider the expediency of appointing one or more Boards of Trustees, to be legally incorporated for the purpose of holding, subject to the direction and control of the Diocesan Council, all invested funds now existing, or hereafter to be accumulated, for the benefit of the various Church charities of the Diocese.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed:

Rev. F. F. Reese,
“ B. D. Tucker,

Mr. W. W. Old,
“ W. B. Martin,
Mr. R. H. Baker.

Mr. W. B. Martin offered the following:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Fund for Disabled Clergy be directed to expend each year, if necessary, all amounts received by them for the Disabled Clergy, and the interest on investments held by them.

Rev. John K. Mason moved to limit the grant in any case from the Fund to four hundred dollars.

Dr. Nelson's Sermon Ordered to be Printed.

Mr. Woolnough offered the following :

Resolved, That the distribution of the income, or other property of the Funds for the relief of the Disabled Clergy and of the Widows and Orphans, be made annually by this Council ; and that to assist this Council a committee or committees be appointed each year by the Bishop, who shall investigate all cases deserving relief, and report each year to this Council.

On motion of Rev. H. M. Jackson the above resolutions were referred to a Special Committee, consisting of the following :

Rev. H. M. Jackson,
" John K. Mason,

Mr. W. B. Martin,
" W. W. Old,

On motion of Rev. T. M. Carson, the motion by which the hours of the Council's sessions were adopted was re-considered,

It was then resolved that the Council should assemble daily for Divine service at 9:30 A. M., continuing in session until 2 P. M., then adjourning until 4 P. M.

The Rev. T. G. Dashiell offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Council requests of the Rev. Dr. Nelson a copy of his sermon at the opening of the Council, that the same may be distributed throughout the Diocese.

Resolved, That 5,000 copies of the same be printed for this purpose.

The Council then adjourned to Thursday at 9:30 A. M.

THURSDAY, May 16th, 1889.

The Council assembled for divine service at 9:30 A. M. Morning prayer was read by Rev. H. B. Lee. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. B. Kinsolving on the 14th verse of the 8th chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The following clergy, absent at roll-call yesterday, appeared to-day and took their seats :

The Bishop then read his Annual Address :

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN :

It is certainly with very great pleasure and, I trust, with sincere gratitude to the Giver of all good, that I am permitted to unite with you in this, our Ninety-fourth Annual Council. The sickness which detained me from your last meeting continued through the whole summer and fall, so that I have but a brief account to give of work done during the past year.

Commencing with a visit to the Theological Seminary, I spent several days, as requested by the Board of Trustees, instructing the senior class in the rubrics and teaching of the Prayer Book, and while there, February 17th, 1889, preached in the chapel and confirmed sixteen.

February 24.—In St. Paul's Church, Petersburg, confirmed fifteen white and one colored ; and in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Blandford, confirmed twelve.

March 13.—Christ Church, Richmond, confirmed sixteen.

March 13.—St. Mark's, Richmond, confirmed eight.

March 10.—Moore Memorial, Richmond.

March 10.—St. James', Richmond, confirmed thirteen.

Bishop's Report.

March 17.—St. Paul's, Richmond, confirmed twenty-six, one of whom was from St. James.

March 17.—Monumental, Richmond, confirmed nineteen.

March 24.—St. Andrew's, Richmond, confirmed twelve.

March 24.—Grace, Richmond, confirmed twenty-four, one being from the Monumental.

March 31.—St. John's, Richmond, confirmed forty, and in Weddell Memorial Chapel, of the same church, confirmed six.

April 3.—Grace, Petersburg, confirmed twenty-six; and in St. Stephen's (colored), thirteen.

April 6.—St. Thomas', Berkley, confirmed eleven; and at night in St. Paul's Chapel, nine.

April 7.—Confirmed twenty in St. Paul's; and ten in Grace (colored), Norfolk.

April 8.—In Christ Church, Norfolk, confirmed twenty-three; in St. Peter's, fifteen; and in St. Luke's, forty-eight, of whom three were from St. Paul's, three from Ascension, Atlantic City, a mission of St. Paul's, and one from Grace (colored).

April 9.—Confirmed in St. John's, Portsmouth, four, and in Trinity, twelve.

April 14.—In St. George's, Fredericksburg, confirmed twelve white and one colored; and in Trinity, confirmed thirteen.

April 15.—Christ Church, Alexandria, confirmed nine.

April 16.—St. Paul's Church, Alexandria, confirmed seven; and Grace, twenty-five.

April 18.—Emmanuel, Pittsylvania, confirmed eight.

April 19.—St. Andrew's, Pittsylvania, confirmed eighteen.

April 20.—Christ, Pittsylvania, confirmed one.

April 21.—Easter-day I spent in Danville, assisting the venerable Rector of the Epiphany in the services, morning and night, and confirming twelve.

April 22.—St. Paul's, Lynchburg, confirmed thirty-four, of whom eight were from Amherst Parish, Rev. J. P. Lawrence, April 23.—In the morning preached in the Church of the Epiphany, Lynchburg, and at night in Grace Memorial, and confirmed seven, one being from Emmanuel, Pittsylvania.

April 24.—John's Memorial, Farmville, confirmed five.

April 28.—Christ Church, Charlottesville, confirmed twenty-one.

May 5.—Emmanuel, Henrico, confirmed eight.

Bishop's Report.

May 8.—St. Andrew's, Sussex county, confirmed six.

May 12.—Meade Memorial, Manchester, confirmed fourteen.

May 12.—Christ Church, Richmond, confirmed nine.

The following persons have been received as

CLERICAL CHANGES WITHIN THE DIOCESE.

Rev. Alexander Galt from St. John's and Merchant's Hope Churches, Prince George county, to Roanoke Parish, Halifax; Rev. E. L. Goodwin from Green Springs Parish, Louisa, and Walker's, Albemarle, to Montgomery Parish and county; Rev. R. A. Goodwin has resigned St. Stephen's Church (colored), Petersburg; Rev. A. Jaeger, D. D., Moore Parish, Campbell, and Rev. C. Minnigerode, D. D., St. Paul's Church, Richmond; Rev. William C. Latané has exchanged Washington Parish, Westmoreland, for Leeds Parish, Fauquier; Rev. J. J. Norwood has resigned Franklin Parish, Franklin county, and accepted the office of Evangelist; Rev. Alexander Overby has left Cornwall Parish, Charlotte, and taken charge of Nottoway Parish, Nottoway; Rev. Thomas C. Page has exchanged Overwharton Parish, Stafford, for Bruton Parish, Williamsburg; Rev. William T. Roberts, St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper, for South-Farnham, Essex; Rev. F. G. Scott, St. John's Church, Petersburg, for Christ Church, Gordonsville; Rev. S. S. Ware, St. Paul's Church, Loudoun, for St. Mary's Parish, Caroline; Rev. John C. Ambler, ordained Deacon last June, is laboring in Loudoun county; Rev. Charles Gauss in Tazewell; Rev. John P. Tyler in Charles City; Rev. B. F. Lewis in Mecklenburg, and Rev. B. B. Tyler in Hampton. (The last two are colored.)

MINISTERS DECEASED.

Three of our brethren of the clergy have died during the past year—Rev. John A. Wharton, Rector of Lee Parish, June 20th, 1888, in the 86th year of his age. He was quite a remarkable man, and his career a peculiar one. His whole life was passed in his native county and amongst his own people. After being a lawyer for a number of years, he was ordained a Deacon, and took charge of St. John's Church, Liberty, still continuing to practice his profession. A few years later he was admitted to Priest's orders, and was subsequently made Judge of his County Court, but whether at the bar or on the bench he never compromised his ministerial character, and always maintained a good report of them that were without. He continued to work on to the last, being earnest, faithful and abundant in labors for the advancement of the interests of religion and of his beloved Church. He now rests from his labors, but his works do follow him.

Bishop's Report.

1888, August 13, Rev. Mack F. Nelson, a colored Deacon, died in charge of St. Philip's Church, Richmond, in the 26th year of his age. His health had been feeble since his ordination, which prevented him from making full proof of his ministry, but he was a good man, and gave promise of usefulness had his life been spared.

1889, May 5.—Rev. Davis M. Wood, Rector of Nelson Parish, Nelson county, after officiating at one of his churches in the morning, was on his way to an afternoon service at another, when, in an instant, his lifeless body fell from his horse to the ground, and his spirit returned to God who gave it. But it was a good time and place for such a consecrated man to die. Mr. Wood was ordained in June, 1881, and at once offered himself for Foreign Missionary work, but was not accepted because of the feeble state of his health. After laboring for a short time in Charlotte, and then in Roanoke, he removed to Nelson county, where, by his lovely Christian character and conduct and his earnest devotion to the work of the ministry, he won the confidence and affection of all his people. His departure from amongst us cannot but be mourned, not only by his own family and flock, but by all his brethren throughout the Diocese.

I mention in this connection the death, in Lexington, Virginia, August 31st, 1888, of William Charles Ludwig, in the 25th year of his age, a very lovely Christian character, and one of our most promising candidates for Holy Orders.

The Council has never taken any action, I believe, on the death of a Minister or Layman of the Diocese, and this good custom I trust will not be broken. But it may not be amiss to remind you that the long familiar person and voice of Hon. Hugh W. Sheffey, of Trinity Church, Staunton, will no more be seen and heard amongst us, he having been called to give up his stewardship on the 8th day of April last. How greatly will his faithful and useful services be missed in his own Parish, in the Council of the Diocese and in our General Convention. We may all well pray that God will raise up some

CHURCHES CONSECRATED.

1889, March 31.—Weddell Memorial Chapel, a very pretty and comfortable building in Fulton, a neglected suburb of the city of Richmond, erected by the indefatigable Rector (Rev. Lewis William Burton) and congregation of St. John's Church.

May 5—Chapel of the Good Shepherd, a very nice and comfortable church for colored people, also belonging to St. John's, Richmond. This chapel is the outgrowth of a Sunday-school commenced by a devoted lady in her kitchen, who now has the happiness of seeing a flourishing school and the church services regularly conducted in a suitable and sacred building.

May 12—Christ Church, Richmond, Rev. James B. Funsten, Rector. This church has had an eventful history. Originally purchased from the Presbyterians, the building was twice destroyed by fire and twice the ground was sold and the congregation removed to another part of the city. In their present beautiful and commodious edifice, with its fine lecture-room, we may hope the faithful pastor and his flock have found a permanent home.

The Richmond City Missionary Society offered to furnish the salary for a second Evangelist or General Missionary, and Rev. J. J. Norwood accepted an appointment to that important office. Since the first of January he and Rev. E. Meade have both been doing faithful and efficient service in the vacant Parishes of the Diocese.

I have performed several trusts which were committed to me by the last Council, a record of which may be found on the pages of its JOURNAL.

I think it will appear from the Parochial Reports, and from those of your Treasurer and of our various charitable and educational institutions, that the Diocese is enjoying such a measure of prosperity as should fill our hearts with gratitude to God and move us to consecrate ourselves more entirely to His service. Having no legislation to propose and no special suggestions to make, I conclude by commending you, my dear brethren, to the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit in all your deliberations.

Assistant Bishop's Address.

The Assistant Bishop then read his Annual Address :

ADDRESS OF BISHOP RANDOLPH.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND THE LAITY :

My work during the year has been chiefly among the country churches of the Diocese. I wish that the labors could have been more abundant. From many appointments which I had proposed to fill, I was detained by inability for public speaking. These I hope to fill among the first appointments of the coming year. The church in the country, in my judgment, is growing steadily, notwithstanding the constant drain by removal to the city of its strongest supporters. The privation seems to have resulted in many cases in an increase of energy and the sense of responsibility on the part of those who are left. Still with many of them it is a close and constant struggle. I could tell you of beautiful self-denials of women and men in the country to hold on to the church of their fathers and to give it to their children. These are critical times in the history of the country churches of Virginia. Listen to the appeals of your Diocesan Missionary Society as the strongest that comes to you. Keep your ministers in the country at their posts a few years longer, and they will build strength and coherence out of the new elements they are gathering into the church. Her influence is far wider than the list of confirmations would indicate. Her worship and her ministry are steadily gaining upon the confidence and reverence of the people.

ORDINATIONS.

On June 20th, 1888, ordained in St. Stephen's Church, Petersburg, to the order of Deacons, Benjamin Franklin Lewis, Basil Benjamin Tyler, both colored. The Rev. Dr. Gibson, the Rev. Messrs. Goodwin, Scott and Spencer, and two colored clergymen, the Rev. Mr. Burke and the Rev. Mr. Taylor, assisting in the services.

On June 29th, in the Chapel of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, ordained to the order of Deacons John Cary Ambler, Charles Gauss, John Points Tyler.

On June 29th, in the Chapel of the Theological Seminary, ordained to the Priesthood, John Henry Beagen, Alexander Galt, Walter Porter Griggs, Edwin Heathfield Green, George Gordon Smead.

CHURCHES CONSECRATED.

In Petersburg on the 3d of June, 1888, the Church of the Good Shepherd, Memorial, was consecrated. The Rev. Dr. Haynes preached the consecration sermon. The Rev. Dr. Gibson and the Revs. F. Scott and Robert Goodwin assisted in the services. The church was erected to take the place of Blandford Chapel by a generous Christian lady, a member of St. Paul's Church. It is in the charge of the Rev. Mr. Jones, who is nominally the assistant of St. Paul's, but practically the Rector of this new and beautiful church.

On the 15th of July, 1888, the Church of Our Saviour, Whittle Parish, was consecrated. The Revs. John McGill, A. P. Gray, W. F. Gardner and B. T. Turner were present and assisted in the services. The church is an excellent building, and accommodates perhaps two hundred and fifty or three hundred persons. It is gratifying to observe evidences of interest on the part of persons in this thickly settled community, who were comparative strangers to our worship in the services of the Episcopal Church. It is hoped that good is being accomplished by the opening of this new field.

On July the 16th, 1888, Trinity Church at Manassas, Prince William county, was consecrated. The Rector, Rev. A. P. Gray, who has since removed from the Diocese to our sincere regret, was present and assisted in the services. By his removal this church has been deprived of regular services; but it has been visited from time to time by the Evangelist, and lay services are conducted by students from the Seminary.

September 4th, 1888, Grace Chapel, formerly Ewell's Chapel, Prince William county, was consecrated. The clergy present were the Rev. Dr. Davis, of Leesburg, who preached the consecration sermon, and the Rev. John Ambler, Deacon in charge of the church in Middleburg. This church is now in charge of the Rev. B. T. Turner, Rector of the Church of our Saviour in Fauquier.

quier county, was consecrated. The consecration sermon was preached by the Rev. G. W. Nelson, and the services conducted by the Rev. G. M. Murray and the Rev. H. B. Lee. For several years this has been a struggling mission. It is hoped that a future of much usefulness is before it.

October 18th, 1888, Christ Church, Amelia Courthouse, was consecrated. The Rev. J. Ware, of Farmville, preached the consecration sermon, and the Rev. A. B. Tizzard assisted in the services. The Rev. Mr. Ware gives this church a portion of his time. The building and the furnishing of this church was a labor and sacrifice of a few members whose fidelity is an example to the Diocese.

November 27th, Stras Memorial Church at Tazewell Courthouse, was consecrated. The Rev. John Lloyd, of Abingdon, preached the consecration sermon. The Rev. G. G. Smead, of Pulaski City and the Rev. Charles Gauss, Deacon in charge, assisted in the services. The church is very commodious, and constructed of the best material at a cost of about $3,000. Our Church is almost a stranger in that portion of Virginia, but is making steady progress in the good will and the confidence of the people.

On the 17th of February, 1889, Ascension Church, Keysville, Charlotte county, was consecrated. The Rev. Alexander Overby, the Rector, assisted in the services. By the faithful and efficient efforts of Mr. Overby in collecting funds and managing affairs, this church was rescued from sale at public auction and the reproach of a seemingly hopeless debt removed. It is an excellent church building.

There are ten other church buildings in process of erection in various portions of the Diocese, which it is hoped will be ready for consecration during the coming year. Parish buildings for reading-rooms and associations for church work are being erected in several of the older Parishes. Among them, in St. John's, Portsmouth, and St. John's, Hampton. These are considered most valuable additions to church property, and furnish facilities for wider and more efficient Parish work.

On November 15th I attended a meeting of the House of Bishops, held in St. John's Chapel, Washington, for the purpose of electing two missionary Bishops.

On the 9th of June I attended a meeting of the Commission on Colored Work, held in the city of Washington.

On Thursday, the 10th of January, I attended a meeting of the same Commission, held also in Washington. The members of the Commission express much gratification and confidence in the colored work in this Diocese. It makes a larger appropriation to Virginia, as our work here is more extensive than in any other Diocese. It may be remembered that a considerable portion of the address to the last Diocesan Council was given to a review of the history of the legislation and of the sentiments of the Diocese towards Christian missionary work among our colored population. In response to the recommendations contained in the address for some decisive action, defining the relations of the colored Clergy and churches to the organic law and governmental machinery of the Diocese, a committee was appointed to take the subject into consideration. That committee reported certain alterations and additions to the Article of the Constitution prescribing the organization of the legislative body of the Diocese. The report was approved by the Council, and comes before the present Council for final action.

As this is the only occasion upon which I shall allude to this subject, I deem it my duty to call your attention to certain principles which seem to me to be just and true, as bearing upon the relations between ourselves and the colored race, in the affairs of the government of this Church. The government of our Church is, perhaps, more than any other of the church systems of Christendom, a government of the people. The fountain of authority is in the spiritual sovereignty of the people. The voters of a congregation, being contributors and twenty-one years of age, elect their vestry; the vestry elects the minister; the vestry elects its Lay Delegate to the Council; the Council legislates for the local affairs of the Diocese, and also in its relation as a unit in the affairs of government over all the Dioceses. The Council elects Bishops and delegates to the General Convention. The General Convention legislates upon doctrine, discipline and worship for the whole Church. The General Convention, then, is constituted by the votes of these members of the congregation who contribute to its support and who are twenty-one years of age.

This system of government is based upon the assumption of the possession by this voter of certain elements of moral character, of knowledge, of personal self-control and dignity, which, in some degree, belong to the white race in all communities. This voter is also the heir of ages of civilization, through centuries of discipline, by religion, by law, through many revolutions which have taught through suffering the value and the meaning of principles, and trained them to bear the strain of the responsibility of governing and thinking for themselves.

The government of a Church by the people is the highest mission in this world to which the people can be called. The determination of the doctrine, discipline and worship of a Church by the people involves a strain upon intelligence, upon moral principles and upon all the elements of character which result from the highest discipline of Christian civilization. Do we propose to clothe people who are not twenty-one years of age, no, not ten years of age, in these powers of self-development, with the responsibilities of a complex government like this? Is it justice to the doctrine, discipline and worship of that grand Church which we have inherited to entrust its purity, its stability and its mighty mission under God to a people who have had no such training, no such discipline of ages of self-control and of moral and intellectual progress? The question, with reference to the negro as a legislator in the Episcopal Church, is not a question of race, a question of color, but it is a question of faculty, of ability. It is a question of capacity of character.

Of course there are marked exceptions here and there, which we thankfully recognize as signs of promise for the future; but systems of popular government must be framed, not with reference to the capacities of the few, but with reference to the level of the many. Stand face to face with an average man of this race dwelling among us. He has lovable qualities, and you and your children have loved him for generations, and love him to-day. He is kind and shrewd, he is polite and genial, he is fluent, and often eloquent in speech. What is the difference between you and him? At first you are puzzled to define it. But place him in conditions where he is called to exercise faculties for duties which belong to what you call civilization, the forms, the meaning, the complex relations of the government of society, then you see his lack, then you begin to see the gap between you and him; he is bewildered; he loses his head; he is inaccessible to ideas, and government is instinct with ideas. He is without fixed purpose, steadiness of aim, self-control. You cannot depend upon him; he is moved by unruly impulses, and of these he is unconscious. There is a deep content with himself, that keeps his life down to the same dead level. Those faculties of steady purpose and will and openness to ideas, which have trained us to deal with the formal and complex relations of government through centuries of discipline, he has had no opportunity to develop.

The question is not one of race, not one of color, but of incapacity to deal successfully and intelligently with this highest form of government—the guarding of the purity of the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Church by the people themselves.

What, then, seems to be the line of our duty to these brethren of another race? Surely the duty of teaching, the duty of training, guiding, helping, lifting them, seeking them for their sakes and for Christ's sake—through disappointments, through misunderstanding, through alienations, and imputations, without even the reward of gratitude, it may be. Still we must be patient, we must give, we must work and not be weary, we must pray for these children of our Father whom He has given us to train. If we do this the blessing will come to us now and it will come multiplied in the future, and other generations may see the solution of the problems which perplex us of to-day, in this remnant of the race, educated in morals, in religion, in manhood, and transplanted to their old home, to constitute a nucleus for the regeneration and the salvation of this great division of God's family of man.

May the spirit of reasonableness and fearlessness in the path of duty, the spirit of love and of light guide us in this and in all the responsibilities of legislators for the Church of God.

The Council then proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Revs. B. M. Randolph and E. B. Jones were appointed as tellers on the part of the Clergy, and Messrs. W. R. Abbott and W. W. Old as tellers on the part of the laity. They reported the following elected as members of the Standing Committee :

Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D.,	Mr. Cassius F. Lee,
“ Geo. H. Norton, D. D.,	“ Charles S. Taylor,
“ Henderson Suter,	“ Arthur Herbert.

The following committees were elected :

The order of the day was taken up, being the consideration of the proposed amendment to Article II of the Constitution adopted and sent down to the vestries of the Diocese by the last Council.

Pending its discussion, the Council took recess until 4 P. M.

4 P. M.

The Council reassembled and was called to order by the Bishop.

The consideration of the order of the day was resumed.

Report of Special Committee on Disabled Clergy Fund.

Rev. John K. Mason moved that all speeches on the subject of the amendment to Article II of the Constitution be limited to ten minutes. Carried.

Rev. H. B. Lee moved that the order of the day be suspended for five minutes to receive the report from the special committee on the subject of the Disabled Clergy Fund.

The motion was carried, and the report was then read by Rev. H. M. Jackson as follows :

The committee to which was referred resolutions touching the management and distribution of the Fund for Disabled Clergy, report :

1. That the trustees or committee in charge of the distribution of this Fund should make liberal appropriation to the Disabled Clergy of the Diocese, and that their policy should be to provide ample maintenance for those who, from disease or age, have become incapacitated for active service, rather than to build up a capitalized fund from the offerings of the people.

2. To this end, if the necessities of the case require, not only should the entire amount derived from the annual offerings of the people and from the interest on invested funds be expended, but also, rather than any man should suffer, the available capitalized funds in their hands should be utilized.

3. That we find it impossible to designate a fixed sum to be allowed as a stipend to each disabled Clergyman, but that this difficult and delicate matter must be confided to the discretion of the trustees or committee charged with the distribution of this Fund.

4. That we recognize the wisdom of providing a fund to meet exigencies, but we discountenance the accumulation of such a fund at the expense of present necessities, and recommend the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Council hereby instructs the trustees or committee of the Fund for Disabled Clergy to capitalize neither the interest or dividends accruing from investments, nor the offerings of the people, except in such case as that, after ample and liberal appropriations, a surplus may be found remaining.

The consideration of the order of the day was resumed, and the proposed amendment to Article II of the Constitution was adopted by the following vote :

Article II of the Constitution was therefore amended so as to read as follows:

ARTICLE II.

SEC. 1. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop, if there be one, and of the ministers (being white) who now are, or may hereafter be, canonically settled in Parishes or churches within this Diocese, Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, Missionaries within this Diocese, and under its ecclesiastical authority, being clergymen of this Church, and canonically connected with this Diocese: Provided, that any such ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions, shall be members ex officio: Provided further, that no minister under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to a seat in the Council, and no minister shall be entitled to a seat unless he has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the six calendar months preceding.

SEC. 2. The Council shall also be composed of lay members (being white), consisting of one delegate for each Parish or church, chosen by the vestry thereof. Every Parish or church having more than one officiating minister, canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many lay delegates as it has ministers, and in every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants in the Church.

SEC. 3. The Council shall yet further be composed of four clerical delegates from the colored missionary jurisdiction of the Diocese, as constituted under Canon XIII—of Colored Mission churches. The colored Clergy now connected with the Diocese shall however retain their right to a seat and voice in the Council.

Mr. Joseph Bryan offered the following, which was referred to a committee consisting of—

PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE FOR AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE II OF THE CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop (if there be one) and of the Ministers, except as hereinafter provided, who now are or may hereafter be canonically settled in Parishes or Churches within this Diocese; Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia; Missionaries within this Diocese and under its ecclesiastical authority, being Clergymen of this Church, and canonically connected with this Diocese: Provided, that any such Ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions, shall be members ex officio: Provided further, that only such Colored Ministers shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this Article: Provided further, that no Minister under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to a seat in the Council, and no Minister shall be entitled to a seat unless he has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the six calendar months preceding.

SEC. 2. The Council shall also be composed of Lay members, consisting of one delegate for each Parish or Church entitled to representation, chosen by the Vestry thereof, except as hereinafter provided. Every Parish or Church having more than one officiating Minister, canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many Lay delegates as it has Ministers, and in every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants in the Church: Provided, that only such colored delegates shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this Article.

SEC. 3. Provision shall be made by Canon for a Convocation of the Colored Clergy and Laity of the Diocese. This Convocation shall be deliberative, and shall have such legislative powers as the Council from time to time may delegate. This Convocation shall be entitled to send two Clerical and two Lay delegates to represent them in this Council, who shall have the privileges of the floor of the Council, and the right to vote on all matters affecting the Convocation, and on no other questions.

Rev. F. F. Reese moved to amend section 3 of Mr. Bryan's proposed amendment by omitting the words: "on all matters affecting the Convocation, and on no other questions," and to add the following :

"The colored Clergy connected with the Diocese on May 1st, 1889, shall, however, retain their right to a seat and voice in the Council so long as they shall retain their canonical connection with the Diocese, and subject to the restrictions and limitations affecting the rights of the Clergy to seats and voice in the Council, as provided by Section 1 of this Article of the Constitution."

Referred to same committee, with instructions to present a printed report to this Council.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Disabled Clergy Fund was resumed, and the recommendations of the report were approved.

Bishop Randolph read the report of the Committee on the Change of Name of the Church, and on "Proportional Representation":

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHANGE OF NAME OF CHURCH, AND ON "PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION."

The committee to whom were referred certain papers (JOURNAL 1887, page 63, and 1888, page 59) relating to the effort to "expunge the name Protestant Episcopal from the present designation of this Church in her laws and formularies"; and also those in regard to the unequal and unjust basis of representation in the House of Deputies of the General Convention, beg leave to offer the following resolutions for adoption by the Council:

Report of Committee on Change of Name and "Proportional Representation."

1. Resolved, That the word Protestant is understood by us, not only to condemn and repudiate the errors of the Church of Rome, but also to positively declare the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the sole rule of faith and practice. And as the word Protestant affirms our belief in the great truths of the Gospel, as embodied in our creeds, articles and homilies, so the word Episcopal proclaims our apostolic order and government.

2. Resolved, That this Church has been since the Reformation, in the 16th century, in its organization, its faith, its worship and its history a Pro-testant Church, holding vital relations of brotherhood and unity in essentials with all the Protestant churches of Christendom, and the name is dear to our hearts because of its association with all that has made the Church of our fathers glorious in the past, as the faithful teacher of truth and opposer of error.

3. Resolved, That to expunge the name Protestant Episcopal from its title would be not only to break with the history of this Church and of the Church of England, but would be rightly understood as an expression of opposition to Protestant principles, thus putting our Church outside the current of our national life, and destroying its influence and its mission to the people of America.

4. Resolved, That to expunge the words Protestant Episcopal from our title would endanger the organic unity of the Dioceses, since Christian men cannot be expected to surrender what they hold to be essential truths of the Gospel for the appearance of external or governmental unity.

5. Resolved, That the Diocese of Virginia implores those brethren who may have committed themselves to this measure, to consider the subject in all its relations before they assume the responsibility of a position which imperils the unity of this Church.

6. Resolved, That the Diocese of Virginia most earnestly and lovingly appeals to her sister Dioceses to unite in determined opposition to the effort to expunge the words Protestant Episcopal, either from the title page of the Prayer-book or from the name of the Church.

7. Resolved, That proportional representation is the only just principle in the organization of the legislative bodies of our Church, and we declare our conviction that there is great need of reform in the Constitution of the House of Deputies of the General Convention, both as to its size and its basis of representation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

 Report of Managers of Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

Rev. W. C. Latané offered the following, which was carried :

Whereas, the Evangelists of this Diocese are sent forth at great expense to the Diocese for the special benefit of the vacant Parishes in the Diocese; and

Whereas, the said vacant Parishes are at no expense in supporting a minister; therefore—

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Society be directed to write to the treasurers of the Parishes that are now vacant, or that may hereafter become vacant, and earnestly request them to collect from the subscribers in their respective Parishes at least a fair proportion of their usual subscriptions to their minister's salary, to be paid into the treasury of the Diocesan Missionary Society towards the support of the Evangelists of this Diocese.

Rev Dr. Gibson, from the Committee on Elections, reported on the cases of Mr. B. W. Stras, of Stras Memorial Church, Tazewell county, and of Dr. Izard, of Pocahontas, that they were not legally entitled to seats in the Council, but recommended that they be invited to honorary seats in the Council, without votes. The recommendation was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the Report of the Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

REPORT OF MANAGERS OF WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund report the condition of things as rather discouraging. The Parishes and Churches will not furnish the means to give the measure of relief we desire for the destitute households of our departed brethren.

The contributions in 1888 were $1,209.56 from seventy churches and individuals. This year they are $12.82, from sixty-nine churches. In consequence of this deficiency, the amount to be distributed could not be increased. Twenty-two hundred and ten dollars was the whole amount the Board had at their disposal to be distributed to seventeen beneficiaries, one new applicant having been admitted. They felt it to be right to substitute the name of the new beneficiary for that of one of fifteen years' standing, and thus only were prevented from diminishing the small amounts granted to the others.

The principal of the Fund now amounts to $23,142.27, yielding an income this year of only $1,405.70. We must look to the members of the churches in the Diocese to supply the remainder of the amount sorely needed by the increasing number of those who are asking relief at our hands.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

Report of Standing Committee of the Diocese.

The appropriations for the year ending June, 1890, are as follows : To the families of Revs. W. C. Meredith, Weddell and Steptoe, $200 each ; to the family of Rev. Dr. Murdaugh, $175 ; to the families of the Revs. W. H. Pendleton, Stringfellow, Gregory and Hoxton, $150 each ; to the families of the Revs. J. P. McGuire, Ward, Caldwell, Okeson and Morrison, $125 each ; to the family of the Rev. John A. Wharton, $100 ; Mrs. E. B. McGuire, $60 ; Mrs. Sale, $50.

Rev. F. F. Reese offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed, in printing future JOURNALS of the Council, to omit the three last columns in the tabulated statement of the Contingent Fund, as found upon page 127, etc., of the JOURNAL of 1888.

The Council then adjourned until Friday, at 9:30 A. M.

FRIDAY, May 17th, 1889.

The Council met for Divine service at 9:30 A. M. Morning prayer was read by Rev. B. M. Randolph. The sermon was preached by Rev. F. F. Reese, on the 8th and 9th verses of the 1st chapter of the 1st Epistle of St. Peter.

After service the Council was called to order by the Bishop.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF THE ENGLISH BIBLE.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

The Professor of the English Bible would respectfully report that in his department he has done what he could in the insufficient time allowed him.

He has read the Minor Prophets with the Senior Class, and nearly finished them. He selected them because they are more neglected than any other parts of the Bible.

The Middle Class, to which he gives the most attention, has read with care the Psalms in the Authorized Version, comparing them with the Psalter and with the Revision. He thinks it very important to devote especial attention to the Psalter, as it is used so much in our service.

He is thankful that he has been able to officiate regularly in his turn in the chapel, and in the faculty meeting on Thursday night.

The Preparatory Department has, in his judgment, been well taught, and its members have made good progress in their studies.

As Dean, I would add that the religious spirit of the Seminary has been good, as shown by its interest in missions, and in every good work.

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submits the following report of the studies pursued under his direction during the current session :

To the Junior Class I have given instruction in Chadbourne's Natural Theology.

The Middle Class, reciting five times a week, has studied Butler's Analogy, and Knapp's Theology. The former they have finished, and they are in review of the latter. They have also been able to give a weekly recitation to Oehler's Old Testament Theology.

The Senior Class, with three recitations a week, and the Wednesday evening exercises, has studied the 39 Articles with Boulton, and are now closing with the review. They have also in Natural Theology studied Hopkins' Outline Man, and in Homiletics, Dr. Broadus's work.

I have given the usual lectures on Liturgics, and hope before the end of the session to be able to give a course on Christian Ethics.

C. WALKER.

Theological Seminary.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF THE GREEK LANGUAGE, &C., &C.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Greek Language, New Testament Literature, Church Polity and Pastoral Theology, respectfully submits the following annual report:

The Senior Class has read in Greek, Ephesians, Colossians, Philippians, the Catholic Epistles, the Apocalypse, and are now reading St. Luke's Gospel. They have also studied Schaff's Companion to the Greek Testament, and English version. In Polity they have studied with lectures in class the Third, Seventh, and part of the Fifth books of Hooker, and Butler's Protestant Episcopal Doctrine and Church Unity. In Pastoral Theology they have studied the Pastoral Epistles in Greek, and Meade on the Pastoral Office, with parallel references to other books and lectures in class.

The Middle Class has read in Greek, I and II Corinthians, Romans, Galatians, Hebrews and Philippians.

The Junior Class has read in Greek, St. John, St. Matthew, with parallel references to the other synoptic Gospels, and is now finishing Thessalonians.

In response to the request of the Trustees, he has frequently attended the Preparatory Classes, and finds them most thoroughly and efficiently taught.

KINLOCH NELSON.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY AND CANON LAW.To the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Canon Law respectfully submits the following report:

The Senior Class, with three recitations a week, has studied Short's History of the Church of England, Green's Short History of the English People, and has privately read for examination Martineau's Church History in England. Lectures, on which the class took notes, have been given to supplement the text-books. At present the class is studying the Constitutions and Canons of the Church. Before the close of the session notes will be given on the History of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

The Middle Class, with three recitations a week, has read essays on assigned topics and has studied Smith's Student's Ecclesiastical History (two volumes) from the beginning of the Reformation period down to our own times. Fisher's History of the Christian Church has been used as a textbook, omitting all that portion which relates to the history of the Church in England or the United States. The class is at present reviewing.

The Junior Class, reciting four times a week, has gone through Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, and is at present studying, as a brief course in comparative religion, "The Ancient World and Christianity," by De Pressensé. The members of the class have also read carefully prepared essays on assigned topics, in some cases giving the results of independent investigation.

CARL E. GRAMMER.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF HEBREW, ORIENTAL LANGUAGES, AND APOLOGETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

I would respectfully report as follows:

The Senior Class has read critically in Hebrew, portions of the books of Isaiah and Jeremiah, making at the same time a thorough study of the periods and events of their prophetic ministries. It has studied also Muller's Syntax.

The Middle Class has read twenty-five Psalms critically, sections of the books of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, in connection with the introduction to the same, special attention being given to the principles of Hebrew Poetry.

The Juniors have read in Hebrew, Genesis (excepting the poetical portions), parts of Exodus, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, and Kings. They have had also the usual instruction in Apologetics.

A. CRAWFORD.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1889).

*Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL.D.,
President of the Board of Trustees:*

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

The whole number of pupils entered the present session is eighty-seven, the decline from last year being chiefly in day-scholars.

The health of the school has rarely ever been so good. No epidemic has visited us, and there has been no case of serious sickness. In this respect, as well as in the excellent conduct and diligence of the boys, we have been singularly favored. The co-operation of the Associate Principal and of the other Masters, in every effort for the good of our common charge, has been earnest and effective, and no previous year has afforded us greater encouragement.

Mr. Wm. Cabell Brown, of the Seminary Junior Class, has conducted the Friday night devotional meeting for the boys, with an average attendance of more than fifty, and highly gratifying results, while the Rev. Professor Nelson has continued indefatigable in the labors incident to his pastoral charge. The Rev. Professors Walker, Grammer and Crawford, have also laid us under obligation by occasional ministrations in the School Chapel. There have been nine confirmations during the session, the whole number of communicants among the boys being forty.

I have the honor to be, Sir, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

Rev. Dr. Hains, from the Committee on New Parishes, recommended that the petition of All Saints' Church, Richmond, for admission to the Council, be granted, all the requisite conditions to its admission having been complied with.

The recommendation of the committee was adopted by the Council.

Rev. A. S. Lloyd, from the Committee on the Bruce Fund, reported having examined the accounts of the said Fund and found them correct.

Bishop Randolph then read the report of the Committee on the Hymnal :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE HYMNAL.

The committee appointed by the last Council to report suggestions to this Council in relation to the improvement of the hymnal of our Church which, with the endorsement of the Council of this Diocese, would be recommended to the committee appointed by the General Convention of 1886, have had two meetings during the year. They desire me to state that the publication, a few days before their last meeting, of the preliminary report of the Committee on the Hymnal rendered much of the work which they had accomplished useless as the basis of a report to be laid before this Council.

It was presumed that the committee of the General Convention would delay the publication of their report until the Dioceses had had an opportunity of proposing contributions and suggestions, which would place them in possession of the general sentiment and wishes of the Church in the formation of a new hymnal.

That committee has considered it best to publish their report so that the Dioceses might review their work, and thus give them the benefit of suggestions and criticisms which might be guides and contributions to the full and final report which they will make to the General Convention. Your committee would have undertaken the work of review in a report for this Council but for lack of time and opportunity, the published report of the Hymnal Committee having been in circulation only a few days, and only two members having had an opportunity of giving to it even a cursory examination.

To form an intelligent opinion and a fair judgment upon the proposed new hymnal would require careful examination and critical study. The importance of the subject in relation to the spiritual life of the Church cannot be overestimated.

Some one has said, "Let me write the songs of a nation and I do not care who makes the laws." A great Englishman said not long ago, "Let me write the hymns and the music of the Church and I care very little who writes the theology." I cannot fully endorse this last statement, for a true theology I regard as a spiritual atmosphere in which true hymns and noble music are born and nurtured, but still the general meaning is true that the hymns which our people sing have an influence which cannot be calculated in moulding their theology and their religious life. Weak, sentimental hymns tend to produce a weak, sentimental religion; mere doctrinal hymns encourage a quarrelsome and dogmatic religion; cold, didactic hymns encourage a mechanical and heartless religion; hymns with too much of the lyrical element in them encourage the habit of morbid introspection, which is adverse to healthy spiritual growth; ritualistic hymns, which must be had as poetry, are yet successful methods of sowing seeds of religious error in receptive minds kindled to emotion by religious music. On the other hand, hymns which breathe true penitence, generous trust, living faith, and joy and thanksgiving, and reverence will develop the growth of a strong, manly and impassioned piety.

The work of the committee of the General Convention has been more radical than was perhaps anticipated; they have added 447 new hymns; they have changed six of the old hymns, and they have omitted a large number; some of them, doubtless, useless for worship and without merit as hymns; but a large number, perhaps as many as seventy, of those which have been omitted are dear and consecrated by blessed associations not only to Christian worshippers of our own communion but to all branches of the Church among English-speaking people—such as Cowper's true and beautiful hymn, "God moves in a mysterious way," or Francis Lyte's noble, triumphant hymn, "Jesus I my cross have taken"; one verse is enough to give it immortality:

"Take my soul thy full salvation;
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
Joy to find in every station!
Something still to do or bear.
Think what spirit dwells within thee:
What a Father's smile is thine:
What a Saviour died to win thee—
Child of Heaven should'st thou repine?"

 Report of Committee on the Hymnal.

Or this hymn of George Keith's, which all our children know and which we grown people love more as the years go on—

“How firm a foundation ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word.”

Old Dr. Hodge could never read the hymn through; his voice would break with the triumph and the blessedness of the last line—“I'll never, no never, no never forsake.”

It is a great wrong to cut us off from such hymns as these; their omission is the more unaccountable when we examine the new hymns and recognize the good critical judgment with which a large number of them have been selected from some of the best hymn writers in the literature of hymnology, greatly to the enrichment of our hymnal.

It is hoped that the enlargement of the hymnal, which is contemplated by the committee, will not prejudice the work in the eyes of the church; if we are to have a hymnal separate from the Prayer-book it is difficult to understand why objection should be made to an expansion of the book beyond the limits of the present number of our hymns; it may be said “we do not want a cumbersome, heavy book”; very true, but the difference in weight between a hymnal of 400 and another of 800 hymns would perhaps be three or four ounces, and this additional weight could not be a grievous burden to carry to church or to hold in the hands at worship even to the little children of our congregations.

Surely it is not a sufficient reason for impoverishing the worship of the church and the devotional culture of our people. Nor is the additional expense of a large hymnal a rational objection, though you hear it frequently urged. If the book lasts four or five years, the additional expense of a larger hymnal will perhaps average a few cents every year; the objection needs only a little arithmetic to expose its triviality.

It may be said, “Why have so large a number of hymns when so few are sung by the congregation?” The answer is, “Your congregation may not sing them because you, their leader and teacher, may have failed to introduce them in their hours of worship to the riches of our hymnology.” If we are careless and narrow in our selections of songs for the sanctuary, we train our people to be narrow and careless too; we must remember that there are other congregations who may find in the hymns that we habitually neglect helps to their devotion and voices to their praise; we should remember that a church hymnal should embrace a variety adapted to every phase of religious feeling and of spiritual experience; to praise and penitence; to the bed of sickness; to the lonely and the suffering; to spring, summer and autumn; to youth and to age; they should interpret through poetry the voices of religion to all the varied conditions of our human life. Their main purpose is to be sung in the sanctuary, but their mission of comfort and help extends far beyond the hours of our worship with the congregation in the house of God.

Report of Committee on the Hymnal.

There can be no intelligent reason why we should not embrace in our hymnal all of the best hymns of our own time and of the past ages of the Christian Church.

Before closing these observations I may mention the surprise and disappointment with which we find in the new hymnal certain suggestive directions in connection with a number of the hymns, which, if the book is adopted as it is by the General Convention, will doubtless be interpreted as a sanction and authority from the General Church for the ceremonies to which they refer. We find notes after certain hymns which may in time rise to the dignity of Rubrical directions. "This hymn may be sung as a processional;" "this hymn must be sung as a recessional." There are many of us in this Church who still hold that the Rubrics in the Prayer-book contain authoritative directions for opening and for closing her regular services; that the performances referred to are without the authority and the sanction of law. There are others of us who regard these ceremonies in their intrinsic nature and effect as tending to produce sensational excitement rather than emotions of religious reverence, and that they are therefore below the dignity of Christian worship. However this may be, it will be time enough to introduce into our hymnal Rubrical directions concerning processionals and recessionals when the Rubrics in the Prayer-book shall prescribe them as proper ceremonies for opening and closing the worship. Those who indulge their fancies in such performances should be content with the immunity which they enjoy in many parts of the Church from interference on the part of the ecclesiastical authorities over them.

The Church, we may hope, is not yet prepared to prescribe and ordain such ceremonies, and, until it is so, there is manifest impropriety in such directions in a hymnal issued under the authority of and for the whole Church. Especial attention is called to the many beautiful hymns printed in the report, for which our grateful acknowledgments to the committee are due.

The object of this general criticism has been to call attention to the great importance of the subject, as well as to explain the failure of your committee to render a formal report. The committee have requested me to propose the following resolution:

"That this committee be requested by this Council to examine with critical care the preliminary report of the Committee on the Hymnal appointed by the General Convention between this and the meeting of that body, and to communicate their suggestions and the results of their investigations to the said Committee on the Hymnal and to our delegates to the General Convention."

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. John L. Williams presented the following:

Resolved, That the committee be requested to adopt such measures as they shall deem wisest and best to save to the Church in Virginia and, as far as possible, to the General Church, the hymns so long dearly and devoutly cherished, which have already been excluded, and which it is proposed to exclude from the authorized hymnal of the General Convention.

On motion, it was referred to the committee.

Rev. J. J. Gravatt, from the Committee on the Disabled Clergy Fund, presented the following report:

Mr. Thomas Potts presented the report of the Finance Committee:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance beg to report as follows:

We have examined the account current of James T. Gray, Esq., Treasurer Contingent Fund of the Diocese, and found it correct in every particular, sustained by proper vouchers.

The Treasurer, on the 16th of May, 1888, was in debt to the State Bank of Virginia, Richmond, the sum of $156.58. The receipts from the Contingent

Report of Committee on Episcopal Fund.

Fund and from interest from May, 1888, to May, 1889, amounted to $12,066.83, from which sum deduct the amount due the State Bank, and you have $11,910.25 net receipts. Out of this was paid the current expenses of the Diocese, amounting to $9,842.91, leaving a balance in the hands of your Treasurer on the 14th day of May, 1889, of $2,067.34.

This is the most favorable report that has been made for many years. The expenses of the present Church year will be very much larger than the past year, as the General Convention and increased traveling expenses will be included, so we may not expect as large a balance at our next Council. The Treasurer reports his collection up to this morning at about $7,000.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

1. That the Treasurer pay the customary charges for the salaries of the Bishop and Assistant Bishop, Secretary, Chaplains, Historiographer and other customary expenses, including the rent of the residence of the Assistant Bishop, the sum of $25 to the Assistant Secretary of this Council and $15 to the Sexton of St. Paul's Church, Lynchburg.

2. That the Secretary cause to be printed fifteen hundred copies of the JOURNAL as heretofore, and that he distribute, free of charge, so many as may be required for the use of the ministers and vestries of the Diocese, and dispose of the residue by sale as heretofore.

THOMAS POTTS, Chairman.

The report was received, and its recommendations adopted.

Mr. John L. Williams offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed and authorized to pay the cost of printing and distributing the address of Bishop Randolph upon the change proposed in the title "Protestant Episcopal Church."

Rev. B. D. Tucker, from the Committee on the Accounts of the Diocesan Missionary Society, reported having examined the same and found them correct, and sustained by proper vouchers.

Rev. Dr. R. T. Davis presented the report of the Committee on the State of the Church :

Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church, in bringing forward their report, would congratulate the Church upon the improved health of our beloved Bishop, and his ability to be present with the Council and to preside over its deliberations.

For this great mercy we should be thankful ; and in the many evidences of the favor of God, which has been vouchsafed to us, we have reason to rejoice. The sum of confirmations reported is quite up to the average of past years, and even above it ; and in several of our churches the number of the confirmed has been unusually large. And thus our ranks are kept full and are thickening, although in the course of nature our older members are departing year by year. Whilst God's blessings attend the labors of his ministering servants, young men and women come forward to take the places of those that are called to their heavenly rest ; and if one generation of Christians passes away another still comes to succeed it.

The Parochial Reports bear testimony to the fact that many Lay-workers are laboring faithfully in Sunday-schools, and striving to train their young charge in the ways of piety and happiness ; and though it is to be regretted that our country Parishes are being much depleted by removals, the persons so removing strengthen the city Parishes to which they go, and are not lost to the Church at large.

Your committee learn with pleasure that our church schools are well attended, and are in a flourishing condition, and the reports of the diligence and general behaviour of the pupils of both sexes are gratifying ; and gratifying is the prosperity of the colored work in the Diocese, and the growing usefulness of the Colored Industrial and Divinity Schools at Petersburg and elsewhere.

Especially are we called upon to notice the marked increase of candidates for the ministry pursuing their studies at the Theological Seminary ; and we find cause for thankfulness in the earnest tone which pervades that institution, and in the spirit of self-consecration which is manifested among the young men by their readiness to go to the heathen, or whithersoever God may call them. The Church has lately made more frequent prayer that God would send forth laborers into His harvest, and already the laborers are offering themselves. Let us not fail to note the coincidence.

Amongst the agencies by which, under God, has been brought about the spiritual prosperity that many of our congregations exhibit, your committee would observe that a prominent place must be assigned to the Associations, or "Missions," as they are often called. These protracted services of preaching, attended with much earnest prayer, and especially with specific prayers of intercession, have been greatly blessed in various places—alike in the conversion of sinners, and in the quickening of the spiritual life of those who have already professed Christ.

Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

In casting our eyes abroad to discern the existing state of the Church, we are obliged to notice some of the features in the prospect that are not altogether pleasing. In many places the attendance of the male members of our Christian families (and even of our male communicants) upon the public services of the sanctuary, is not what it ought to be. On Sunday evenings they are too often absent; and absent also, without good reason, on week days.

Your committee are persuaded, moreover, that the practice of family prayer is not generally observed in the households of our communion as it was wont to be by our pious forefathers, and as the Book of Common Prayer and the Canons of the Church direct. And perhaps to the neglect of these time-honored and pious customs may be attributed the fact that a larger proportion of our young men of Church families do not seek the ministry of reconciliation, and that there are at present so many vacant churches in our Diocese.

We fear, also, that the obligations of the day of sacred rest are too frequently disregarded when they interfere with inclination or convenience. As tending to diminish the amount of Sunday travel, and of Sunday work in handling and transporting freight, by which many railroad employees are deprived of opportunities of rest and worship, it seems to us that Christian people should throw all their influence upon the side of the discontinuance of Sunday trains, towards which end some steps have been lately taken by leading Northern railroads.

To the Committee on the State of the Church was referred a resolution of censure upon the new hymnal, which has just been put forth tentatively by the committee of the last General Convention, to whom the revision of the hymnal which we have been using was entrusted. In our opinion, the result of their labors is entirely unsatisfactory, and both because of what they have left out and of what they have inserted, we disapprove of their work. We hold that their proceeding in throwing out numbers of popular hymns (amongst them not a few of those most familiar and best loved) because of the fancied want of a certain churchly tone, is indefensible; and their recommendations, if adopted, will prove absolutely disastrous. On their principles very many of the lyrics of the inspired Psalmist would surely have been cast out of the collection. The dictum that a good hymn should contain only strains of praise, has no support in the sacred psalter. If we examine those compositions which were set forth to be sung by the ancient Church, and which furnished a model for the Church in all ages, we perceive at once that their authors gave free utterance to their sentiments and feelings of penitence as well as of thankfulness, and freely mingled both with pious musings and devout aspirations. Nor did they hesitate to make reference to the ungodly, and even to plead and argue with them.

A hymn may declare God's glory indirectly as well as directly; and it is only a shallow criticism which styles such a composition as "Sinners turn, why will ye die?" a hymn to sinners. Those well-known verses do constitute indeed an appeal addressed to sinners, like the Psalmist's "Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you to pieces and there be none to deliver"; but the appeal is made upon the ground of the forbearance and loving kindness of Father, Son and Spirit, which are presented in the most edifying and affecting manner, and so as to enhance our conceptions of God's long suffering and grace.

Regarding it, therefore, as intolerable that we should, for no reason that we recognize as valid, be deprived of such hymns as "How firm a foundation," and "Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove," and "There is a fountain filled with blood," and others as precious, we conclude by expressing the hope that the Council will instruct our delegates to the General Convention to protest most earnestly against the adoption of the hymnal which is proposed for our acceptance.

Rev. F. F. Reese presented the report of the Committee on Sunday Schools:

Report of Committee on Sunday-schools.

Your Committee do not consider it necessary to lay any stress upon the value and importance of Sunday-schools. The subject has been again and again most emphatically and fully discussed, and we may take it for granted that a very small minority, if any at all, are prepared to doubt or deny so indisputable a proposition. The question is not, are Sunday-schools necessary and right, but are they effective—as effective as they might be and should be; and, if not, what are the reasons for their want of efficiency, and the methods of promoting that efficiency.

Considered now, as all enterprises for producing either material, moral or spiritual results ought to be considered, the question is asked, Do Sunday-schools, as definite agencies for producing positive results in moral and religious training, produce those results in the highest measure now possible? Given a certain expenditure of energy, time and money, what relation do the results bear to it? Does it pay? To reduce waste of power and product is the problem of all productive enterprises. Is it not equally a proper question and a serious problem in the work of the Church? We are aware that moral and spiritual results cannot be reduced to statistics. We are aware that they are too far-reaching and too subtle—too much a question of persons, involving the delicate estimate of human character in the long run of life and eternity—to be made a basis for an exact induction. But allowing for all difficulties in the way of making estimates, reasoning from general observation, we believe that Sunday-schools are an expensive and wasteful (not in a pecuniary sense) machinery, as generally conducted. And the reason we venture to suggest is not so much from want of interest and zeal on the part of those engaged in them, lamentable as that oftentimes is, but from the want of common sense in the practical application of means to ends. Superintendents, yes, Rectors, teachers and officers, who are not only well-meaning men, but who know their business and who exercise care and thought to increase their fitness, are a great want. A thoughtful and suggestive interest, the study of methods as well as efforts to increase personal efficiency, are still exceptional on the part of Sunday-school workers.

The Sunday-school is intended to instruct children in the fundamental facts and doctrines of the Christian religion, as this Church hath received the same, and to impress these facts and doctrines upon them as principles of right living; to inform the mind, stimulate the conscience, purify and elevate the motives and affections, and form habits of good character; in other words, to promote in them a living faith in Jesus Christ. It is not the only nor the most important agency for these purposes; but to do this is its reason for existence. To do its work, therefore, well, the teachers must know the facts and understand the doctrines; they must realize the necessity, and take pains to inform their own minds; they must study and understand proper methods of teaching; they must study child-life, its temptations and needs, its capacity, and how to influence the affections and wills and consciences of children; and, above all, they must, of course, be themselves persons whose lives are animated by the motives, and formed in the habits, and stimulated by the hopes of Christian manhood and womanhood.

We cannot take time to speak of the Superintendent's position and duties, except to say that it is absolutely essential that he learn the business of administering the affairs of a complex body formed for such a purpose; how to make its parts work smoothly, with the least waste and friction and loss of time; how to inspire everybody with the hopefulness that comes from the consciousness of being parts of a well-regulated and well-handled concern, and to conduct its general exercises with the promptness and vivacity so necessary in dealing with children.

How shall these most desirable ends be attained? How shall improvement be promoted? We desire to emphasize at this time only one suggestion, and that is by conference, discussion, and frequent interchange of ideas among those interested in the subject. In many schools one thing is done well: an infant class is well taught; a library is well managed; a Superintendent directs well; improved methods of teaching are practised; the singing is good. Let these people meet at intervals and tell each other what they know—what they find by experience works well. They can sing and pray together and help each other by mutual encouragement. That is good. But singing and praying and exhortation are not all. Enthusiasm is necessary. But it is not wisdom and knowledge. And everywhere to day men are working and praying in their work. They want facts; they want to know the results of well-tried experiment. In every sphere of human activity men meet for conference, to get at the results already attained in various places and by various people. In the public school systems of many States the Teachers' Institute has become a recognized feature, and teaching is made a profession, and teachers are becoming skilled workers. Experiments are everywhere tried, and when demonstrated to be wise, become common property. We believe such methods for increasing knowledge and disseminating experience are necessary in Sunday-school work.

We therefore close our report by recommending that throughout the whole Diocese, as a part say of our Convocations, in cities, and wherever two or three bodies of teachers and officers can conveniently be got together, Sunday-school Teachers' Institutes be organized on lines similar to those already successfully established in other Dioceses.

We also suggest that it may be found practicable to appoint a special service, say, on the night before the meeting of the Council for Conference, and the consideration of improved methods of Sunday-school work.

We also recommend the formation in Parishes, of distinctively Church organizations for boys and girls—such as Guilds, Brotherhoods, Girls' Friendly Societies, and the like, which experience has proven to be of value in retaining young persons in the fold of the Church.

FREDERICK F. REESE, Chairman.

Report of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute.

Mr. J. H. Skinner presented the report of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute:

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute respectfully submit to the Council their annual report for 1888 and 1889:

Our report to the last Council was so full, in regard to the condition of the buildings and grounds of the Institute property and the general prosperity and management of the school, that little remains for us to report at this time, except to reaffirm all that is there said on that subject. Mrs. Stuart's annual report to the Trustees shows that the number of pupils continues about the same as formerly reported. She reports for the session now in progress fifty-nine (59) boarders and forty (40) day pupils; of this number thirteen were upon "scholarships"—eight boarders and five day scholars—four of these were daughters of clergymen. The discipline and morale of the school is of the highest order. The health of the school has been excellent, no case of sickness having occurred this session. The buildings are kept in good order at all times, and within the past year much has been done in repairing and beautifying the house and the grounds.

The new lease, under which Mrs. Stuart is now conducting the school, began, as shown by the last report, on the 1st day of September, 1888, and continues for five years from that date. The first year of the lease not having expired, no report can be made of the financial results of the year. The Trustees cannot close this report without again commending the Virginia Female Institute and its management in the highest terms to the cordial support and patronage of the Diocese—indeed, it is a school to which parents can send their daughters with every assurance that their mental, moral and physical training will be cared for in a manner to satisfy the most anxious and exacting heart.

Since our last report was made, the Board has suffered an irreparable loss in the death of the Hon. Hugh W. Sheffey. For many years Judge Sheffey has been connected with the affairs of the "Virginia Female Institute." Upon every page of its history is found the evidence of his untiring zeal and earnest loving devotion in its behalf. He stood by it when the day was dark, and its future seemed hopeless, and to his unfailing interest is due, in a large measure, the gratifying condition in which we now find it. He gave his time and his wise counsel without stint through all the periods of its history; and his genial presence and cordial manner were impressed upon all of its public exercises. We greatly mourn his loss, and desire to put on record the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. Hugh W. Sheffey, this Board, with a sense of its personal bereavement and loss to the institution, extends its sympathy to the Diocese of Virginia, to which he devoted his exceptional abilities, and whose acknowledged leader he was in matters of ecclesiastical legislation for a quarter of a century, and to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, which felt and recognized his learning, his intellectual power, and his devotion to her interests in the affairs of the general government of the Church.

 Report of Committee on Parochial Reports.

The death of Judge Sheffey makes a vacancy in the Board of Trustees, which has now to be filled according to law.

Respectfully,

GEORGE M. HARRISON,
Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

The Council nominated Messrs. Thomas D. Ranson and Alex. F. Robertson to the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, from whom to elect a trustee to succeed the late Hon. H. W. Sheffey.

Rev. W. L. Gravatt, in behalf of Rev. L. W. Burton, read the report of the Committee on Parochial Reports :

Mr. Thomas Potts offered the following :

Resolved, That a list of those Parishes not furnishing Parochial Reports be published in the JOURNAL, and that no Report be received that is not prepared according to the form.

Proposed Amendment to Article II of the Constitution.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Sprigg, the whole subject of Parochial Reports was referred to a committee, consisting of the Bishop, the Assistant Bishop and the Secretary of the Council.

A message being received from Mr. Thomas Atkinson, announcing his inability to serve as the Treasurer of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, on motion of Rev. Dr. Dashiell, Mr. E. B. Addison, of Richmond, was appointed a member of the Board of Managers and Treasurer of the Fund.

Rev. J. S. Hanckel presented the following :

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE II OF THE CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop (if there be one), and of the Ministers, except as hereinafter provided, who now are or may hereafter be canonically settled in Parishes or Churches within this Diocese ; Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, Missionaries within this Diocese, and under its ecclesiastical authority, being Clergymen of this Church and canonically connected with this Diocese: Provided, that any such Ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions, shall be members ex officio: Provided further, that only such Colored Ministers shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this Article: Provided further, that no Minister under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to a seat in the Council, and no Minister shall be entitled to a seat unless he has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the six calendar months preceding.

SEC. 2. The Council shall also be composed of Lay members, consisting of one delegate for each Parish or church entitled to representation, chosen by the Vestry thereof, except as hereinafter provided. Every such Parish or church having more than one officiating Minister canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many Lay delegates as it has Ministers, and in every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants in the Church: Provided, that only such colored delegates shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this Article.

SEC. 3. The Council shall also be composed of the Colored Ministers having a seat and voice in the Council on the 17th day of May, 1889, and of two Clerical and two Lay delegates from the Colored Missionary Jurisdiction of the Diocese, as the same is now or may hereafter be constituted by Canon

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ACCOUNTS OF WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

Pending discussion of the amendment, the Council took recess until 4 P. M.

4 P. M.

The Council reassembled and was called to order by the Bishop.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Dashiell, the discussion on the amendment to Constitution was postponed for ten minutes.

Mr. H. E. C. Baskervill having notified the Council of his inability to serve as a Trustee of the Disabled Clergy Fund, Mr. F. H. McGuire was appointed in his stead.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell offered the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That the Council proceed immediately after the settlement of the proposal to amend Article II of the Constitution to elect four clerical and four lay deputies to the General Convention; also four alternate deputies of each order, no alternate to take his seat unless notified by a deputy before the Convention meets that he will not attend.

Mr. Jacob Heffelfinger, from the Committee on the Accounts of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, presented the following:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ACCOUNTS OF WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

The Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund respectfully report that they have carefully examined the accounts and find them correctly stated, and the disbursements supported by proper vouchers.

The current receipts for the year (other than from ~~matured investments~~) have been as follows:

From interest on investments and on funds in bank.....	$1,433 81
From collections and donations.....	$99 86
Total current receipts.....	$1,533 67
The expenditures (other than for reinvestment) have been—
For expenses.....	$1 75
For relief.....	2,156 00
Total expended.....	2,157 75
Remainder.....	$ 123 92

 Protest of the Colored Clergy.

The cash balance in the hands of the Treasurer is $3,482.19. The par value of investments is reported to be $21,980. Of these securities your Committee could make no investigation.

The Committee cannot close this report without expressing great regret that the Council has lost, by resignation, so faithful an officer as the late Treasurer of the Fund, Mr. P. H. Mayo, who has rendered most efficient service for nearly fifteen years.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. JONES,
JAC. HEFFELFINGER.

The discussion of the proposed constitutional amendment was resumed.

Rev. George F. Bragg presented the following protest from the Colored Clergy, which was ordered to be spread upon the JOURNAL :

PROTEST OF THE COLORED CLERGY.

We, whose names are herewith appended, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, in the fear of and presence of Almighty God, who hears our solemn declaration, do represent that this question of separate organization, under its many forms and devices, has been carefully considered and discussed at length in meetings duly convened for that purpose in all of the missions represented by us. So unanimous and determined are the congregations represented by us, that they have put into our hands papers affirming their strong disapproval of the amendment to the Constitution of the Diocese. They recognize the fact that they are a part and parcel of the Church in this Diocese, although weak and in a struggling condition. However, they are of the opinion that this should not operate against them in receiving the protection and fraternal sympathy of the strong.

Beyond all doubt, we believe that the amendment adopted yesterday by this Council, relating to this question, was the most speedy way of settling it, but not we fear as God would have it settled. As men who must one day appear before the judgment seat of Christ, we affirm as our belief that the adoption of the afore-mentioned amendment will put an end to the growth of the work of the Church among our people.

And we beg permission to record our most solemn protest against the change in the Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES S. RUSSELL,	B. F. LEWIS,
GEORGE F. BRAGG, JR.,	WM. P. BURKE,
JOHN T. HARRISON,	GEO. E. HOWELL,
LAFAYETTE WINFIELD,	W. E. HOWELL.
D. W. TAYLOR,

Vote on Proposed Amendment to Article II of the Constitution.

The vote was then taken upon the proposed constitutional amendment to Article II, and it was approved by the Council and referred to the vestries of the Diocese by the following vote :

Noes.—Messrs. Detweiler, Heffelfinger, Jennings, Mann Page, Pierce and Wallis.—6.

The Council then took recess until 8:15 P. M.

8:15 P. M.

The Council reassembled, and was called to order by the Bishop.

The Council proceeded to the election of four Clerical Deputies and four Lay Deputies to the General Convention. Revs. R. A. Goodwin and A. S. Lloyd were appointed tellers on the part of the Clergy, and Messrs. Potts and Egerton as tellers on the part of the Laity.

Pending the counting of the ballot, Rev. N. P. Dame offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to ask the Clergy throughout the Diocese to call the attention of the people to the Church's need of young men for the work of her Ministry, and of money for their education and support, and appoint a day for the special presentation of this subject ; that the Bishops be requested at their visitations as far as possible to bring this matter before the people, and the Faculty of the Seminary be requested to visit when they can the Colleges and vacant Parishes of the State, and present the subject to the young men.

Rev. H. Suter offered the following, which was carried unanimously :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council are gratefully tendered to the Rector and Vestry of this Church for their arrangements for its comfort, and to the citizens of Lynchburg for their general hospitality.

Rev. B. D. Tucker offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council of the Diocese of Virginia be, and hereby are, tendered to the Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Society and Editor of "Our Diocesan Work," for valuable services during the past year, which have been abundantly blessed, and that the Clergy and Laity be earnestly requested to use their efforts to increase the circulation of that same paper.

Rev. F. F. Reese offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council, in giving official notice to the Vestries of proposed amendments to the Constitution, be instructed to send a copy of the proposed amendment to the Rector of each Parish and congregation, and if there be none to the Senior Warden, together with a reference to the Article and Section intended to be amended.

Election of Clerical and Lay Deputies to the General Convention.

Rev. S. A. Wallis offered the following :

Resolved, That the delegates of this Diocese to General Convention be instructed to pray General Convention to repeal Canon XIII of Title I of the General Canons, and re-enact it, so that freedom for occasional exchange of pulpits between the Ministers of other denominations and those of our own Church be declared lawful at the regular services of the Church.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Sprigg, the resolution was laid on the table by the following vote : Ayes 67, noes 60.

Rev. Dr. Meade gave notice that he would move the following amendments to Canons XIX and XX :

Canon XIX, line fourteen, omit the words "if communicants." See Canon VIII, Section 9, third line.

Canon XX (a). For the seven first words substitute the following, viz: "The Vestries of the several Parishes or Churches of this Diocese."

(b). In the first line after the word "shall," insert the following, viz: "by quarterly instalments or".

The tellers for the vote for Clerical and Lay Deputies to the General Convention reported the following as elected :

For Clerical Deputies.

Rev. Geo. H. Norton, D. D.,
 " J. S. Hanckel, D. D.,
 " J. B. Newton,
 " K. Nelson, D. D.,

For Lay Deputies.

Mr. Jos. Bryan,
 " R. Taylor Scott,
 " Walter H. Taylor,
 " C. M. Blackford.

The Council then proceeded to ballot for alternate Clerical and Lay Deputies to the General Convention.

Pending the count of ballots, Rev. Dr. Hains moved that the Deputies to the General Convention be instructed to present to that body the report of the committee on the proposed change of name of the Church. Carried.

Rev. Dr. K. Nelson presented the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be requested, in the name of the Council and Clergy and Laity of the Diocese, to sign the petition to be presented to Congress asking the discontinuance of Sunday mails and such other Sunday labors as tend to deprive so many employees of a day of rest and of the opportunity to attend religious worship.

Report of Committee on Proposed Change in Canon XIII.

Rev. John K. Mason moved that the Clergy be requested to urge their Vestries to more promptly elect their Lay Delegates to the next Council, and to the earlier notification of their election to the Rector and Vestry of the church in which the Council shall meet. Carried.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin presented the following :

The Committee to whom was referred the proposed change in Canon XIII, report that in view of the passage on yesterday of the amendment to Article II of the Constitution, they deem it inexpedient to legislate upon this subject at this time, and they recommend that the matter be referred to a committee to report at the next meeting of the Council.

R. A. GOODWIN,
for the Committee.

The report was received, and on its recommendation the following committee was appointed by the Bishop :

Rev. R. A. Goodwin,
" C. J. Gibson, D. D.,
" C. R. Hains, D. D.,

Mr. J. E. Moyler,
" F. E. Davis.

On motion of Rev. Carl E. Grammer, the thanks of the Council were extended to the Lynchburg Y. M. C. A. for its kind hospitality.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin offered the following, which was laid on the table :

Resolved, That this Council instructs its Delegates to the next General Convention to use all proper means to secure the repeal of the last sentence of Section 5th, Canon XV, Title I, of the Digest, and to secure such legislation as will make it lawful for this or any other Diocese in the United States, which may apply for such permission, to elect a suffragan or special Assistant Bishop for the colored people of the Diocese.

Rev. Dr. Sprigg moved that after the election of alternate deputies to the General Convention and the usual religious exercises, the Council do adjourn sine die. Carried.

Report of Committee on the Brotherhood.

Rev. Dr. Newton offered the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That the churches in this Diocese be requested to use diligent efforts to increase their contributions to the work amongst the colored people.

Mr. L. M. Blackford presented the following :

REPORT ON THE BROTHERHOOD.

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to submit the following report :

The only death of a beneficiary during the year is that of the Rev. Davis M. Wood on the 5th of May, too late for action and report to this Council. In behalf of the heirs of those who died during the Council-year pending, $376.75 has been collected. Under the circumstances, therefore, there are no data on which to base an estimate of the condition of the organization as compared to 1887-'88, except the fact that three new members only have been added. This is not encouraging, and it is earnestly hoped the recent death above mentioned may be the occasion of a large access both of new members and of special contributions.

The committee venture to record their abiding conviction of the value of the Brotherhood as a means of usefulness in the Diocese, and to reiterate the recommendations previously made, and at their instance adopted by the last Council.

L. M. BLACKFORD,
JOS. BRYAN,
JNO. G. WILLIAMS.

Mr. F. H. McGuire presented the following, which was carried :

Resolved, That with grateful recognition of the recent increase in contributions for Diocesan Missions, this Council deems it to be practicable and greatly to be desired that these contributions for the current year should be increased, and the Council earnestly urges that at least the sum of $12,000 be raised for the purpose.

The tellers of the vote for alternate deputies reported the following elected :

Clerical Alternates.

Rev. H. M. Jackson, D. D.,
" John K. Mason,
" R. T. Davis, D. D.,
" Jas. Grammer, D. D.,

Lay Alternates.

Col. James H. Skinner,
Mr. W. W. Old,
" Jos. Wilmer,
" John L. Williams.

Adjournment.

The minutes of to-day's session were read and approved.

The Council then united in singing the 315th hymn :

“Blest be the tie that binds.”

Prayer was offered by the Bishop, and the Council adjourned sine die.

T. G. DASHIELL, Secretary.

THOMAS SPENCER, Assistant Secretary.

JAMES T. GRAY, Treasurer Contingent Fund.

Report of the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, from May, 1888, to May, 1889, read by the Secretary, REV. PIKE POWERS, D. D., at the Missionary Meeting, Wednesday night, May 15, 1889.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report that they have aided, in the course of the past year, some 53 ministers, including the colored deacons, and have appropriated towards their support upwards of $9,000. Some of these ministers resigned or changed their Parishes during the year, and were replaced by other ministers, while in other cases the Parishes still remain vacant. The committee have also paid the salary of Rev. Ev. Meade, Evangelist, and have had another Evangelist, Rev. J. J. Norwood, at work for four or five months, whose salary is paid by the Richmond Protestant Episcopal Missionary Society. To meet this outlay, they have received from churches, schools and individuals, since the last Council, according to the Treasurer's report, $10,065.66, which would have been inadequate but for the fact that they began the year with a balance of $3,358.48 on hand. Besides the above regular and permanent appropriations, they have donated $400 or $500 in specials to ministers who had gotten into pecuniary difficulties through no fault of their own, or were in circumstances of distress which we are sure would enlist the sympathy of the Council and secure their approval of our action.

It will be seen, therefore, that the work is increasing on our hands, and if it goes on in this way, almost the whole Diocese, outside of the cities and towns, will to some extent be dependent on the Diocesan Missionary Society. We know that the country people, in a great many places, are poor, and that depletion by death and removal is going on more or less all the time. And we learn from statistics, drawn from the last JOURNAL by the Rev. B. M. Randolph and published in the Virginia Seminary Magazine, that the country Parishes have been doing better for Diocesan Missions than the city churches—the former giving an average of 67 cents and the latter 60 cents per head for Diocesan Missions. But there must be an increase of wealth and an influx of new-comers in some places, and it is hard to believe that out of 40 or 50 Parishes receiving aid from us, there could not be at least an average of one a year resigning its stipend and relieving the committee of its support. But it is a very rare thing for this to occur, and in almost every case they come back upon us after awhile. If the vacant Parishes which have no Minister to support, and little or no Parish expenses to meet, would give us a fair proportion of what they would pay their Minister, if they had one, it would aid us very materially in our work. If the Churches of the eleven cities in which the Council is held, which according to the statistics of Rev. B. M. Randolph, already referred to, contained last year 8,635 communicants, would give us three cents a Sunday per capita, it would amount to $13,470.60 a year; and if the rest of the Diocese, which contained, according to the same statistics, 7,877 communicants, would give us two cents per capita a Sunday, it would amount to $8,192.08 a year, and the whole would be $21,662.68 a year—an average of a little over two and a half cents a Sunday; whereas we have received from the whole Diocese since the last Council only $10,065.66, which is an average of one and one-sixth cents per capita, and a considerable falling off from the contributions of the last Council year.

What are the causes of this falling off we cannot undertake to determine. But still we think we have cause to be thankful. The contributions to Diocesan Missions have increased in the last five years more rapidly than the communicants, and we trust that in the good providence of God they will increase more and more; that more Parishes will become self-supporting; that the vacant Parishes will help themselves and help us more, and that we shall be enabled to do more, not only to help the weak Parishes that have Ministers, but to inaugurate more Mission work in destitute portions of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary D. M. S.

Miscellaneous

PETERSBURG, VA., May 31, 1889.

*Right Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D.,
President of the Board of Trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School:*

I respectfully report that eleven students have attended the Divinity School this session. One of these has been expelled and two will apply for ordination next month.

The conduct of the ten now in attendance has been very good. They have studied faithfully, and most of them have made fair progress.

The number of pupils in the Normal School is seventy-five—larger than ever before. The majority of these, all things considered, have given satisfaction. Several expect to graduate in June.

Mr. James E. Shields and Miss M. E. Griffiths, the colored teachers in the Normal School, have done faithful and conscientious work.

Mrs. M. Payne continues her faithful labors as matron. There have been twenty boarders in the two schools during the session.

Prof. Thomas Spencer will report his work in the two schools.

I have instructed the classes in the Divinity School in Apologetics, Homiletics, Pastoral Theology, Old Testament History, General History, English Grammar and Spelling, and in the Normal School classes in Logic, Church History and the Prayer Book.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. GOODWIN.

*Right Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D.,
President of the Board of Trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School:*

I respectfully report that during the session of 1888-'89 I have taught six classes daily in the Divinity School and three in the Normal School.

In the Divinity School I have taught in the following subjects: Hebrew Grammar and Exegesis, Greek Grammar and Exegesis, Miscellaneous.

Bible Introduction, Theology, and the Prayer Book. The progress made by the Divinity students in my classes has been generally good.

In the Normal School I have taught Latin, Mental Science and Moral Science, with very fair results in the case of some students and much discouragement in that of others.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

Right Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D., LL.D. :

Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia :

I would respectfully report that since last June I have been acting as the General Secretary of the Commission for work among colored people, and have resided in the city of Washington. In addition to my office duties, I have officiated nearly every Sunday, either representing the Commission, or assisting the Parish Clergy here and elsewhere.

 Miscellaneous

Through the untiring energy of Mr. J. W. Morris and others, a beautiful chapel has been built at Bailey's Cross-Roads, which will be ready for consecration when the Bishop visits it in June. The collections reported in table are exclusive of two hundred dollars raised by the Ladies' Missionary Society, also of the contributions of the Students' Missionary Society, also of the collections made in the chapel of the Seminary, or of any funds raised elsewhere and contributed to work at the various mission stations. In addition to the stations reported in table, services have been held every Sunday afternoon by Messrs. Clark and Craft in the waiting room of the Virginia Midland Railroad for the employees of the Company.

Respectfully submitted.

KINLOCH NELSON.

ERRATA.

On page 63 insert the following :

Offered by Rev. John K. Mason :

Resolved, That the next meeting of the Council be held in St. George's Church, Fredericksburg.

Carried.

On page 14 insert amongst Lay Delegates :

Mr. Mann Page, Brandon Parish, Prince George county.

Episcopal High School of Virginia.

THREE MILES WEST OF ALEXANDRIA.

Established in 1839.

L. M. BLACKFORD, M. A., Principal,

LLEWELLYN HOXTON, Associate Principal,

THE DIOCESAN SCHOOL FOR BOYS

The Session opens the FOURTH WEDNESDAY IN SEPTEMBER, and continues nine months. Scholars are received whenever there is a vacancy.

TERMS MODERATE.

Five resident masters, and liberal provisions in all respects for the improvement and comfort of pupils.

ELEVATED AND BEAUTIFUL LOCATION.

Extensive grounds, including an extensive Skating Pond and Covered Gymnasium, completely equipped. For Catalogue, with full particulars, address the PRINCIPAL, at Alexandria.

VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE, STAUNTON, VA.

Mrs. Gen. J. E. B. STUART, - - Principal.

Miss ANNIE S. PARRAN, - - Vice-Principal.

Assisted by Prof. BERKELEY MINOR, Prof. A. DEVALLAN, Madame DEVALLAN, Mrs. LOUISA DUPUY, and other highly competent teachers.

The next session of this Diocesan School for girls begins SEPTEMBER 13th, 1889, and continues nine months. Pupils received at any time. The grounds are extensive, the buildings ample, well adapted to their purpose, and comfortably warmed and lighted.

The English course is full, and arranged for either a partial or a full course. Ancient and Modern Languages, Drawing and Painting, Calisthenics and Elocution are taught by teachers of skill and experience.

Advantages in Instrumental and Vocal Music are unsurpassed.

TERMS.

For Board, Washing, Gas, Seat in Church, Calisthenics, and Tuition in the English Branches and Latin, - $250 00
If the pupil should, in addition, take Instrumental Music, $50;
Vocal Music, in classes, $10; French, $30; Elocution, $20; and ordinary use of Piano $10; the total charges would be, 370 00

This covers every expense of a pupil taking a most liberal course. There will be no extras whatever, unless books, music, and stationery should be so considered.

A few scholarships for the daughters of clergymen may be secured by early application. These will be increased with the prosperity of the school.

For Circulars, or other information, address the PRINCIPAL, Staunton, Va.
